Notes From the County Superintendent's Office

We were very well pleased over the fact that one hundred forty-seven teachers were both prompt and careful in filling out their third day reports. A few reports are not in yet and a few schools will not start until next Monday. Two schools of the county are yet without teachers.

There have been a good many calls for program charts but there are none for distribution this year. I believe each teacher can make a nice looking wall chart out of card board that can serve the purpose very well this term.

All rural teachers are required to attend the one day Institute Friday, October 1, at O'Neill. School boards are asked to give their teachers that day with pay for that purpose.

Institute instructors have been selected with the idea of giving teachers inspirational and instructive material to help them meet the situations before them for the year. Theo. C. Diers of the University School of Music will start the day at 8:45 a. m. with group singing. His wife, one of the principal soloists of Lincoln is to be with him and has promised a solo. Chloe H. Baldridge of the state department, Dr. Thompson of Lincoln, Mrs. Wider, Art Instructor at Mitchell,

S. D., and Misner Players are on the program. We hope that the teachers will find it pleasurable and profitable to attend.

We have just finished writing checks for rural and city exhibits. This money will be given to the rural teachers at Institute Oct. 1. Twenty-two rural districts will receive $1.00 or over and 57 will receive less than $1.00. The following is a list of the districts receiving $1.00 and over:

- No. 121, 3.00; No. 135, 2.00; No. 48, 1.80; No. 124, 1.80; No. 168, 1.70; No. 152, 1.65; No. 174, 1.60; No. 236, 1.60; No. 163, 1.50; No. 187, 1.40; No. 130, 1.40; No. 105, 1.30; No. 111, 1.30; No. 156, 1.30; No. 231, 1.30; No. 180, 1.15; No. 71, 1.10; No. 107, 1.10; No. 98, 1.05; No. 59, 1.00; No. 120, 1.00; No. 127, 1.00.
