ORDINANCE NO. 193-A

AN ORDINANCE CREATING THE OFFICE OF ELECTRICAL INSPECTOR; DECLARING UNNECESSARY AND AVOIDABLE INTERFERENCE WITH RADIO RECEPTION A NUISANCE; PROVIDING FOR AN INSPECTION OF ALL ELECTRICAL DEVICES, APPLIANCES, MACHINERY OR INSTALLATIONS WITHIN THE CITY OF O'NEILL AND PROHIBITING THE USE OF APPARATUS WHICH INTERFERES WITH RADIO RECEPTION AND PROVIDING A PENALTY FOR THE VIOLATION OF THIS ORDINANCE. Be it ordained by the Mayor and the City Council of O'Neill, Nebraska: Section 1. There is hereby created the office of Electrical Inspector of the City of O'Neill, Nebraska, which office shall be held by the appointment of a person qualified as an electrician. The Mayor with the consent of the City Council shall make such appointment immediately after this ordinance becomes effective and subsequently such appointments shall be made in the same manner as other officers of said City are appointed, and the person appointed shall hold such office for the same term as other officers of said City unless sooner removed by order of the Mayor and City Council. Section 2. The Electrical Inspector of the City of O'Neill shall receive as compensation such sums as may be agreed upon by such officer and the City Council at the time the services hereinafter referred to are rendered by such Electrical Inspector. Section 3. Any and all electrical devices, appliances, equipment, machine or installation of any kind which unnecessarily or avoidably cause or promote interference with radio reception within the City of O'Neill is hereby declared a nuisance. Section 4. No person shall maintain, use, or operate any apparatus or device whether electrical, mechanical or of any other sort so as to cause electrostatic or electro-magnetic waves to radiate so as to interfere with radio reception, within this municipality. The above prohibition shall be construed to apply to radio receiving equipment, either of the regenerative or any other type, vibration battery chargers, sign changers, electric refrigeration machines, electrically driven oil pumps or furnace equipment, high tension ignition systems, electric transmission lines, gas or electric power plants, defective insulators, defective transformers, badly sparking motors and badly sparking generators, which interfere with radio reception, whether on account of the manner of construction or manner of operation of the apparatus. Section 5. The above prohibition shall not apply to the following situations: (a) It shall not be unlawful to cause radio interference between midnight and seven A. M., of any day. (b) It shall not be unlawful to cause radio interference on wave lengths of more than six hundred meters. (c) It shall not be unlawful to operate violet-ray machines, diathermy machines, or any other electro-medical devices causing radio interference between seven A. M. and six P. M., provided such interference is reduced as much as is reasonably possible in every available way, and particularly, by not using the devices except when reasonably necessary, by equipping the device so far as reasonably possible with filters, condensers, shields and grounds, with any other apparatus tending to reduce interference. (d) It shall not be unlawful to operate X-ray machines, whenever necessary, causing radio interference, provided such interference is reduced as much as is reasonably possible as explained in the preceding paragraph. Section 6. Upon complaint being made to the Mayor and City Council by any person living within the corporate limits of the City of O'Neill that certain electrical devices, appliances, equipment, machine or installation of any kind within the corporate limits of the City of O'Neill unnecessarily or avoidably causes interference with radio reception, the Mayor and the City Council shall forthwith order the Electrical Inspector of the City of O'Neill to inspect such devices, appliance, equipment machines or installation which it is alleged causes such interference with radio reception and where upon inspection he shall find that the device complained of it is unnecessary or avoidably causing such interference, he shall notify the owner or operator of the same to abate such nuisance within a period of thirty days. Section 7. This Ordinance shall be construed to apply not only to apparatus located within the corporate limits, but also to apparatus located beyond the corporate limits within the same county with the City of O'Neill, if such apparatus interferes with radio reception within the corporate limits. Section 8. The owner or operator of such device, appliance, equipment, machine or installation having been notified by the Electrical Inspector that the continued operation of such device, appliance, equipment, machine or installation constitutes a nuisance, and shall not have had such nuisance abated pursuant to the order of the Electrical Inspector shall on conviction thereof be subject to a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars and the costs of prosecution, each day's continuance to maintain or operate the interfering equipment, after the passage of the time stated in the notice may be considered a separate offense under this ordinance. But the giving of such notice shall not be prerequisite to prosecution for a single offense hereunder. Every section or provision of this ordinance is hereby declared to be separable from any other section or provision hereof. The word "person" as used in this ordinance shall include firms and corporations. All provisions of this ordinance inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed and this ordinance shall be effective on passage and publication according to law. Passed and approved this 7th day of November, 1939. H. E. COYNE, Mayor. Attest: C. W. Porter, City Clerk.

LOUIS W. REIMER, County Judge. (COUNTY COURT SEAL.) (First Publication Nov. 9, 1939)

ference is reduced as much as is reasonably possible in every available way, and particularly, by not using the devices except when reasonably necessary, by equipping the device so far as reasonably possible with filters, condensers, shields and grounds, with any other apparatus tending to reduce interference. (d) It shall not be unlawful to operate X-ray machines, whenever necessary, causing radio interference, provided such interference is reduced as much as is reasonably possible as explained in the preceding paragraph. Section 6. Upon complaint being made to the Mayor and City Council by any person living within the corporate limits of the City of O'Neill that certain electrical devices, appliances, equipment, machine or installation of any kind within the corporate limits of the City of O'Neill unnecessarily or avoidably causes interference with radio reception, the Mayor and the City Council shall forthwith order the Electrical Inspector of the City of O'Neill to inspect such devices, appliance, equipment machines or installation which it is alleged causes such interference with radio reception and where upon inspection he shall find that the device complained of it is unnecessary or avoidably causing such interference, he shall notify the owner or operator of the same to abate such nuisance within a period of thirty days. Section 7. This Ordinance shall be construed to apply not only to apparatus located within the corporate limits, but also to apparatus located beyond the corporate limits within the same county with the City of O'Neill, if such apparatus interferes with radio reception within the corporate limits. Section 8. The owner or operator of such device, appliance, equipment, machine or installation having been notified by the Electrical Inspector that the continued operation of such device, appliance, equipment, machine or installation constitutes a nuisance, and shall not have had such nuisance abated pursuant to the order of the Electrical Inspector shall on conviction thereof be subject to a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars and the costs of prosecution, each day's continuance to maintain or operate the interfering equipment, after the passage of the time stated in the notice may be considered a separate offense under this ordinance. But the giving of such notice shall not be prerequisite to prosecution for a single offense hereunder. Every section or provision of this ordinance is hereby declared to be separable from any other section or provision hereof. The word "person" as used in this ordinance shall include firms and corporations. All provisions of this ordinance inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed and this ordinance shall be effective on passage and publication according to law. Passed and approved this 7th day of November, 1939. H. E. COYNE, Mayor. Attest: C. W. Porter, City Clerk.
