

Republicans Present An Excellent Ticket From Top To Bottom

All good citizens will make no mistake this year in voting the straight republican ticket. Every candidate on the ticket is a tried and true Nebraskan and will efficiently take care of the duties of the office to which he aspires. This applies to the candidates on the National, state and county tickets.

Reports from the state are to the effect that the entire republican ticket will be elected and that the majorities will be well over 50,000 for the head of the ticket. This majority will insure the electoral vote of Nebraska for Willkie and will elect the entire republican ticket in the state. Those who are well posted on political affairs in the state are confident that Dwight Griswold, republican candidate for governor, will have close to 75,000 majority over Carpenter. Dwight is able, clean and for the first time in the history of the state will give northwestern Nebraska a governor, and it is about time we had one, a man who will look after the interests of the people of this section of the state, and not confine his attentions entirely to the southeastern corner of Nebraska.

In this county there are only four political candidates on the ballot. A candidate for county assessor and three candidates for supervisor, one from the Second, one from the Fourth, and one from the Sixth districts. Our candidate for county assessor is Walter G. Sire, who has spent his entire life in the county. He was appointed county assessor last spring to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Assessor Fred Mulford, and he has made good. He has proven to be an efficient and capable official and is entitled to a reelection to fill the vacancy.

For supervisor from the Second district, John A. Carson is a candidate to succeed himself. John has made a good official and the experience he has gained in the office enables him to be of more value to the people of that district during the coming four years than any new man could be. His district needs him for another term. In the Fourth district Eben Graff, a business man of Ewing, is the republican candidate. He has the ability to make a good and efficient official and if the republicans of that district stay with their party there is no question but what he will be the next supervisor from that district. Vote for Graff.

In the Sixth district Walter K. Smith is a candidate to succeed himself. Mr. Smith is serving his fourth year in office and served one term as chairman of the board. He has made a good, faithful official and is entitled to reelection on the record he has made as a member of the board, and from what we hear from residents of his district there is no question but what he will be returned to office with a handsome majority.

Chambers Football Player Injured On Way Here

The football game scheduled between Chambers and St. Mary's for Wednesday afternoon in this city, was postponed indefinitely because of an accident involving some of the Chambers players while on their way to O'Neill Wednesday afternoon. The car in which some of the boys were riding crashed into the rear end of a truck, which had suddenly slowed down as some turkeys were in the road. Only one of the boys was hurt, he suffering a concussion of the brain.

Patrolman Harry Birt was called immediately to the scene of the accident, which occurred about fifteen miles south on the highway. After investigating the accident he decided that no one involved was to blame.

William Fallon

The funeral of William Fallon was held last Friday morning at 10:30 from St. Patrick's church, Monsignor McNamara officiating, and burial in Calvary cemetery. The local post of the American Legion, of which the deceased was an active member, was in charge of the funeral services and about fifty Legionnaires were in the funeral procession, the largest number of Legionnaires that ever attended a funeral in this city. At the cemetery the firing squad fired the last salute over the grave of their departed Buddy. The pall bearers were also members of the American Legion post of this city, as follows: J. D. Cronin, E. M. Gallagher, P. B. Harty, William Gatz, Al Sauser and Leo Carney.

William Fallon was born on March 17, 1895, in O'Neill and had been a resident of this county all his life. When the World War broke out he enlisted and spent nearly two years in the army and after the war was over he came back to O'Neill, where he lived up to the time of his death. Bill was a great horse lover and for several years he looked after running horses owned by Judge J. J. Harrington and Pete Duffy, and Bill was never happier than when looking after the wants of the horses. He never married and is survived by seven sisters and one brother, all of whom were present at the funeral services except one sister, Rose, of Chicago. Following are the sisters and brothers surviving: Miss Rose Fallon, Mrs. Nellie Sechrest, Mrs. Agnes Brundage, Mrs. Mary Yartzel, Mrs. Stacia Mares, Mrs. Margaret Zimmerer, Mrs. Teresa Walker, James Fallon.

Billy had always apparently enjoyed good health and his death was very sudden, being ill only a few moments when death came. He had a lot of friends in this city, all of whom regret the passing of a man in the very prime of life, having passed away at the age of 45 years and seven months.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our heartfelt and sincere thanks to the many kind friends and old neighbors for their many acts of kindness to us following the sudden death of our beloved brother, William Fallon. We especially desire to thank the American Legion and many other friends for the many beautiful floral offerings.—Miss Rose Fallon, Mrs. Nellie Sechrest, Mrs. Agnes Brundage, Mrs. Mary Yartzel, Mrs. Stacia Mares, Mrs. Margaret Zimmerer, Mrs. Teresa Walker, James Fallon.

Former Resident Visits Old Home Town

John S. Kerwin, of Boise, Idaho, arrived in the city the forepart of the week and spent a few days here visiting his brother, M. F., and several old time friends in this city and vicinity. John was a resident of this county in the early eighties of the family moving here in the spring of 1880, where they, or some of the family resided for many years. M. F. is now the only one of the family in this city, although there are several relatives in Boyd county. John left Holt county over forty years ago, and since that time had only been in O'Neill on two occasions, the last time some twelve years ago and he said he was astonished at the great improvement in the city since that time.

Mr. Kirwin has been in the employ of the government for several years and, now that he is reaching the retirement age, had to furnish proof of the death of his father, who passed away on July 11, 1883, on his farm west of this city. Mr. Kirwin came back to the old home town to look up the records. As there were no statistics kept at the time he resorted to the newspaper offices for information and in this office he found files of the Holt County Banner for the year 1883 and we found notice of his father's death in the issue of the Banner of July 17, 1883. We furnished him the required affidavit, which will give the federal officials the information they require, and Mr. Kirwin left for his home Wednesday night. Before leaving he ordered The Frontier sent to his address for the coming year so that he could keep posted on the happenings in the old home town and section.

St. Mary's Gridsters Add Another Scalp to Belt

St. Mary's undefeated foot ball team defeated the Petersburg team on the local field on Thursday afternoon by a score of 41 to 0.

The first score was made shortly after the game began when Klindschmidt tackled one of Petersburg's players behind the goal line for the first two points. About five minutes later another safety was made and the score was four to nothing. At the end of the first made and the score was four to nothing and at the half the score was twenty-three to nothing. St. Mary's team suffered some injuries in the first quarter when both Ted Sirek and Gerald Klindschmidt went out of the game. Sirek suffered a broken collar bone and Klindschmidt recovered sufficiently to be able to reenter the game, but was not allowed to do so by the coach.

One of the outstanding players was Billie Ryan, who made several outstanding runs and also threw three forward passes which went for touchdowns. Shoemaker also made some very substantial gains through the line.

Highway No. 20 Boosters Here Last Monday

A delegation of about seventy cars, the National Highway No. 20 Good Will Caravan was in the city last Monday morning on their way to attend the National convention at Sioux City.

The O'Neill High School band, augmented with the band from St. Mary's met the Boosters as they drove into town and gave them a cordial musical, which was greatly appreciated by the officials in charge of the trip. The Caravan was accompanied by the town band from Lusk, Wyo., the Bassett Junior American Legion Bugle and drum corps and the Atkinson High School band, and they all furnished music for the hundreds of citizens that thronged the streets while they were in the city. A few O'Neillites joined the Caravan and went on to Sioux City with them.

The promoters of the Caravan Trip and the Convention are of the opinion that much good will result from the trip in advertising Highway No. 20 to easterners who desire to visit Yellowstone park and other scenic points in the west, and that next year will see a great increase in travel over this popular route.

ONE of the causes of failure in life is that people will not turn from envy of the successful to emulation.

Apology

The editor of The Frontier regrets that much of the current news of O'Neill and vicinity is crowded out this week. We figured that the most important item of news was the numbers of the men who will have to report for military duty, so we have curtailed our regular news columns to make this possible. We will be back in form next week.

Congressman Stefan In The City Monday

Congressman Karl Stefan, of Norfolk, and Lyle Jackson, of Neligh, were in the city for a few hours Monday evening visiting friends. Karl just returned from Washington last week and expects to remain in the district until after the election. He does not have any fences to repair as they are all in good shape, and everyone, both republican, democrat and New Dealer, admit that Karl has no real opposition in the coming election. But notwithstanding the fact that neither of his opponents furnish him any real opposition his friends should not overlook him on election day, for the larger the majority the higher will be his batting average with party leaders in Washington.
