Favorite Recipe of the Week

For Winter Meals.
SCALLOPED dishes are favorites for cold weather because it is a pleasure to use the oven, and because the blended flavor of foods makes such delicious finished products. The tartness of tomatoes complements most any meat that is being served, and while there are almost unlimited ways of making the dish, you may enjoy trying the following recipe:

Scalloped Tomatoes.
1 No 2 1/2 can tomatoes 2 cups bread crumbs
1 tsp. minced onion 4 tsp. butter
1 tsp. salt

Combine the tomatoes with the onion and arrange a layer in a baking dish. Mix the salt and sugar with the bread crumbs and blend with melted butter. Place a layer of crumbs over the tomatoes, add another layer of tomatoes, crumbs, and so on until the dish is filled and ingredients used. Leave crumbs on top. Bake 30 minutes in a moderate oven.

If you happen to have some sweet cucumber pickles on hand, slice two or three and add them to the above ingredients.

Tars Training for Battle

Gas-masked pupils shown during a six-inch gun drill aboard H. M. S. Calcutta at Chatham as part of the training of Britain's newly recruited naval personnel. Shortage of shore training establishments because of the size of the rearment, have made it necessary to use ships at sea for training British tars instead of the customary land stations. With the construction of new battleships, cruisers, destroyers and aircraft carriers, the personnel of the British navy has been considerably increased, putting a strain on the facilities for training the new recruits.

Among the many tea testers assembled by Uncle Sam in New York recently was Robert Lewis. Mr. Lewis sampled many brands of tea which will determine the standards for 20,000,000,000 cups of the beverage to be consumed by Americans in 1938. One of them, at least, didn't make a hit with Mr. Lewis. It's the one he is shown holding—and disliking.
