

Twins—Five Sets of 'Em—Amaze New Yorkers Skyline, Not Petty Girl, to Welcome Legionnaires

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fifield of East Thompson, Conn., shown with 11 of their 13 children, including five sets of twins, as they lunched in a New York restaurant. New Yorkers were as much amazed at the sheer number of the children as the children were of the city's skyscrapers. The youngest set of twins, Franklin Delano and Eleanor Roosevelt, are only two years old. The oldest child, Marguerite, 13, is seated next to her mother at the head of the table. Two of the children, including an infant son, are not shown.

Chicago's skyline and not the curves of a George Petty beauty will bid American Legionnaires to attend their national convention in Chicago this fall. Illustrator Petty's painting, center, was rejected by the Legion in favor of the design at the right.

U. S. Army Increases Production of Gas Masks

As the international situation grows more grave, the U. S. has seen fit to protect its national security and its far-flung interests by bringing its military structure into order. As part of its preparedness, the army is perfecting the gas mask in the U. S. army chemical warfare school at Edgewood, Md. Left: An inspector tests safety glass for gas masks by dropping a steel ball on it. Center: A view showing the assembly of angle tube to the hood. Right: Final assembly of cannister to tube. Each gas mask is thoroughly tested by expert workers for any possible defect.

'Heaven' Can Wait—If Newport Has Its Way

Mrs. Angela C. Kaufman, widow of the multi-millionaire Joseph Kaufman, was recently refused a liquor license by Newport, R. I., officials when she planned on converting her mansion into an exclusive dinner and cocktail place. Then the fireworks started. Mrs. Kaufman created a furore in the ultra-fashionable resort by offering the mansion to "Father" Divine, Negro cult leader, as a "heaven" for his followers. The Negro evangelist accepted the offer, and is completing plans for establishing the new "heaven." Left: The Kaufman mansion which will house the Divine flock. Right: The bar for which Mrs. Kaufman was refused a liquor license.

Smart New Fashions For Now and Later

HERE'S a charming new pattern (1784) that gives you a pretty sleeveless dress, with a jacket that transforms it into the nicest kind of street suit. It's delightfully simple and cool—very easy to make, with flattering frills as the only trimming. Chiffon, georgette, silk print, flat crepe and linen are smart materials for this fashion.

Girl's Play Suit. There's a place in every girl's life for the smart little play suit and suspender skirt that buttons all down the front. Cool, comfortable and easy-to-wear for summer play, it will be nice for school in the fall too. The shorts are becomingly flared, and the blouse has a becoming sports collar. Gingham, pique, linen and broadcloth are nice cottons for this outfit, 1786.

The Patterns. No. 1784 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20; 40 and 42. Size 16 requires 6 1/2 yards of 39-inch fabric, without nap for dress and jacket with three-quarter sleeves; 2 1/2 yards of trimming.

No. 1786 is designed for sizes 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. Size 10 requires 1 3/4 yards of 35-inch fabric, for blouse; 1 1/4 yards for shorts; 1 3/4 yards for the skirt, without nap.

One-Man Submarine Tested in Hudson

Barney Connitt of Chicago, master and crew of an 11-foot submarine, previous to making a successful test dive in the salt water of the Hudson river in Yonkers, N. Y. Connitt, in his homemade sub, has made approximately 400 dives, once crossing Lake Michigan under water from Chicago to Michigan City, Ind., a distance of 37 miles. The sub is powered by two sets of batteries and has all the usual submarine equipment.

Masquerade Revealed

Involved in a minor traffic mixup, James W. Phipps was taken to a Pasadena, Calif., police station. There a sergeant penetrated the disguise and revealed "him" as a woman. Twice married, Phipps is the present "husband" of Mrs. Mabel Phipps, 50. For 23 years Minerva Phipps masqueraded as a man. "His" first wife died in 1928.

Invents Snow Cruiser for Antarctic Trip

Dr. Thomas C. Poulter of the research foundation of Armour Institute of Technology is pictured with a model of the Antarctic snow cruiser, carrying a five-passenger airplane, which he will build for the United States Antarctic expedition setting out this fall. The completed snow cruiser will be 55 feet long, 10 feet high and 15 feet wide. The plane, carried on top, can be demounted in 10 minutes. Rear Adm. Richard E. Byrd, who will head the expedition, plans his latest dash to the pole for sometime in October.

De-Lovely, Delightful

Here's a very delightful scene. Young Tommy Ingram and Jimmy Young lick up a couple of delightful ice cream cones by the sign post that marks the boundary of Delightful, a small town near Warren, Ohio.

Large Diamonds

Found, last October, in Brazil, a blue-white diamond weighing 726.6 metric carats. Known as the "President Vargas," it is third in size among the world's diamonds, the other two being the Cullinan (3,024.75 carats) and the Excelsior (971.75). It is 71 mm. long, 56.5 wide, and 24.5 high and is valued uncut at 750,000 florins in Amsterdam, where it rests.—Engineering and Mining Journal.

Police Close 'Human Slave Market'

Photographers had to be alert to get this view of America's most novel matchmaking establishment, "The Human Slave Market," for immediately after bids got under way, Fallsades, N. J., police stepped in and sent six people to jail on the charge of maintaining a nuisance. Here the auctioneer is asking for bids on a young man, an elderly gentleman and a young girl. The idea of the "market" was to offer marriageable subjects on the block.

Caribbean War Chief

In San Juan, Puerto Rico, Brig. Gen. Edmund L. Daley steps from the amphibian plane provided him by the war department to cover his vast insular territory. Daley is commanding officer of the recently created department of the Caribbean, which includes Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands and all intervening keys.

What! No Chance of a Martian War?

There are no men on Mars and no men could live there. That was the opinion of three astronomers gathered at Cambridge, Mass. They are, left to right, Dr. Bart Bok, associate professor of astronomy, Harvard; Dr. Peter Vandekamp, director of Sprout observatory, Swarthmore college, and Dr. Leo Goldberg, Harvard astronomer. Also pictured is a planetarium machine which duplicates motion of planets about the sun. The small planet between Dr. Goldberg's nose and the earth is Mars. The sun is the electric light bulb adjacent to Dr. Bok's neck, and the earth is at Dr. Vandekamp's shoulder.
