

Germany Took Deep Breath; See What Happened! Torpedo Boat: Britain's Answer to German Subs

Post-war Germany, minus territory lost to France, Belgium, Poland, Danzig, Denmark and Czechoslovakia, but still a large nation.

Saar basin (see arrow) joined the Reich in 1935 by plebiscite. On March 12, 1938, Hitler entered Austria "to restore peace."

Six months later Sudetenland, the rim of Czechoslovakia, was added following the Munich conference which averted war.

Moravia and Bohemia became a "protectorate" on March 15 this year; Slovakia was taken the next day. This ended Czechoslovakia.

The next month the Memel territory was handed over by Lithuania after a plebiscite; the territory was predominantly German.

In September of this year, after the lightning war in Poland, Germany took a lion's share of the spoils; Russia got the rest.

Germany's population is now more than twice that of France proper; almost three times Italy's, and considerably more than the British Isles, Canada and Australia combined. Only Russia and the United States, of western countries, have greater populations, and in Europe only Russia has more territory.

Here's one of Great Britain's powerful new torpedo boats which can launch a projectile straight ahead while traveling at top speed. Arrow points to one of the torpedo tubes mounted on deck. The British count on these boats to combat the German submarine. A large fleet of these boats has been placed in service in the North sea and they are usually attached to destroyer squadrons.

Estonia Fires Her Army; Russia Takes Charge

Moral: Don't Throw Your Jewels in the Garbage

When Mrs. Robert Stranahan visited a New York stylist to get her hair fixed, she placed her $25,000 square-cut diamond ring in a paper cup. A few hours later police were making a thorough search of garbage trucks. P. S.—The ring was found.

Her Brother's Keeper, and Good One!

Charged with being the alleged lookout for two other boys involved in a store robbery, 17-year-old Patrick Lynch of New York was placed in legal custody of his 13-year-old sister, Nora, while awaiting sentence. Two months later Nora delivered such a well-disciplined brother to the court that Pat got a suspended sentence.

Prelate Succumbs

Bergdoll's Mother

Mrs. Emma Bergdoll, mother of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, notorious World war draft dodger who came back from German exile to "face the music," is shown at her son's trial in New York.

Smiles at Tragedy This Young Skate Cuts Dashing Figure

Eight-year-old Dorothy Lewis smiles from her wheel chair at a New York hospital where her right leg was amputated to stem the ravages of bone cancer. Amputation was made at the hip.

Patricia Merifield, Hollywood visitor at Sun Valley, Idaho, makes a dashing picture as she executes a leap on skates that apparently takes her over the rugged Idaho mountain tops, thus ushering in a new winter season of outdoor sports in the northern states.

P. S.—She Won, Too!

Blonde Erika of the Follies Bergere at the San Francisco fair is a native of the Austrian Tyrol. Having milked a cow before, she took 3 pounds, 15 ounces of milk from Mary, blooded Jersey, to win first prize in the exposition's milking contest.

That Was No Bearded Lady, It Was—

"Miss Frances Murphy," above, "bearded lady" at the New York fair, charged a gentleman named John Durkin to kiss "her" in a Manhattan subway. In felony court it turned out "Miss Frances Murphy" was really a man. Here "she" is shown in the police van, after being charged with perjury.
