Over The Backyard Fence
 Betty has a very good reason for being proud of her necklace. Outside of the fact that it was given to her by Billy, it has a very nice inscription on it too.

Spring is here or something. Anyway Concy Biglin and Ted can't seem to stay away from each other very long at a time. Although Concy can't dance quite so soon after her recent illness, she and Ted seem to have had a grand time Sunday night just watching. They make a very nice couple too, don't you think?

Since the boys have come back from Lincoln, the girls all seem to be wearing new pieces of jewelry. Alma is wearing a cute bracelet with two golden hearts on it (one belongs to Duke) which he brought the Duchess. Lorene is wearing a pin that seems to mean quite a bit to her, seeing as how it is a present from Bob.

All of the girls went around with long faces the latter part of last week. Ham had barely been gone two hours when Dottie began to feel the pangs of loneliness. This feeling was also shared by three other girls when their boy friends went to Lincoln for the tournament.

We wonder why Marjorie Ann and Sweet Pea are so anxious for spring vacation. Of course the University of Nebraska has spring vacation later on this week, but that couldn't possibly have anything to do with it could it?

Betty has been looking too happy for words these past few days, and whenever we meet her she is humming, "Billy." You don't suppose there could be anything personal in it do you, or do you?

We wonder why Mary Ann was so eager to go home last week-end?

We imagine Jim might be the cause of her eagerness.

Concy Golden went to Omaha this week, and although our gambling days are over, we will give 2-5 odds that she went by way of Columbus to see Bud.

Chickie Iler and Junior Shoemaker were also at the dance and seemed to be enjoying themselves, but don't they always when they are together?

Congratulations to the O'Neill High basketball team. Even though you weren't fortunate enough to win the tournament at Lincoln you made a gallant struggle and we know everyone is very proud of your splendid work. Special praise should go to Leo Valla, Bill Ryan and Gene McKenna for their grand work both at the tournament here and in Lincoln.

Also congratulations to St. Mary's basketball team. You did not win the tournament, but you played good basketball and the most important thing of all you took your defeat gamely.

Final congratulations should go to two other outstanding school organizations, the pep clubs of O'Neill High and St. Mary's. Your cheers and songs at the tournament provided interest and your drills on the final night of the tournament were a joy to watch. You deserve a big hand for your participation in arousing interest in the tournament games.

Mrs. John Protovinsky and Mrs. L. O. Johnson expect to leave Friday for Sioux Falls, South Dakota, where they will spend Easter visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Johnson.

Henry Reimer returned Thursday from Lincoln, where he is attending the University of Nebraska, to spend the spring vacation with his parents, Judge and Mrs. L. W. Reimer.

Mrs. O. W. French left Wednesday for Lincoln and expects to return today, bringing her son, Ivan and daughter, Leone and Hugh McKenna home to spend the spring vacation.

The Woman's Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Mark Crandall Wednesday, March 27, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Margaret Berkey, a returned missionary from Teinnetani, China, will speak. All members are invited.

A Word to the Wife!

Saving money does not indicate poverty. Manufacturers strive hard to save a few cents. Millionaires kick at a penny overcharge.

Saving is only another word for good management. Save in buying and you have more.

When you see the ads in this newspaper and learn how much money you can save you'll watch and shop them again and again.

LET THE RECORD DECIDE!

This is the season when City Councils and County Boards have the responsibility of passing on yearly applications for beer licenses.

It is the hope of the Nebraska Brewers and Beer Distributors Committee that local authorities will scrutinize the record of each applicant, and will deny renewals to the few who have abused the privilege of a license.

Careful selection of licensees fosters better law observance, requiring a smaller expenditure for enforcement and allowing larger sums for welfare and school purposes.
