

MEEK AND VICINITY

Mrs. Hattie Smith, of Spokane, Wash., who has been visiting relatives here the past week, left for North Platte on Friday, where she plans to visit her niece, Mrs. C. S. Griffith, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hull were dinner guests at the Preston Jones home on Easter.

Cecil Griffith spent the Easter vacation with home folks. Miss Maude Rouse also spent the weekend at the Griffith home.

Mrs. Elmer Deval entertained the Ladies Aid on Wednesday. Quite a large crowd attended. Mrs. Deval and her mother, Mrs. Harrison served a delicious lunch.

Mrs. Ella Karr, who has spent the winter in Iowa, came home a short time ago suffering with rheumatism. She is somewhat improved but is far from being well yet.

The annual meeting to plan for Decoration and Clean-up Day will be held at the Paddock Union church on the evening of April 24. A good attendance is requested.

Miss Lucille Jones spent the Easter vacation with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Borg and family were guests at the Howard Rouse home on Easter.

Morris Graham spent Friday evening at Frank Griffith's.

The next meeting of the Ladies Aid will be with Mrs. George Hansen.

Ava Jones spent the Easter vacation at home.

We are glad to report that Mrs. Lansworth, who was taken suddenly ill last week, is much better at this writing.

Mrs. Gertrude Hicks, who has been staying with Mrs. Frank Griffith and helping there since Mrs. Griffith came home from the hospital, returned to her home in O'Neill Saturday.

Mrs. Emma Miller received word a short time ago of the death of her mother, Mrs. Childs, at Bellingham, Wash. The Childs family formerly lived in this locality. Mrs. Childs has been in poor health for a number of years and her passing was not unlooked for.

A baby daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Dick Robertson at the O'Neill hospital on Monday. The little one only lived a short time. Mrs. Robertson is getting along as well as could be expected.

Mrs. E. H. Rouse spent Easter at the home of her son, Horace and family. Will Langan and children called there in the afternoon.

Pheasants seem to know that Mrs. A. L. Borg is tender hearted and wouldn't hurt them, as one flew into the yard right near and she ran and caught him. She put him with the chickens for several days and later turned him loose. Some of the men are not so fortunate as to get them even in the hunting season.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Leidy drove to Lincoln Thursday and brought back a group of students from the State University, including Miss Patty Watson, Billie Watson, Keith McGraw, Marvin Youngs and Gerald Sobotka.

Doris Stevens, Wilma Chicken, Marjorie Rouse and Eunice Chudomelka, students at Wayne State Normal, spent their Easter vacation here with home folks.

Miss Lois Moor, who teaches at North Bend, Nebr., spent the Easter holidays here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Moor.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brittell, who have spent the winter at Neligh, Nebr., arrived here Sunday and will occupy the Carl Wilcox house in the north part of town. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Conard, of Neligh, brought them.

A birthday dinner was given in honor of John Anspach at his home here Sunday, the occasion being his 78th birthday. It was also the 8th birthday of his grandson, Keith Anspach, and a joint celebration was held. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Hardin Anspach and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Anspach and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Conard and daughter, Mary Lou, and Miss Helen Anspach, of Emmet. Huge birthday cakes centered the dinner table and Easter motifs were in evidence.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turnbull, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Turnbull, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cobb and two children, and Mr. and Mrs. Hise Martin and two children, all of Garden, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hadden Geary.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Tompkins and children, of Omaha, were here Saturday and Sunday visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Tompkins.

Mrs. Jessie McClurg, of Stuart, is here for a visit with her son, Warren, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ruther and family attended the funeral services for her brother, Frank William Gaedde, at Clearwater, Tuesday. Mr. Gaedde had been ill for some time.

emanding economy on the one hand while on the other acting as "pressure groups," howling for public money for pet projects. Home town boosters of this sort are almost as serious a menace to Democracy as the worst of the dictators!

The nation needs real economy but it can never have it until the American people exhibit a sincere demand for economy—beginning back home.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Jones and son, James, of Denver, Colo., were here for Easter visiting at the home of Mrs. Jones' mother, Mrs. D. Stannard and with other relatives and friends here. They left for home this morning.

T. S. Mains, who had been office man for the Mellor Motor Company for the past ten years, has been appointed the local agent of the Security Acceptance Corporation, of Omaha, and will open an office on the north side of the Streeter barber shop, next door south of The Frontier office. He expects to be ready for business next Monday.
