THE DAYS OF LONG AGO

Fifty-Five Years Ago

The Frontier, July 9, 1885

The commissioners are now ready to receive propositions for a site for the new court house. Interested parties will please take immediate action.

The dedication of the new Methodist church at Mineola takes place one week from next Sunday. H. G. Baluss, late of the Cleveland (Ohio) Herald was in O'Neill on Tuesday on his way to Star, where he expects to start a five column quarto newspaper, the first issue of which will appear about August 1.

The hail of last Friday did considerable damage in portions of the county north, northeast and east. H. Hodgkins crops at Leonie, were all destroyed and the windows in the north and east side of his house were all broken except two.

Fifty Years Ago

The Frontier, July 10, 1890

Married, at the home of the bride's parents in Ewing on Monday, July 7, L. E. Skidmore of Omaha to Miss Cora Butler.

By 6 o'clock tomorrow evening the track laying on the Short Line will be completed to this city.

Forty Years Ago

The Frontier, July 12, 1900

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Dickson returned Sunday from their eastern trip.

Well number three of the city system of pumps and wells was given a test last Saturday and underwent an inspection by Mayor Gallagher and Councilman Brennan.

Thomas Malone, father of the late Judge Malone, died at his home 4 miles northwest of Page on July 6. He was 68 years of age and had been a resident of the county for ten years.

Thirty Years Ago

The Frontier, July 14, 1910

Workmen commenced the foundation for the Northwestern passenger station last Monday morning and as soon as the foundation is completed the brick layers will arrive and commence work on the building proper.

Pat Harty left this morning for Shellsburg, Wisc., where he will visit his parents and other relatives for a couple of weeks. He was accompanied by Miss Etta Froelich and Irenaie Biglin, who will spend a couple of weeks visiting their school mate, Miss Lizzie Harty.

The contract for the construction of the O'Neill sewer system was let by the Mayor and city council last evening to Donohoe & Peterson of Omaha, for $16,507.46. Five bids were submitted for the work. The contractors expected to be going full blast by August 1.

The remnants of the once proud and popular populist party held a convention in the office of the county attorney at the court house last Wednesday afternoon. The convention was composed of J. A. Robertson, William Lell, W. B. Cooper, L. A. Jilison and four from O'Neill.

The democratic county convention was held in the court room last Wednesday afternoon and was the poorest attended and least exciting convention held by democracy since their return to life after the death of populism. Outside of seven delegates from O'Neill there were but six democrats present: Felix Hale, J. M. Morgan, T. J. Wilburn, Atkinson; E. W. Wilcox, Inman; S. A. Hickman, Sheridan; Ed Tighe, Willowdale. Frank Campbell presided as chairman and G. W. Miles, secretary.

Twenty Years Ago

The Frontier, July 8, 1920

Con Keyes returned the middle of last week from a two weeks visit to the land of his nativity, Parkhill, Ontario, Canada. This was his first visit there in forty years and he found but few of his old time friends.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Doyle and children left the first of the week for their future home at Belding, Mich.

Eugene H. Smith, president of the Farmers Bank of Page, was found dead in a cow pasture in the outskirts of Page last Tuesday morning, his head, arms and shoulders submerged in a half barrel tub half filled with water. He had been dead about an hour when found.

Nineteen and sixty-five hundredths inches of rain fell in this city from April 1, 1920, up to and including July 6, 1920, according to Government weather recorder, Harry Bowen.

Ten Years Ago

The Frontier, July 10, 1930

Enard Leach has arranged with the Burlington for a site for an elevator and expects to erect one soon.

The oiling of the road south of O'Neill is progressing nicely; the hot, dry weather seems to be just right for spreading oil.

Mrs. Elizabeth Harté, one of the early settlers of the county, passed away at her home southeast of this city last Wednesday, following an illness of only a few weeks, at the age of 83 years.

RESOLUTION
IN THE MATTER OF THE APPOINTMENT OF JULIUS D. CRONIN AS TEMPORARY JUDGE OF THE COUNTY

COURT OF HOLT COUNTY, NEBRASKA, TO ACT IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF ANTONIA REINKE, DECEASED.

Whereas it appears to this Board of Supervisors of Holt County, Nebraska, from the petition of Louis W. Reimer, County Judge, that he, as such, is disqualified from acting in that capacity, in the matter of the Estate of Antonia Reinke, Deceased, now pending in the County Court of Holt County, Nebraska, and that it is therefore necessary for this board to appoint a temporary acting County Judge to act in regard to said Estate and matter. Now therefore, I do hereby nominate Julius D. Cronin for the appointment as Temporary Acting County Judge in this above matter, and recommend that he be allowed to qualify as County Judge in said matter by taking the required oath, and giving the required bond according to Law, and that he thereupon discharge the duties of said office in the matter above mentioned.

Motion by Matousek, seconded by Carson, that above resolution be approved. Carried.

On motion, the Bond of Julius D. Cronin, was approved.

AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT made and entered into this 28th day of May, A. D., 1940, by and between the County of Holt, State of Nebraska, tion 35, Township 27, Range 9, all County, Nebraska,

WITNESSETH:
WHEREAS, the County of Holt is one of the duly organized counties within the State of Nebraska and, whereas, the said Joe Tomjack is the owner of the Southeast Quarter of Section 35, Township 27, Range 9 and,

WHEREAS, the said County of Holt, for governmental purposes and for use in the construction of roads, needs certain gravel which is obtainable from the real estate above described and owned by said second party,

Now, therefore, it is agreed by and between the parties hereto that the said first party, the County of Holt, shall have the right to go upon and take from the real estate owned by the second party described as the Southeast Quarter of Section 35, T ownship 27, Range 9, all of the gravel that said first party may require and said first party shall pay the said second party the sum of five cents per cubic yard.
