

When Poles Prepared for Invasion

Well equipped, well-drilled, these steel-helmeted Polish troops were photographed at Bydgosz recently as they marched past their commander in chief, General Smigly-Rydz. Soon afterward they were rushed to the Lithuanian border to enforce a Polish ultimatum. When Lithuania capitulated the world breathed easier as a threat of war was removed.

New Star Is Born

A new star looms in the baseball world, as Mrs. Joe Medwick, wife of the St. Louis Cardinal star presents their new son, Joseph Michael, in his first photograph. Note the baby's first plaything gift from his famous father. Mother is holding it.

One-Legged Kegler in ABC Tournament

Carl R. Steinke, bowler from Pekin, Ill., can polish off the maples better than many keglers, despite his handicap of having only one leg.

He demonstrated that at the ABC meet at Chicago, when he rolled games of 125-122-104. He averages higher than that during the regular season.

First Lady Breaks Ground for Exhibit at 1939 Exposition

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, who was guest of honor at the dedication and ground breaking for the Federal building for the 1939 Golden Gate International exposition in San Francisco. Here she is shown delivering her address, after which she rode in a flower bedecked tractor to break the ground.

Tornado Plays Freak Tricks

Property damage estimated at a million dollars and the loss of nine lives were the toll of a tornado that swept through Belleville, Ill., recently. This picture shows an automobile owner looking at his wrecked car. Note the piece of wood that went all the way through the tire.

Cavalry, Old-Fashioned and Modern

Scenes and Persons in the Current News

1—Battered by months of incessant attacks by the superior forces and equipment of the insurgents, the Spanish loyalists were falling back in disorder on Barcelona. War-torn loyalist soldiers are shown in an insurgent camp. 2—Secretary of State Cordell Hull shown signing a trade agreement with Vladimir Hurban, Czechoslovakian minister to the United States. 3—Joseph Buerckel, who was designated by Adolf Hitler to reorganize the Austrian National Socialist party following the Fuehrer's successful coup.

In the Oriental Manner

Scovere (left) and Promoter, two prominent candidates for trotting horse honors this year, shown in a bit of affectionate nose rubbing at Pinehurst, N. C., where they are in training for the Hambletonian and other leading three-year-old stakes.

SAMMY ON DIAMOND

"Slinging Sammy" Baugh, ace performer of the professional football ranks who is being given a baseball tryout this spring by the St. Louis Cardinals. "If I make the grade with the Cards, I'll give up football," Sammy announced.

NEW JAP COMMANDER

Gen. Shunroku Hata, Russo-Japanese war veteran, who recently was appointed commander in chief of the Japanese forces in China to succeed Gen. Iwane Matsui, who was recalled. General Hata is one of Japan's "big three" in military circles, ranking with the minister of war and the chief of the general staff. He is one of Japan's five full generals.

An Inversionist in Action

Frank Balck, age eleven, an inversionist, is a pupil in the fifth grade of the Fulton school at Chicago. At left he is shown reading a book upside down, at right he is shown writing on a blackboard upside down. He is said to be the best speller in his class.

"No More Headaches" for Soviet Russia

"No More Headaches" was the title of this float in the recent Rose day parade in Koln, Germany. The tableau depicts the newest purges in Soviet Russia. A big head of Stalin dominates the scene, while lesser Soviet lights are holding aloft their heads. One of the signs reads "Thanks of the Little Father."

A Seamless Knit on Round Needle

All eyes on this knitted two-piecer! So summery, in white or pastels, it's done mainly in stockinette stitch, with a lace stitch defining its "sunburst" yoke. Use a round needle and there'll be nary a seam to sew or show. You'll love it in either nubby cotton yarn, a combination of wool and rayon,
