

U. S. Bombers for Great Britain

Lockheed Hudson bombing planes being loaded aboard ship at Los Angeles for transportation to England, where they will play their part in Britain's battle for survival. Lockheeds have won high praise from the R. A. F. First used exclusively as patrol ships in the coastal command, they are now used as fighters, bombers and for reconnaissance.

Tears U. S. Flag

Miss Helga Sclenter, 20 years old, of Southart, N. J., pictured at her home reading a book, after her indictment for tearing a United States flag.—Soundphoto.

Brought Down 'Somewhere' in England

A crashed Italian bombing plane being examined and guarded by civilians and a British soldier after it had been brought down during an Axis air raid "somewhere in England." (Inset) The first Italian prisoner to be taken in England since the war started, shown under British guard. This fellow was taken when 13 Italian planes, the first, were shot down over England in one day's air raids.

Mass Funeral for Coventry Victims

Radiophoto showing scene during the funeral of 172 of some 300 persons killed in the all-night air raid on Coventry, England. The victims were buried three deep in a common trench-like grave, while anti-aircraft guns fired at a lone German raider overhead. Mourners are seen filing past the coffins, which were flag-draped.

Journey's End

A member of the gun crew of the S. S. Samaria removing ammunition from behind the ship's six-inch gun, when the vessel docked in New York after a perilous ocean crossing.

New Wings for the U. S. Army

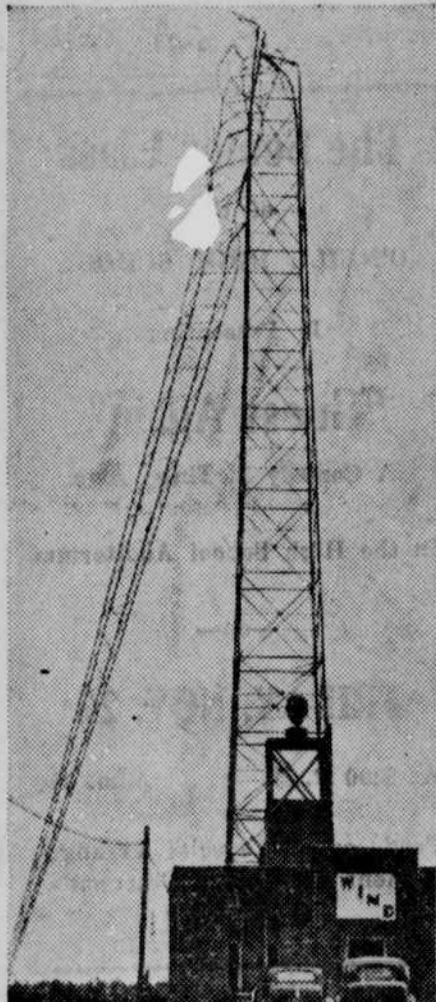

This line of 33 new basic training planes is shown on the Vultee Aircraft field at Downey, Calif., just before they were delivered to the United States army air corps. Thirty-three veteran air instructors flew the planes to the army's new air center at Moffett field, Moffett, Calif.

Nazi Bombs Hit London Orphanage

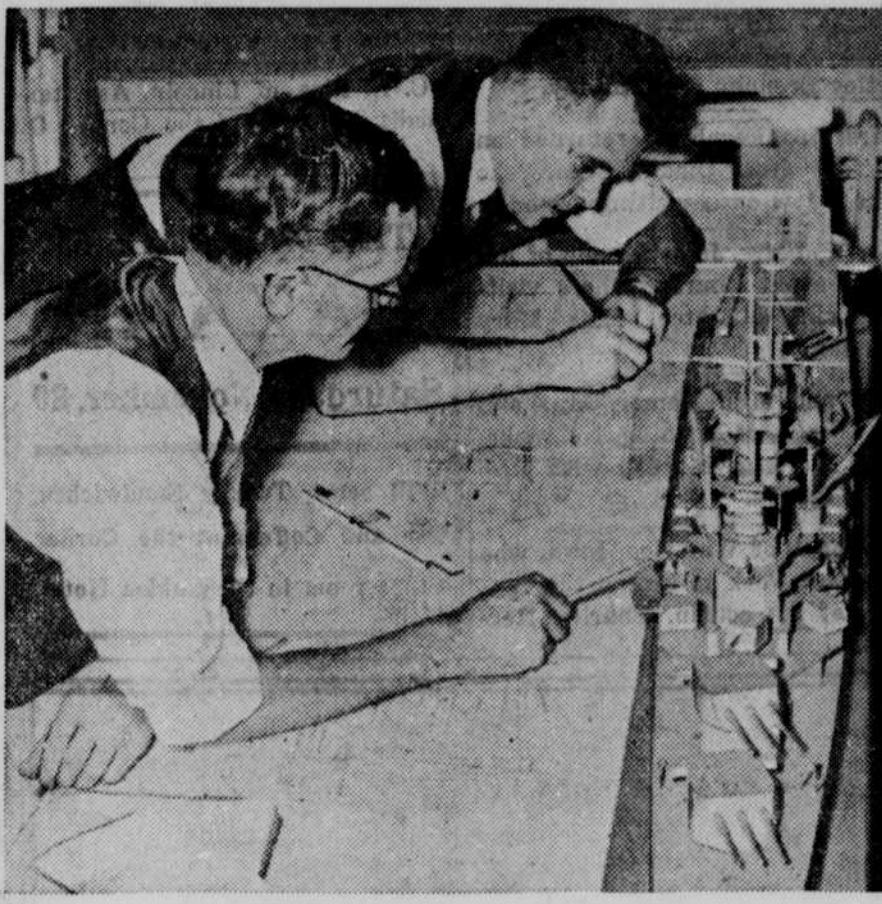

The top age is three at this London orphanage which was recently hit by a Nazi bomb. The bomb exploded only 10 feet from the babies' dormitory, and, very fortunately, there were no casualties. The children are here pictured playing in the shadow of the orphanage ruins, quite unaware of their narrow escape from death.

Gone With Wind

The $15,000 radio tower of station W-I-N-D, which was broken in half by the terrific gale which did millions of dollars of damage in the South and Midwest.

Navy Speeds Defense Program

Scene at the navy department's bureau of ships where designers formulate plans for new naval equipment. Models of proposed battleships, destroyers and cruisers are built from these designs and thoroughly tested before actual construction of equipment is started. Here a model of the cruiser Wichita is being used as basis for a new ship design.

Tip Toppers

Irene Stevens (left) and Kae Sumner, members of the Tip Toppers club, all of whom must be over six feet four. Miss Sumner, who organized the club, went to New York to appear on Ripley's program. The man is "Stormy Bergh," three feet tall.

Argentina Asks $50,000,000 Loan

Photo shows members of an Argentine delegation to Washington for the discussion of a $50,000,000 loan regarded necessary to sustain the increasing flow of exports to Argentina, which are much heavier than Argentine exports to the United States. L. to R., Dr. P. Prebisch (Central Bank of Argentina); D. Espil, Argentine ambassador; Sumner Welles, U. S. acting secretary of state; E. Grumbach (Central Bank of Argentina); C. Prado, of the Argentine embassy, and R. Verrier (Central Bank of Argentina).

Tagged

Under navy department plans for a 24-hour watch over defense secrets employees were photographed for identification card, as above.

500,000 to 1 Shot Who Came Through

Anton Wrba, 17, is the center of attraction in the WREA candy store in New York city. He is now pronounced as good as new after having had a bullet pass completely through his heart. The heart was quickly stitched, a blood transfusion of the boy's own blood was administered, and Anton lived! 499,999 other such cases would prove fatal.

'Blitz Bowlers'

Today in London they are wearing the latest in "blitz bowlers" (shown above) which are splinter-proof. The "bowler" is for both men and women.

Ask Me Another

A General Quiz

The Questions

1. Which of the following is an oblate spheroid — an egg, the earth, or a baseball?
2. According to tradition what great author of tragedies was killed by a tortoise, which an eagle let fall on his head?
3. George Washington's estate was valued at a sum that would now be how much?
4. What Greek philosopher was nagged by his wife Xanthippe?
5. Pilate's words "Ecce Homo" are translated to mean what?
6. What is mulled wine?

The Answers

1. The earth. (Flattened or depressed at the poles.)
2. Aeschylus.
3. $5,000,000.
4. Socrates.
5. "Behold the man!" John 19:5
6. Wine that is heated, sweetened and spiced.

QUALITY AT A PRICE
The Outstanding Value of KENT
Finest Swedish Chrome Steel
7 single or 10 double edge Blades
CUPPLES COMPANY, ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI

Wasted Advice
Who gives advice to a fool,
beats the air with a stick.

THE SMOKE OF SLOWER-BURNING CAMELS GIVES YOU—

EXTRA MILDNESS

EXTRA COOLNESS

EXTRA FLAVOR

AND—

28%

LESS NICOTINE

than the average of the 4 other of the largest-selling cigarettes tested—less than any of them—according to independent scientific tests of the smoke itself.

CAMEL THE SLOWER-BURNING CIGARETTE