"Tony" Asimus
Candidate for Legislature 28th DISTRICT Non-Political
I am appealing to the voters of Keya Paha, Rock, Boyd and Holt Counties. I would like to be your Public Servant to represent your interests in this district.
I was born and raised in this section of the country, living on the same sandhill ranch, east of Burwell, until coming to O'Neill in 1934; opening the New Deal Oil Company, later the New Deal Oil Company in Butte and the Outlaw Grocery in O'Neill.
I know the problems and wants of the Farmers, Ranchers, and Working People as we have fought side by side for each other.
MY PLEDGE:—To work for the interests of the people of this community, help make laws that will benefit you, try and "kick out" those that hurt you.
Corporations, railroads and big cities are not interested in the welfare of the people of this part of the state.
I'll work to give you a clean, economical and efficient administration without graft.
Would like to call and meet you personally but time does not permit. Visit me when you are in O'Neill—just call for "Tony" at the "New Deal" or "Outlaw."
Your vote greatly appreciated and many thanks for any help you may give me.
