Expected to Win

DWIGHT GRISWOLD
It is expected that Dwight Griswold will be elected as Governor of Nebraska Tuesday. He has made an active, aggressive campaign and has visited every section of Nebraska. Mr. Griswold is editor of the Gordon Journal and former president of the State Press Association. He is also a former State Commander of the American Legion and served three terms in the State Senate, 1925, 1927, 1929. This experience, together with his active campaign, has given him a wide knowledge of the interests of the various sections of Nebraska. His sympathetic understanding of the problems of the people of the agriculture state has won him many friends. It is surely has the necessary training and experience and will make a splendid governor.

To The Voters of O'Neill:
I have been nominated by the Republican Party for City Assessor. Having served in the Legislature I am acquainted with the tax laws affecting the assessment of property. I served as your assessor for six years just prior to 1934, and, if elected again, will endeavor, as I did before, to make a fair, impartial and equitable assessment of property in O'Neill. If my record and qualifications meet with your approval, I respectfully solicit your votes on election day, November 5, 1940.
