Center Union Church To Celebrate Home Coming

Many friends and former members are expected to gather at the annual Home Coming Services which are to be held at the Center Union Church this week end. The Church is located 2 miles north and 3 miles west of O'Neill. The first of these special services will be held Friday evening at 8 o'clock. A special feature of this service will be a chalk talk by Rev. Miss Batchelor, of Page, Nebr.

The services on Saturday will be held at 2 p. m., and 8 o'clock in the evening. The afternoon service will be a special Sunday School service. Three missionaries of the American Sunday School Union will be present to bring helpful and inspirational addresses on subjects: "How to Make the Sunday School Interesting;" "Sunday School Problems and Their Solutions;" and "The Future Hope of the Sunday School." After which there will be opportunity for all to take part in asking questions and discussing Sunday School work. All Sunday School workers are especially invited to this service.

The usual all-day services will be held on Sunday, with a basket dinner at the noon hour. Services at 10 a. m., 2 p. m., and 8 p. m.

There will be special speakers at each service. Those who have been engaged as speakers are: Rev. Harry E. Udd, Omaha, who is the superintendent of the Middle West District for the American Sunday School Union; Rev. P. L. Robinson, Missionary from Fremont; Rev. S.
