O'Neill and Emmet Beer Dealers Before Liquor Commission

The state liquor commission cited M. J. Enright, of O'Neill, and Lloyd L. James, of Emmet, Tuesday to show cause why their licenses should not be revoked for "permitting sale or gift of alcoholic liquor to a person who is physically or mentally incapacitated by such liquor." The hearings are set for Thursday. This is the first time since the law has been passed that the gift or sale of liquor to intoxicated persons has been brought up, Chairman McEachen stated.—Lincoln State Journal, Wednesday.

A good sized delegation of O'Neill people left for Lincoln this morning to attend the hearing, including Mr. Enright and his attorney and Chief of Police Chet Calkins, who was subpoenaed as a witness by the state commission.

Clearinghouse Ass'n Holds Meeting Here

The spring meeting of the North Central Nebraska Regional Clearinghouse association was held in this city last Thursday evening, with a dinner at the Golden, after which the business meeting was held.

The association covers the following counties in this section of the state: Holt, Boyd, Brown, Keya Paha, Wheeler, Rock Antelope and Knox. At the meeting thirty members of the association were present. F. J. McDermott, vice president of the First National Bank of Omaha, was present and addressed the meeting. His talk was on money and public relations of banks and bankers with people of their respective communities.

Those who attended the meeting say it was very instructive.

Við Halva Recalls Ill-Fated Titanic

Twenty-six years ago tomorrow, or April 15, 1912, is a date that will never be forgotten by Vic Halva of this city. On the above date Vic was a passenger on the ill-fated Titanic that struck an iceberg and sank in the Atlantic ocean with a loss of hundreds of lives. Vic says that he was in the water about four and a half hours, supported with a life belt, that is similar to the inner tube of an automobile tire. It was a little after 1 a. m. when he hit the water and about 5:30 in the morning when he was picked up by one of the boats that came to the assistance of the stricken giant of the seas.

Vic says he loves to swim but the experience he had that morning is one that he does not want to repeat and he figures that he is mighty lucky that he is now in O'Neill instead of the bottom of the Atlantic ocean.

Brady Addresses Lions

Senator Frank Brady, of Atkinson, spoke before the local Lions Club last Monday evening at a dinner at the Golden on the subject of taxation. The meeting was well attended and the Senators address was very well received.

Country Club Invites New Members For 1938

All residents of O'Neill are invited to participate in the activities of the country club. The dues are low and are within the reach of any who care to join. The program of events for 1938 will be outlined at an early meeting of the directors and will appear in the O'Neill papers. In the interval all residents of O'Neill who are not members and contemplate joining the club for 1938, are invited to avail themselves of all the privileges of the club.

The treasurer's report shows the club to be in excellent financial condition. The report discloses that the corporation owns fifty-five acres of valuable land, building valued at $500.00 and a golf links that has been kept in the finest possible condition for the past fifteen years. The indebtedness against the land at the present time is $800.00, with about $300 cash on hand. A new mower will be purchased at a cost of about $350.00 and it was agreed by the stockholders that no extra assessment would be necessary for this purchase.

Golf was first played in O'Neill in the year 1914, being introduced by Ralph Evans and a traveling man by the name of Guy Raybeck. The game met with immediate favor and from the year 1914 until 1920 the Mullen land east of O'Neill was the home of the country club. In 1920 the new course was occupied and with the construction of the club house the club flourished. It has been the scene of many splendid tournaments and interesting events.

Cattle At Atkinson 25 To 50c Higher; Eastern Buyers Take The Best

With a brisk demand for all classes of cattle last Tuesday the receipts of 550 head were sold in record time and at prices mostly 25 to 50 cents a hundred higher.

A buyer from Indiana took four carloads and several buyers from Iowa took a load each.

The top load of steer calves were from Colorado and topped the market at 8.50. A load of choice quality heifer calves brought 7.60.

John Shald of Stuart, was in with a nice consignment of 110 head, mostly calves which sold at very satisfactory prices. William Tuma of Burwell was in with a nice assignment of cows and heifers. The top cows with calves by side, sold at $57.75 with others selling on down to $52.50.

Representative sales: Top steer calves at 8.50, with plainer calves from 7.00 to 8.00; heifer calves from 6.25 to 7.25 with the top load at 7.60; yearling steers at 6.75 to 7.40; yearling heifers at 6.00 to 6.80. Heavy steers at 6.90 to 7.50. Cows also shared the local upturn. Canners cashed at 3.75 to 4.25, with the better cows selling from 5.50 to 6.10.

Butcher hogs showed the decline that is evident at all the central markets. Top butchers cashed at 7.40 to 7.70 and butcher sows at 7.00 to 7.25. Bred sows are selling exceptionally well cashing at 10.50 to 12.40 at Tuesdays sale. Pigs weighing from 75 to 100 pounds sold at 8.00 to 8.70, with no lighter weights on sale.

Next sale Tuesday, April 19.

St. Mary's Academy Notes Music Department

St. Mary's Student Choir will sing the Jubilee Mass of the Sacred Heart by M. Marsh, in four voices on Easter morning, at St. Patrick's church, ten-thirty. For weeks the students of the high school have been preparing for the Easter services and with the great Feast soon to be celebrated, final practices are in session for its perfection. Thru this liturgy the students have received some splendid training in voice culture and technique. The vocal teacher has been untiring in her efforts and she can well be proud of the results. The choir will be directed on Easter morning by Mr. F. Meyer. Solos in the High Mass will be: "Et Incarnatus Est"—Nadene Coyne "Qui cum Patre"—Elaine Street— "Et in Spiritum"—Lanone Miles "Gloria Patri"—Bardy Kubitschek "Psalm Verse"—Edward Quinn.

On Good Friday the rite of the adoration of the Cross is enacted. This ceremony owes its origin to a custom in Jerusalem in the fourth century of venerating on Good Friday the wood of the true Cross, while the reproaches spoken by Christ to His people whom He had always treated with kindness were sung. Some of these reproaches will be sung by the St. Mary's choir on Friday morning.

On Holy Saturday, the high school boys will chant the Litany, the Magnificat, and Vespers after Holy Mass.

Elementary Department
The Fifth and Sixth grades have about completed a project on the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass that shows unique talent and initiative for elementary grade children. All handicraft used in study objectives in this project are on exhibit in the Fifth and Sixth grade classroom at the academy. There are replicas of a liturgical altar, patens, chalices, ciborium, monstrances, amices, stoles, maniples, chasubles, etc.

Outstanding work was done by the following:
A brass chalice and a wooden ciborium by John Gallagher;
A model liturgical altar by John Janousek;

A large altar by Claude Hamilton;
Sets of vestments by Donna Gallagher, Leona Hamilton, Lou Birmingham, Eldora Lowry and Collette Meyer;
Altar linens by Mary Alice Judge and Alice Stein;
Alby by Dorothy Bellinger, Donna Clements, Elenore Bazelman.
Altar hangings by Edward Campbell;
Tabernacle Booklets by Richard Davis, Donna Gallagher and Bill Gallagher; Communion Paten by Jimmy Golden.

Classes at the academy were dismissed at noon Wednesday for the Easter holidays. They will be resumed Tuesday morning.

PEOPLE YOU KNOW

Mrs. Margaret Allen, who had been seriously ill for about a month suffering from a severe attack of the grip, is rapidly recovering from her illness. She was confined to bed for about three weeks but the last ten days she has been able to be up, a fact that will be gratifying news to her many friends in this city and vicinity.

Leo Matthews returned from a hospital at Sioux City last Thursday night, where he had been operated on ten days previously for appendicitis. He was attended by Dr. Leahy, a brother of Father Leahy formerly of this city and now pastor at Genoa.

Mrs. Stuart Meech and her sister, Louise O'Donnell, left last Sunday afternoon for Omaha. The latter will visit in Omaha for a few days while Mrs. Meech will go on to Chicago for a week and will then leave for a visit of several weeks in California.

Romaine Saunders of the southwest part of the county, was in the city Tuesday, greeting friends and looking after a few items of business. The compiler of the Breezes looks fat and robust after spending four of the winter months at Lincoln, Nebr.

Mrs. C. C. Bergstrom, Mrs. Esther Harris and Mrs. Guy Cole drove to Sioux City Tuesday morning, returning that evening and bringing Miss Ruth Harris, who is a student at Morningside College, home with them for the Easter holidays.

Miss Anna Connolly, who has been an employee of the Northwestern Bell Telephone company here for the past several years, has received word that she has been transferred to the Omaha office, effective April 25.

Miss Mary Joan Finley, who is a student at Creighton university in Omaha, arrived here Wednesday to spend Easter with her father, Dr. W. F. Finley, and with other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Geneux and son, Lewis, of Bratlet, were in O'Neill Tuesday, to take their daughter, Rachel, home for the Easter holidays. Rachel is a student at St. Mary's academy.

Word has been received here that Miss Madeline Ullom has accepted a position with the Walter Reed Hospital at Washington, D. C., and will enter upon her duties immediately.

Miss Grace O'Donnell returned to her home in Omaha Wednesday after spending a few days visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. O'Donnell in this city.

Last Wednesday Julia Corrigan Sample, of Emmet, filed on the democratic ticket as a candidate for the democratic nomination for register of deeds.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Yarnell and family will go to Grand Island Sunday to spend Easter with their daughter, Geraldine, who is a student at the business college there.

Paul F. Morris, of Benkleman, was in O'Neill Saturday as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Moore.

Mrs. Addie Wrede went to Fremont Friday to visit her daughter and family, Mrs. W. R. Easton.

SOUTHWEST BREEZES

Mrs. T. T. Baker was a guest of Mrs. E. E. Young Sunday afternoon.

Lumber was hauled to the place occupied by Ray Bly Tuesday for some building improvements.

The Bernard Kennedy family visited Sunday at Mrs. Kennedy's parental home, the Tom Doolittle ranch.

It is said the use of plug tobacco has fallen off over one-half because there is no place left to spit. Cigarettes are as common as undarned socks.

It is said there is not a Mormon accepting government relief. Of course, as millions are computed in our population there are not so many Mormons, and they being grouped in a religious and industrial center plan and plant for abundance rather than scarcity.

Three horses, lost, strayed or stolen from the Kizer ranch down by the lake entailed a search over a considerable sweep of country but the nags had not been located Tuesday when ranchers were thru here. It is said some horses are being stolen and conveyed to distant markets.

The Holt county units of a woman's organization which did much to bring about the Eighteenth amendment are displaying signs "Repeal Has Failed." A lot of people seem to think so. Out of seven thousand wet and dry contests in as many politics sections there were victories for the dries in five thousand of these. The count was as much as 13 to 1 in some localities.

A young man, from far southwest Swan shows interest and devotes time to stop at the homes, talk and hand out little religious leaflets when necessity takes him onto the road. He is connected with what is known as the Baptist mission recently started south of the lake. The spiritual state of the union would indicate the need of missionaries at home as well as in far jungles of raw heathenism. And the world's troubled nations has aroused interest in spiritual things, so that the one with a message has a respectful hearing.

That a group of American youth went seriously to Washington with a whimpering protest that they would not engage in war; that out in the old west where leather-clad frontiersmen wrestled grizzly bears and crushed the heads of rattlers now large numbers of women and girls work in strawberry and pea fields make the old timers feel we are becoming a nation of sissies. There are worse things than war and I imagine Hitler ordering us out here in the southwest to goose-step would be one of these. Should occasion arise for our nation to arm for defense, why not take the old men, leaving the younger with the home fires? Those on pension would feel they were earning it if dressed in a uniform. There is a lot of

DOES THIS INDICATE A FARM SURPLUS?

By Karl Stefan
Are we really increasing our imports of foreign farm products? That question is contained in so many letters these days that a comparison of the 1932 and 1937 import figures is timely. From these figures, one may visualize how many acres of land it would have taken to have produced these imported farm products, and how much more the income of the American farmer would have been had we raised these additional amounts at home instead of importing them from the foreign farmer.

High Honor Comes To Former O'Neill Boy

Many residents of O'Neill will remember the Hazelet family who formerly lived here. There were two boys who were born in O'Neill, and left here with their parents for Alaska in the early part of the century.

A great honor has been conferred upon the younger of the two sons, Craig Hazelet, who is now a resident of Chicago, Ill., and engaged in the engineering profession. Recently the American Institute of Engineers awarded to the firm of Hazelet & Erdal the highest honor that an engineer can receive when a $500.00 prize was given to Mr. Hazelet for his elevated highway design.

There were 287 entrants from all parts of the world in this contest, and the Chicago papers, in a recent account, state that the first prize in this competition was equal to the highest compliment that could be paid any engineer. Further, the Chicago Tribune states that bridges designed by Mr. Hazelet may be found in all parts of the world.

Craig has not visited O'Neill for a great number of years, but there are many in O'Neill who remember him as a boy, and who will rejoice in this honor that has come to him. His present address is in care of Hazelet & Erdal, Consulting Engineers, Monadnock Building, Chicago, Ill.

Mona Melvin Is A Successful Designer

Miss Mona Melvin of St. Louis, Mo., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Melvin of this city, is mentioned in the Women's Wear Daily (New York City) of March 22, as one of five graduates of the Washington University school of Fine Arts, who are getting on in the world. The paragraph about Miss Melvin is as follows:

"Miss Mona Melvin, who did junior dress designing for both Doris Dodson and Forest City, is now connected as junior miss designer with Mary Muffet dresses, of this city, together with two other former classmates, Miss Loretta Novy and Miss Virginia Lamar."

Child Scalded

Carla, the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Oppen, suffered severe burns on both legs at her home last Friday when she pulled a coffee pot filled with boiling coffee off the stove, saturating herself with the boiling fluid. She is getting along nicely.

Visits Parents In O'Neill

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ennis of Charleston, West Virginia, arrived in the city last Monday evening for a weeks visit at the home of Mr. Ennis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Ennis. Mr. Ennis has been a resident of Charleston for the past three years, as fleet manager of the General Motors corporation. Prior to that time he had represented the corporation as general manager of their business in Australia and has held responsible positions with the company for many years.

Prior to his association with General Motors he was an employee of the Ford Motor company for several years and was, at one time, manager of the assembly plant in Omaha. Mr. Ennis does not expect to return to Charleston, as he has had enough of the south and is thinking of engaging in business for himself, possibly in Omaha.

Mrs. Pat Myhre Dies At Pocatello, Idaho
O'Neill friends received word last Friday of the death of Mrs. Pat Myhre at Pocatello, Idaho on Thursday of last week. Mr. Myhre was formerly manager of the Armour Creameries plant here. The following item is from the Tribune of Salt Lake City, under a Pocatello date line:
"Mrs. Lucille D. Myhre, 30, wife of Orin A. Myhre, manager of the Armour Company offices here, died Thursday morning of a heart attack. Apparently in good health, after a recent operation in Iowa, Mrs. Myhre complained of having a severe headache Thursday morning and took medicine to alleviate the pain. Two hours later she was found unconscious at her home, 734 East Halliday street, but died before a physician arrived."
"Mrs. Myhre, a graduate of the University of Iowa, was born in South Dakota on June 3, 1907, and lived most of her life at St. Ansgar, Iowa. She was married in Mason City, Iowa, on June 2, 1934, and came to Pocatello with her husband last July. She is survived by her husband and a brother, R. A. Culver of Marly, Iowa."
The funeral was held at Pocatello, and burial at St. Ansgar, Iowa, beside her parents.

Here And There

K. C. Matheson of Rushville, formerly county treasurer of Sheridan county, was sentenced to one to two years in the state penitentiary for pleading guilty to a charge of participating in the embezzlement of $5,000 in state inheritance tax funds. He was also fined $11,500.00. A former county judge was convicted on a similar charge in connection with the same embezzlement and an attorney of that county is waiting trial on the same charge.

President Roosevelt suffered his second serious defeat at the hands of this congress last Friday afternoon when his reorganization bill went down to defeat in the house with a vote of 204 to 196. In the vote 108 democrats joined with 88 republicans, 6 independents and 2 farmer laborites to defeat the measure. The defeat of this bill was received with joy by people in all parts of the United States.

John M. Thompson, 75, of Lincoln, for over fifty years an employee of the State Journal, died at his home in that city last week. Mr. Thompson covered the state house for the Journal for over forty years, and had a larger acquaintance with men in public life during that period, than any man in the state. John was a very pleasant and agreeable man and had a host of friends among public officials, present and past, who will mourn his passing.

Lady luck occasionally puts in a good word for her favorites. Last Thursday Charles McWilliams of Syracuse, Nebr., suffered only minor cuts and bruises when his car was sheared in two in a collision with a Burlington motor train.

The Northwestern Bell Telephone company, according to officials in this section of the state, suffered a $200,000 loss from the recent sleet storm in Nebraska and Iowa.

J. H. Riggs of Sioux City spent the week-end in O'Neill as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKenna and family.

Henry Martin, Clarence Wrede and H. B. Hubbard of Lincoln, were in Atkinson Friday on business.

Final Vote Count Gives Coyne A Majority Of 30 Over Kersenbrock

The city council met last Friday evening as a canvassing board to canvass the vote cast at the last city election, including the mail vote, which was not opened until that evening. Following is the mail vote on the various candidates:

Mayor—Kersenbrock 4; Coyne 20; City Clerk—Porter 24; City Treasurer; Quinn 25; for Police Judge—Bay 8, Tomlinson 17; for Councilman, First ward—Bazelman 5, McNally 3; Councilman Second ward—Lindberg 2; Councilman Third ward—Yantzi 10, Bachman 3. For members of the school board—Shoemaker 19, Burgess 22, and Mrs. Lindberg 2.

The final vote for mayor was Kersenbrock 492, Coyne 522, a majority of 30 for Coyne. Several of the Kersenbrock mail votes were not counted because they were not properly made out, but even if they had been counted it would not have made any change in the final result. For police judge, Bay 504, Tomlinson 444, or a majority of 60 for Bay. The final vote for members of the school board was: Burgess 569, Shoemaker 543, and Mrs. Lindberg 215.

Shamrock Stamp Club Organized Past Week

About a dozen of the adult philatelists of this city met last Friday evening in the office of James W. Rooney and organized a stamp club with the following officers: Chris Yantzi, president; Melvin Ruzicka, vice president; Arlene Kilpatrick, secretary and treasurer.

The juniors of this city have had a club here for several months and they, in connection with the members of the adult club, are now busy preparing for the celebration of National air mail week, May 15 to 21. On May 19 an airplane will be in the city and it will be possible to send mail by air from this city for the first time, and the stamp enthusiasts are looking forward to it eagerly, as a stamp that left this city by the first air mail from here, they figure will be a valuable asset to any collection.

Receipts Good At County Judge's Office

Last week County Judge Malone filed his report on the business of his office for the first three months of 1938 and it was one of the biggest quarters the office has had for several years. During the quarter, fees collected amounted to $932.45; fines collected $250.00; inheritance taxes collected $225.00, or a total of $1,707.93 for the first three months of the year. A comparison with the amount of business the first three months of last year shows that 1938 is more than double that of 1937. The collections during the first three months of 1937 amounted to $623.30, divided as follows: Fines $75.00; fees collected $548.30.

Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jarvis of Atkinson, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary last Friday. They were married in Iowa and came to Nebraska in 1898 and ever since have been residents of Atkinson and that section of the county.

Figures That Shout

(Kansas City Star)
At the risk of being set down as hopelessly old fogyish in this expansive age, the Star presents a record of government expenditures compiled by Senator Harry F. Byrd of Virginia in a recent speech. He obtained the figures from government auditors. They do not include expenditures for relief and recovery:

Year	High	Low Precip.
1934	—	$2,700,000,000
1935	—	3,200,000,000
1936	—	3,300,000,000
1937	—	4,400,000,000
1938 (estimated)	—	5,400,000,000

These figures speak for themselves. No comment is required.
