Canvassing Board Action Odd Under Circumstances

has been looked up to as a fair and square shooter, but he fell by the wayside in this instance and must bear the consequences of his act.

It seems to us that the matter is far from ended. We do not believe the supreme court will sit supinely by and let a few cheap politicians ignore the mandate of the court and a contempt of court action is probably liable. These four democratic politicians, all lame ducks, wished to deprive the 423 voters of Verdigris precinct their right to have their votes, cast in the last election, counted. What a howl to high heaven would go from these same three men had the shoe been on the other foot and it was a republican canvassing board and the democratic candidate was in the same position that Mr. Marsh now is. The scrap will probably wind up in the legislature.

BRIEFLY STATED

Ralph L. Oppen, 3402 Dewey avenue, Monday was given federal recognition as a first lieutenant in the medical detachment, 134th infantry, Nebraska national guard.—Omaha World-Herald.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jones left last Wednesday evening for Tulsa, Oklahoma, where they spent a week visiting at the home of their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. Vincent Jones.

Mrs. O. W. French returned on Monday from Lincoln, Nebraska, where she took her daughter, Leona and son, Ivan, back to resume their studies at the University of Nebraska.

Betty Jane Puckett returned to Crete, Nebr., Sunday to resume her school work at Doane College, after spending Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Puckett.

Mrs. Henry Neigenfind and daughters, Gladys Lou and Gloria, have moved from the Inman neighborhood to Page. Mrs. Neigenfind and daughters have made their home with her brother, Charley Nieman since the death of her husband a year ago. This good family will be greatly missed by all who know them, but we are wishing them much luck and happiness in their new home.

Lod Janousek and son, George, drove to Brainard last Wednesday and spent Thanksgiving visiting at the home of his mother and with other relatives and friends there, returning home Sunday afternoon.

Mike Enright and son, Don, drove to Sioux City last Friday, where they visited William J. Enright, a brother of Mike's, who was seriously ill at St. Vincent's hospital in that city. Shortly after they left Friday evening, William died.

Orton Young had the misfortune to get his arm fractured the day following his sale. He was helping to load a colt in a pick-up and the colt kicked him. He was taken to the doctor and it was found his right arm was fractured.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pribil spent the past week at Lincoln and Beatrice at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Denesia, and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Meyer and family, a sister of Mrs. Pribil.

Mrs. John Haggerty, of Casper, Wyo., visited her mother, Mrs. Frank Kubitschek on Wednesday evening, while on her way from Casper, to Rochester, Minn., where she will go through the Mayo Brothers clinic.

Miss Dorothy Jordan, Miss Nadene Coyne and the Misses Rose Mary and Ruth Ann Biglin returned on Sunday to Lincoln to resume their studies at the University of Nebraska after spending the holidays at home with their parents.

Miss Evelyn Coyne, who is employed at the mission at Marty, S. D., arrived here on Wednesday evening to spend her Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Coyne. She will return to Marty on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynus Howard, Miss Margaret Howard, Mike Harty and Thad Saunders drove to Omaha on Saturday and attended the hockey game there Saturday evening. They returned home early Sunday.

F. J. Biglin and son, Joe, returned on Monday from Omaha, where they went on Sunday, taking Billie Biglin and Miss Jane Parkins to that city to resume their studies after spending the holidays at home.

Jack Frenking and John Robert Gallagher of Omaha drove to O'Neill on Saturday and visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Gallagher. Mrs. Frenking and children, who had been visiting here returned to Omaha with them on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McNally and daughter, Miss Betty, and Mr. and Mrs. James McNally and daughter, Suzanne, will leave on Friday for North Platte, Nebraska, where they will make their home in the future, having purchased a business in that town.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wille and daughter, Bonnie Lou, arrived here from Rochester, Minn., to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Wille's mother and sisters, Mrs. Henry Neigenfind and family of Page. Mrs. Wille will be remembered here as Nona Neigenfind.

Miss Helen Gallagher returned last Wednesday from LaCrosse, Wis., where for the past six weeks she had been visiting her brother, Dr. Frank Gallagher and other relatives and friends. While she was gone she also attended the Notre Dame-Iowa football game which was played at South Bend on November 16.

R. F. Van Horn, who has been ranching east of this city for the past three or four years, was a pleasant caller last Tuesday morning and advanced his subscription to this household necessity. Mr. Van Horn has rented his place and purchased a truck line in Ewing and has moved his family to that city where The Frontier will continue to visit him each week.

The Frontier acknowledges receipt of a letter, containing a check for renewal of his subscription, from Lee Downey, of Hastings. Lee says that they are getting along fine. Referring to the election Lee says: "Well we at least got our own state in order November 5th, which helps a lot." Right you are Lee and Holt county joined the procession with a vengeance.

Mrs. Marjorie Begthol returned to her home in Kearney on Saturday after visiting here for a few days at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Certer. Mrs. Carter returned to Kearney with her and on Monday, Mrs. Begthol underwent an operation at the Kearney hospital. At the present time, Mrs. Begthol is recovering nicely from the operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Halva entertained their friends at a Thanksgiving card party Wednesday night. Four tables of pitch were played and prizes were won by Mrs. Charles Bellin, grand prize; Mr. and Mrs. Kline, high; Dave Loy and Mrs. Bob Cook, low. A delicious lunch was served at midnight. All report having had a very enjoyable time.
