HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The algebra 9 classes are finishing a review on simple equations and next will take work in quadratic equations.

Orientation classes are studying the beginning of community life, its growth, and community life as it is today.

The American History class last Friday discussed International law and the rights of a nation over water and air. They were much interested in examining a copy of the New York Herald of April 14, 1865, which told of the assassination of Abraham Lincoln. The paper was brought by Vernon Spangler and belongs to his grandparents.

The rural Sociology class is discussing this week the importance of the home as an institution and the particular problem of rural housing.

Pronouns and their correct use have been a difficult task for the English 9 students.

The English 10 class has been writing news stories. There are many prospective journalists in the group.

Miss Collins spent the week-end in Wayne visiting her parents.

The French government won in parliament by a vote of 520 to 9. That one vote accounts for Maine but where was Vermont?

BRIEFLY STATED
