

Mother's 'Breath of Life' Saves Unconscious Infant Missouri Meerschaum—From Cob Bin to Cob Pipe

Quick thinking saved a tiny life recently when nine-month old Gary Bucholz was found unconscious in his bathtub by his mother, Mrs. Marie Bucholz, 20, of Chicago. The horror-stricken mother hurriedly picked up the baby and breathed into its mouth, as shown at the left. Recovery rewarded her quick action, and policemen, firemen and a doctor arriving at the home were confronted with this happy ending.

Home of the Missouri meerschaum is peaceful little Washington, Mo., famous as the birthplace of the corn-cob pipe. Smoked by Alaskan sourdoughs, Congo chiefs and many an average man, these pipes are sold everywhere in the world. Left: After cobs are sawed into pipe lengths, the piths are bored out and master workmen turn the cobs into pipe-bowl shapes on power lathes. The cob is burnished and its pores filled with plaster of paris. Center: Surplus plaster is removed and first coat of varnish applied. Then punching machines fashion stem openings and after another coat of varnish, the pipe is ready. Right: Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia of New York smokes his flame-scarred favorite corn-cob pipe at his desk. Other famous corn-cob pipe smokers whose testimonials are on file include Marshal Foch, General Pershing, Sen. Bennett Clark and H. L. Mencken.

Ormsby Family Pays Tribute to Connie Mack

Earl Mack, coach of the Philadelphia Athletics and son of Connie Mack, venerable manager of that club who is recuperating from an illness, receives a plaque in tribute to the "grand old man" of baseball from the 12 children of Umpire Emmett T. (Red) Ormsby before a game in Shibe park. Mrs. Ormsby, left, superintended the presentation ceremonies.

From Seattle to New York Via Northwest Passage

Enviied by rocking chair adventurers are Dr. Homer Flint Kellems, skipper of the tiny ship Pandora, his daughter and his crew. The Pandora will sail from Seattle to New York through the Arctic sea and the famed Northwest passage, the trip to take approximately three months. Pictured at front: Dr. Kellems and his daughter, Vivienne. Other members of the crew include a cook, photographer and engineer. Inset: Leo Clark, radioman, who will maintain contact with the outside world. The little ship is expected to dock in New York in October.

Please write your name, address and pattern number plainly.

Old Road Marking

Separation of traffic lanes by a white strip down the center of the road may not be a modern development it is usually thought. A section of an old highway between Mexico City and Cuernavaca, Mexico, was built by the Spaniards 350 to 400 years ago; white stones mark a clearly defined center line.—Engineering News-Record.

Epidermic Art Gallery

"The Great Omi," tattooed man who claims to be a former English army major, has brought his epidermic art gallery to the United States, where he plans on exhibiting it. "Omi," a New York visitor, is tattooed from head to foot.

U. S. Explorers Seek Headhunters

Mr. and Mrs. Carveth Wells, famed as explorers and authors, as they left by steamer for the Orient, heading an expedition to Formosa to take movies of head hunters for a U. S. geographic society. Accompanying them (center) is Lawrence Mills, Princeton ornithology student.

Gotta' Match, Buddy?

It's going to be tough, but Bobby can do it. For the past six months this three-year-old Brockton, Mass., lad has been smoking cigars, cigarettes and a pipe. Now his mother, Mrs. Clyde Nordquist, says he's going to replace tobacco with candy. The reason: Too much publicity.

Where Jews Build a New Homeland

Strongly reminiscent of the pioneers who helped build America are these Jewish settlers in Palestine. A Jewish girl stands guard outside the settlement at Tel Aviv, in the Holy Land. Armed with a shotgun, she takes her turn at sentry duty while the menfolk work. Even the aged must work, remaining constantly alert for raiding Arabs who resent his seeking a homeland.

Mexican Highway Builder

President Lazero Cardenas of Mexico, speaking recently at Tia Juana, Baja Calif., announced approval of a 2,000,000 peso bond issue for construction of a 131 mile highway from Mexicali, on the United States-Mexico border, to San Felipe, a Gulf of California fishing village. An irrigation system in the Mexicali valley will cost an additional 12,000,000 pesos.

Locomotive 'Celebrates' 35th Birthday

"Ripper," a hard-working locomotive, celebrated its thirty-fifth birthday recently in Hoboken, N. J. Here Thomas T. Taber of Madison, N. J., president of the Railroaders of America, an organization of railroad fans, empties a birthday "cake" into Ripper's firebox. The "cake" is a hatbox full of nut coal. At the right is Bruce Nett, Madison, N. J., youngest member of the club.

To Press Demands

Poised in Japan's "hot seat" as war with China is augmented by an apparent war with Russia on the Outer Mongolian-Manchukuoan border, Premier Baron Kijichiro Hirayama tried to encourage his people by discrediting the Russian conflict's importance, nevertheless pointing out that Japan will continue to press her demands for fishing and forestry concessions from the Soviet.

Roman Fire Laddies Practice Rescues

A second Nero would have little chance to fiddle while Rome burned. These young men, members of the Roman fire department, are shown at their Italian training camp as they practice rescues with scaling ladders. The fire-fighters carry out their drills as if they were engaged in military operation.

There Are Two Ways to Get at Constipation

Yes, and only two ways—before and after it happens! Instead of enduring those dull, tired, head-achy days and then having to take an emergency medicine—why not KEEP regular with Kellogg's All-Bran? You can, if your constipation is the kind millions have—due to the lack of "bulk" in modern diets. For All-Bran goes right to the cause of this trouble by supplying the "bulk" you need. Eat this toasted nutritious cereal every day—with milk or cream, or baked into muffins—drink plenty of water, and see if your life isn't a whole lot brighter! Made by Kellogg's in Battle Creek. Sold by every grocer.

Multiple Saving

Save a man and you save a unit; save a boy and you have a multiplication table.—John Wanamaker.

How Women in Their 40's Can Attract Men

Here's good advice for a woman during her change (usually from 38 to 42), who fears she'll lose her appeal to men, who worries about hot flashes, loss of pep, dizzy spells, upset nerves and moody spells. Get more fresh air, 8 hrs. sleep and if you need a good general system tonic take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made especially for women. It helps Nature build up physical resistance, thus helps give more vivacity to enjoy life and assist calming jittery nerves and disturbing symptoms that often accompany change of life. WELL WORTH TRYING!
