IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF HOLT COUNTY, NEBRASKA

In the Matter of the Application of Julius D. Cronin, Administrator of the Estate of Jennie L. Crawford, Deceased, for License to sell real estate.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY LICENSE SHOULD NOT BE GRANTED TO SELL REAL ESTATE.
Now, on this 30th day of November, A. D., 1937, this cause came on for hearing upon the petition and application, under oath, of Julius D. Cronin, administrator of the Estate of Jennie L. Crawford, and now the property of her said estate, to-wit: Southeast Quarter of Section Three, Township Twenty-eight, Range Thirteen, West of the Sixth P. M., Holt County, Nebraska; Northwest Quarter of Section Ten, Township Twenty-eight, Range Thirteen, West of the Sixth P. M., Holt County, Nebraska, for the purpose of paying debts owing by said deceased and allowed against said estate and allowances and exemptions made by the Probate Court to the Surviving spouse of said Deceased and the costs and expenses of administration, and it appearing to the Court from said petition that there is no personal property in the possession of the said Julius D. stray into the realms of the Kitchen Table column then let me advise him to throw sensible thoughts to the winds and buy his wife a luxurious gift for Christmas. A woman will smile and thank her husband for a new boiler, a house dress or pancake griddle which she needs, but its the cosmetics, the cobwebby hose, or the five pound box of chocolates which really cause her to wipe away the tears of joy.

One of our editor friends says it doesn't take experience to run a newspaper as the subscribers are always ready to tell you how to do it.

BRIEFLY STATED

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Johnson are rejoicing over the arrival at their home Wednesday of a baby girl.

Ambrose Biglin came Monday from Casper, Wyo., to spend the holidays visiting his mother and other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Puckett are the parents of a seven and one-half pound baby girl born to them last Tuesday. They have named her Lois Eileen.

The Mellor Motor company are having the interior of the office and showroom of their garage redecorated, in preparation for the showing of the new line of Ford cars.

F. J. Biglin and son, Joseph, left Monday afternoon for Omaha, where Joe will receive further treatment for his eyes. They will return home the latter part of the week.

Thomas Grady and sisters, the Misses Mayme, Rose and Catherine, of Denver, who were here attending the funeral of their brother, Ben J. Grady, left for their home last Tuesday morning.

Emmet Wertz of Star, Louis Burival and L. M. Merriman of O'Neill, and V. V. Rosenkrans of Dorsey were callers last Saturday and each extended their subscription and were recipients of a nice Kwik Lite electric lantern.

F. B. O'Connell, secretary of the Nebraska Fish and Game commission, and Dr. Sullivan of Greeley, a member of the commission, were in the city last Friday visiting friends and looking after matters in connection with their official positions.

Mr. and Mrs. George Agnes and daughter came up from Petersburg last Wednesday night on receiving word of the death of Ben Grady. Mr. Agnes returned home Sunday while Mrs. Agnes remained here for a visit of one week with her sister, Mrs. Grady.

The funeral of Ben J. Grady was held last Friday morning and was very largely attended, attesting the high esteem in which this old time business man was held by the people of this city and vicinity. A large number of the American Legion boys marched from the church to the cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira H. Moss drove to Lincoln last Monday morning and attended a meeting of the Nebraska Association of Clerks of the District Court, returning home that night. Mr. Moss says there were about forty clerks from various parts of the state in attendance and the new bookkeeping system that goes into effect Jan. 1, 1938, caused most of the discussion at the meeting.

Emmet Carr of Stafford, was the first new reader to qualify for one of the lanterns offered by The Frontier to new and old subscribers who pay their subscription one year in advance. Emmet dropped in Friday, Nov. 26 and ordered The Frontier sent to his address for one year, and, although the lantern announcement had not been yet made, he received a Kwik Lite all purpose lantern. We hope that it will prove valuable to him.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Donohoe of Detroit, Mich., arrived in the city last Thursday evening to attend the funeral of Mr. Donohoe's brother-in-law, Ben J. Grady. They left for home Sunday going via Sioux City. Judge J. A. Donohoe, who was holding federal court in Bismark, N. D., and who flew from Bismark to Sioux City accompanied them as far as Sioux City where he took a plane to Bismark to complete his term of court there.

Nope, 'tisn't opportunity knocking at your door exactly, it's Blanche again. Busy as I know you are, I hope you'll talk across the kitchen table with me, while we have a second cup of coffee.

Just read in a paper that when a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Amos Mustard at a hospital in Logansport, Ind., Mr. Mustard delivered a fruit jar full of dimes to the institution as payment on the bill. It contained $45. But seriously saving your dimes isn't at all a bad idea. Make a slot in a baking powder can, and drop in a nickel or a dime, or even a penny just as often as you can spare it. It is surprising how fast the money piles up. Save it for special furniture for the house, some desired silverware, or even a humble oil cloth table cover.
