Lincoln Daily Journal
$4 Year by Mail
12c Week by Carrier

People paying 25c per week spend $13.00 a year. Times are hard and money is scarce. Everyone must save. The Lincoln Journal will help you. The Bee-News suspension left but one other large morning daily in the state besides the Journal. It left but one other large Sunday paper in the state besides the Sunday Journal and Star. The State Journal has been serving the territory between Omaha and Denver for the past seventy-two (72) years.

The Lincoln Journal sells for one to three dollars a year less than any other big state morning daily, and is priced as low as day late afternoon papers. With the Lincoln Journal you practically get the Sunday free, for the other big morning paper charges nearly as much for daily only, as the Journal does including Sunday. By mail in Nebraska and Northern Kansas, three months Daily $1.25, with Sunday $2.00; a year Daily, $4.00, with Sunday $7.00. Or by carrier boy, 12c a week for daily, 10c a week for Sunday, 20c daily and Sunday. The Lincoln Journal has openings for carriers on morning, evening and Sunday paper routes in many towns. Your local carrier is Della Hagensick call her for service. The Frontier will be glad to take your mail subscriptions.
