

Prisoners Nabbed in Daring Tunnel Escape Plot

A wholesale jail break was prevented by officials of the Eastern state penitentiary at Philadelphia, Pa., when two 38-foot tunnels, dug by convicts, were discovered leading from prison cells. Left: A guard is shown in one of the underground passageways. Right: The opening where convicts would have made good their escape. Detectives, armed with machine guns, were rushed to the penitentiary when the plot was discovered. One of the suspected inmate plotters committed suicide.

It's Air Travel for Australia's 'Flying Casey's'

First Australian to hold a full diplomatic status in the capital of a foreign country is Maj. Richard Gardiner Casey, inset, whose appointment to the post of minister to the United States was announced recently. Mrs. Casey is pictured spinning the propeller of the Casey family plane in Sydney, Australia. She, like her husband, is a licensed pilot. The children are Jane, 11, and Don, 8. With them is a young friend.

Preview of New Substratosphere Transport Plane

Two features of the Curtis-Wright substratosphere transport plane now being tested at a St. Louis, Mo., field are pictured here. At left can be seen the slotted wing flaps, four feet wide, operated hydraulically, which reduce landing speed of the 36-passenger airliner to 65 or 70 miles an hour. They also increase the plane's buoyancy by 40 per cent by increasing the wing area. Right: A workman makes an adjustment in the retracting landing gear. The wheels are operated hydraulically. During flight a housing closes over the retracted wheels.

Reconnaissance Flights Probe Enemy Territory

Aerial reconnaissance flights over enemy territory are one of the most common of today's war maneuvers. Pictured here is the headquarters of a British royal air force unit in France. Left: Airmen who made the reconnaissance flight return with scores of aerial photographs of German positions, ammunition dumps and other strategic points. Right: At headquarters the developed pictures are placed in appropriate positions on a map of the Reich, and are examined under microscopes to find hidden details such as plane hangars, gun positions, etc.

Youthful Clipper Passenger Reaches Home

Nine-months-old Cecily Williams is shown in her London, England, home after she flew across the Atlantic in the Atlantic clipper. She made the trip with her father, Capt. Fox Williams, who returned home to rejoin the British army. Baby Cecily formerly lived in Los Angeles, Calif., with her great-grandmother, a centenarian, who came to the United States as a baby in 1840.

Dust Bowl Prince

According to police reports, Louis Pellesier, refugee from the dust bowl, posed as a French count and was accepted by San Francisco society circles. But when he was unable to pay his taxicab fare he was arrested and exposed. Pellesier had been employed on Treasure island.

Ajax Sailors Celebrate in Home Port

Three sailors of the British cruiser Ajax stage a little comedy in which their beards play leading roles on their arrival at an English port. The Ajax was one of the British cruisers that fought the German pocket battleship Graf Spee off Montevideo, Uruguay. The Graf Spee was ordered scuttled by her captain, Hans Langsdorff, who later committed suicide in Montevideo, where the crew of the ship was imprisoned.

Rescue! Feline Survivors Reach Safety

Rescued from electrocution were a mother cat and two of four kittens who lost themselves in the control room of the periscope at the 1940 Worlds fair in New York city. After a search of several days the feline family was rescued from among the high tension wires. Two kittens were dead. The mother cat promptly was named "Purrisphere."

Saposs Testifies

Admitting one-time membership in the Socialist party, David J. Saposs, chief economist for the National Labor Relations board, testifies in Washington, D. C., before the house committee investigating the labor relations board.

G. O. P. Leaders Discuss Convention Plans

Making big medicine for the Republican party's 1940 convention in Philadelphia are John D. M. Hamilton, center, chairman of the Republican national committee; Harold W. Mason of Vermont, left, secretary, and Henry Fletcher of Rhode Island, general counsel. The trio met in Washington, D. C., to discuss plans for the June convention.

War-Time Gibe

From Germany comes this cartoon gibe at England. Chamberlain says "God is our witness that we did not want this war." Winston Churchill glumly replies, as he views sinking ships: "It's sure we did not want it like this."

HERE is a new department that we know is going to meet with tremendous popularity with our readers, for it brings you the opportunity of combining pleasure and profit. With jig, coping or keyhole saw, you may cut these designs from wallboard, plywood or thin lumber. Each pattern brings accurate outline of the design, and complete directions for making or painting.

Today, we are showing a yard design that will appeal to many, for the long-ago days of "Gone With the Wind" are recalled vividly in these charming cutout figures. Your own imagination might turn them into the vibrant Scarlett O'Hara and the reserved Melanie Wilkes in person. And your jig or coping saw plus a bit of wallboard or plywood will produce these figures for your yard.

Each comes on its own pattern. The beruffled hoop skirt lady at the left is about 24 inches tall and is given on Z9067, 15 cents—she holds a box for flowers. The belle at the right is on pattern Z9068, 15 cents—about 24 inches tall, and a sprinkling can is in her hand.

Order numbers Z9067 and Z9068, 15 cents each, from: Aunt Martha, Box 166-W, Kansas City, Mo.

For Sidewalk Supts.

Grand Coulee dam in Washington furnished, this past season, the newest improvement in accommodations for "sidewalk superintendents," or those who like to watch construction work. It consisted of a grandstand of 400 seats and a speaker who, using an amplifier, described each operation of the workmen.—Collier's.

To Check Constipation Get at Its Cause!

If constipation has you down so you feel heavy, tired and dopey, it's time you did something about it. And something more than just taking a physic! You should get at the cause of the trouble.

If you eat the super-refined food most people eat, the chances are the difficulty is simple—you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean heavy food. It's a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines.

If this common form of constipation is your trouble, eat Kellogg's All-Bran regularly, and drink plenty of water. All-Bran isn't a medicine—it's a crunchy, toasted cereal. And it will help you not only to get regular but to keep regular. Made by Kellogg's in Battle Creek. If your condition is chronic, it is wise to consult a physician.
