

They Didn't Do It This Way Back in '17

The A. E. F. didn't do it this way back in '17, but that's all right with army officers stationed at Fort Hayes, Columbus, Ohio. They like the newly adopted, streamlined infantry drill regulations, which eliminate much of the "pain" of learning to be a soldier, and reduce time required by 33 to 50 per cent. Simplicity is the keynote. Left: It's "right shoulder arms," new version. The right hand drops to the butt and the rifle is placed on the shoulder. Center: Soldiers march a full arm's length apart instead of half that distance. Right: The modern doughboy practices anti-aircraft defense formations in gas masks.

Hitler's Mustache Diminishes as Fame Grows

One of history's most photographed men is Reichsuehrer Adolf Hitler of Germany. Familiar to every one is the Hitler of today. Less familiar is the Hitler visage of earlier days. Upper left: A corporal in the German army during the World war. His mustache was bigger, but his fame smaller. Lower left: This rare photograph was made in December, 1924, after his abortive Munich beer hall putsch. Right: Vastly popular in Germany is this picture of Der Fuehrer, taken when he was a political prisoner.

Missouri-Iowa Boundary War Nears End

A hundred-year boundary war between Missouri and Iowa, cause of the ludicrous "honey war" of 1839, ends on New Year's eve when 200 acres of Missouri land goes to Iowa and 2,000 Iowa acres are given to Missouri. The trouble was caused by a change in the Des Moines river, boundary between the two states. Map shows the river's present course, while dotted lines indicate the route 50 years ago.

Spear-Gunner

Spearing fish underwater with a new rubber spear gun is the latest piscatorial sport in Miami, Fla. The gun is deadly accurate, the mask is face fitting—so all that's necessary is to dive, hold your breath and nail your fish.

Veteran Prospector Strikes Pay Dirt

Maj. Graham C. Dugas, veteran prospector, examines samples of "pay rock" from his bonanza gold strike at Dahlonega, Ga. Wisecracks didn't believe there was gold in the Georgia uplands, but the major uncovered a vein of quartz two inches thick and assaying $60,000 to the ton—comparable to the world-famed Comstock lode of Nevada. Right: Dugas points out the rich vein to a friend.

No Dog Biscuit

Disaster almost came to Rolf, a German shepherd dog, when the Belgian government decreed that all large dogs must be destroyed to conserve food. However, Rolf was shipped hurriedly to a new home in New York—at a cost of $52. Rolf arrived with a "luggage left behind" label on his neck.

Man's World—Envoy of Culture—Personality Pays

Because sports writers objected to a woman's presence in the press box, Miss Katherine Davis, left, Knoxville, Tenn., sports writer, was forced to cover the Tennessee-Vanderbilt game from outside the box. Sympathies, it is reported, lie with Miss Davis. Circle inset: New head of the division of cultural relations of the United States department of state is Miss Irene A. Wright, outstanding authority on Latin-American culture. Right: A $2,000 dramatic scholarship went to Miss Nancy Bridges of Lebanon, Pa., cousin of Tommy Bridges, Detroit pitcher, when she was selected as America's personality girl in a New York contest.

Everything Is 'Hazi-Tazi' on Nazi Western Front

Big "guns" that fire nothing but soothing music and vicious "gas attacks" of the verbal sort have long featured Germany's warfare along the western front. Left: A battery of loudspeakers carries military music instead of bullets to the French troops across the river in this battle of propaganda. Right: German soldiers releasing gas balloons to be wafted to the French soldiers. Each carries a propaganda message.

She Really Can't Be That Surprised

William P. Buckner Jr., wealthy playboy who was convicted in a bond fraud but who is still at large pending his appeal, enjoys himself in a New York night club. His seemingly startled partner for the evening is Adelaide Moffett, society songstress. According to various gossip columns, they are soon to wed. But that had nothing to do with her odd pose.

Vindicates South

When Winston Churchill, first lord of the British admiralty, drew a parallel between the American South of the Civil war and Nazi Germany of today, Mrs. Gerald M. Clark of Jacksonville, Fla., rose in wrath. She demanded, and received on behalf of Southern womanhood, an apology from Churchill, who denied any analogy in his speech.

Nazi Beau Brummells Face Horrible Fate

Diagram demonstrates how the new Nazi clothes ration plan will work from December 1, 1939, to September 1, 1940. Ration cards permit of 100 units of clothing purchase during that period. Thus, between December 1 and April 1, a man can purchase two pairs of socks, two handkerchiefs, a muffler and one pair of gloves. Between April 1 and September 1 he can purchase one shirt, two collars and a suit of underwear. Purchase of a suit would cost 60 units.

'Coed' Charmers

A lavish application of 'make-up' transforms members of Princeton university's Triangle club into chorines for their annual stage show. Hairy-chested Hubert Reese paints that "come-hither" look on Gordon Bent's face.

HOUSEHOLD QUESTIONS

Sandwich Filler.—Peanut butter mixed with a little cream is a good filling for white or graham cracker sandwiches for children.

To Hasten Cooking.—When using a double boiler the food will cook more quickly if the water in the outer vessel is salted in the proportion of a fourth of a cup of salt to one quart of water.

Slow Up Baking.—If the oven is very hot put a piece of waxed paper under the casserole cover. This will prevent the contents of the casserole baking too quickly.

White, Tender Chicken Meat.—If a chicken is well rubbed inside and out with a cut lemon before being cooked it will make the meat white, juicy and tender.

White Silks.—To keep white silk stockings, blouses, etc., from turning yellow in laundering, use a little alcohol in the rinse water.

Mixing Flour and Lard.—Don't rub lard into flour with your hands when making pastry. Use a silver fork, which divides and mixes very quickly. This is easier than chopping lard in and saves using a chopping tray.

Squeaky Floors.—Floors squeak from various reasons: 1. Joist sizes too small or span too great. 2. The omission of subflooring or subflooring not laid diagonal to joists. 3. Finished floor nailings more than 16 inches apart. Most of the squeaking is done by the floor boards working on the nails. If the underlying construction is sound, squeaking can be eliminated by face nailing. This should be done by a competent carpenter, who will not mar the floor surface.
