Dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Mary M. Hancock last Wednesday were Mrs. Charles Cordes of Chicago, Mrs. C. J. Malone of O'Neill, Mrs. C. D. Keyes and daughter, Miss Mildred, of Inman and Mrs. W. C. Hancock of O'Neill.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Britnell and son, Jack, and Mr. and Mrs. Spindler and son of O'Neill, were visiting here among relatives Saturday.

Mrs. Eckleberry and daughter, of Bonesteel, So. Dak., and Mrs. W. E. Brown of Bruno, Neb., were guests at the Martin Conard home Tuesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Hancock of Cheyenne, Wyo., visited here from Friday evening until Sunday morning with his mother, Mrs. Mary M. Hancock. They had attended funeral services for Mrs. Hancock's father, Wm. Schmidt at Newman Grove on Thursday.

The Roy Farewell family moved to a farm north of O'Neill last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Noe of Orchard were here Sunday visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chickens.

Billie Morsbach and Frank Britnell visited relatives in Neligh several days last week.

Lloyd Britnell and daughter, Alice, went to Omaha to spend the week end with relatives.

Keith McGraw left Monday for a visit with an aunt in Washington, D. C.

Mr. McMeyer of Bassett and Mr. J. P. Marron of O'Neill, were visitors at the L. Kopecky home Thursday.

Miss Sarah Conger went to Omaha last week for a visit with her brother, Lee Conger, Jr., and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Conard and Mrs. Mary Reynolds of Neligh were here Sunday visiting among relatives.

Laura Ethel Stevens

Laura Ethel Lines, daughter of George and Belle Lines, was born March third, 1895, at Clarks, Nebraska, and died at her home in Inman, Nebraska, July 21, 1940, being 45 years, 4 months and 19 days of age.

As a child she went with her parents to a homestead near Springview, Nebr., and in November, 1897, came with the family to their farm near Inman.

She was united in marriage on November 1, 1916, to William Isaac Stevens, at O'Neill, Nebr., and they made their home in Inman, Nebraska, until their decease. Eight children came to bless this union, six of whom remain today and two were taken in infancy. The husband died a year ago last May.

Mrs. Stevens was a home loving mother, and not only loved her home and children, but was willing to sacrifice much for their comfort and welfare, and during most of her last illness, much of her thought was for their happiness and her every wish for their future welfare.

During her last illness she thought much upon the future life, and her great comfort was her trust in God. At the invitation of the pastor, she definitely accepted Christ as her Savior in Christian Baptism, and was received on her confession, as a member of the Methodist Church at Inman. She was very patient in her suffering, and never a word of complaint or fault was uttered to those who had the care of her during her severe illness since last January, and her buoyant spirit of good will and determination to carry on, was with her to the last. She was also a member of the Harmony Womens Club, in which, while able to be in attendance, she was an active, helpful and esteemed member.

All that loving hands and medical science could do, was done for her, but all seemed to fail to bring help, and she quietly slipped away from us Sunday morning.

Her going away leaves to mourn besides her father and mother, the following children: Doris, Earl, Dewayne, Lovilla, Eldon and Lawrence, all of Inman, also a brother, Dana Lines and a sister, Mrs. Alma Ross, both of Inman.

We are saddened and in our grief we may ask why do these things come upon us, but we may be comforted in our faith that will reveal all things in God's good time and that we may look back at these days from the other side of life, we may see clearly then, how all things have worked together for good to them who love Him, and all will be made clear to us.

Funeral services were held at the M. E. church Tuesday afternoon, with Rev. Maxcy in charge. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. Interment was made in the Inman cemetery.

MEEK AND VICINITY
