Rayburn Engineers Victory

Sam Rayburn, the 55 year old Texan won the fight for President Roosevelt for the billion and a half unmarked relief bill after the bill had been pretty well shattered by scores of amendments. As it stands the WPA won a complete victory and with the re-appropriated money on hand it will have about two billion dollars for relief scattered over the next twelve months "if" the senate lets the bill stand as it passed the house.

Sam Rayburn is a bachelor. He served many terms in the Texas legislature and for two years was speaker of the Texas house. He won the fight for the majority leadership of the house of representatives. It was only after a conference with President Roosevelt, during which he obtained some concessions, that he was able to take the floor and tell members in a calm way to end their bickering and pass the relief bill which they did.

It was a great tribute to Sam Rayburn who altho a strict party man—has much respect for members of all parties. He is very much like Speaker Bankhead in doing his utmost to help members with their problems. Frequently republicans, progressives and democrats can be seen gathered around Sam Rayburn asking questions and getting some valuable information and advice. Altho Sam Rayburn is not as eloquent as speaker Bankhead, he typifies that class of an American who puts country ahead of party and shows it many times.

"Old Guard Very Small"

Republicans in the house of representatives are relatively few and of those here there are only a handful of what used to be known as "old guard reactionaries." All of the earmarking of the relief bill were done by democrats. Many republicans voted with them. Many did not.

It is safe to say today that a majority of the republicans are as progressive as the late Theodore Roosevelt. New thoughts, new times have changed many of their opinions and time and again these republicans are found forgetting party and fighting side-by-side with progressive democrats. Snell, the republican floor leader, who has been here a long time, admits to younger members, that he is a progressive. While some of the so-called stand-pat republicans voted against the relief bill, Snell voted for it. On the other hand some of the conservative southern democrats voted against it. Some southern democrats say they are fearing too much relief. The negro problem arises time and again. They say its pretty hard these days to get a negro who is getting government relief to work on a southern farm.

Warns Against CIO

Claire Hoffman, a congressman from Michigan is one of the most outspoken members against the C. I. O. He takes the position that the Lewis labor movement may wreck the nation. He believes in protection of private property and believes in private ownership. Almost daily he takes the floor to warn members that the bottom of Uncle Sam's money pocket has been reached. Hoffman is from the automobile district of Michigan and tells members that when private property is invaded something serious has happened to the free American citizen. He gets real attention from both sides although the pro-C. I. O. members frequently heckle him in debates.

Drinking Is Washington Pastime

Notwithstanding that hundreds of delegates are here for the national convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union the local newspapers in their society pages continue to print stories about the cocktail parties and the potency of these cocktails. Drinking of hard and intoxicating liquor in the nation's capitol is a very popular pastime. Even in the house restaurant the delegates to the W. C. T. U. convention find that powerful ales and beer are served. Many years ago there used to be a bar in one of the restaurants of the capitol.

Rains Bring Smiles

Reports of heavy rains in Nebraska brought smiles to the faces of all members in the Nebraska delegation. The weather map of the United States located in the house lobby is watched daily by all members from the farm group.

O'Neill, Nebraska,
May 25, 1937,
1:00 P. M.

Holt County Board of Supervisors met as per adjournment. All members present. Meeting called to order by Chairman.

The resignation of Clarence J. McClung as County Superintendent of Holt county was submitted to the Board at this time:

O, Neill, Nebraska
May 24, 1937.

Holt County Board of Supervisors
O'Neill, Nebraska,
Gentlemen:

A few days ago I was offered another position which will take me away from Holt county, and after giving the matter considerable thought I have decided to accept the position.

I feel that I would be doing myself an injustice by staying on when I can accept this other position. It is a position that I feel will afford me greater opportunity for advancement than the one I have at the present time.

In compliance with Section 79-1509 of the Nebraska school laws I hereby request an immediate acceptance of my resignation.

Yours very sincerely,
Clarence J. McClurg,
County Superintendent.

Motion by Matousek, seconded by Sullivan, that the resignation of Clarence J. McClurg as County Superintendent of Holt county, be accepted.
Carried.

Miss McCullough appeared before the Board relative to securing the appointment as County Superintendent.

Mr. Carey, District Engineer, met with the Board in a discussion of the feeder road program now being established by the Federal government and State Department of Roads.

5:00 P. M. On motion, Board adjourned until May 26, 1937, 9:00 A. M.

J. C. STEIN, Chairman.
John C. Gallagher, Clerk.
