dinner at the M and M Saturday evening. Miss Betty, who leaves Thursday for North Platte, where the family will make their future home, presented each guest with a remembrance.

Ira C. Summers of Ainsworth, Nebraska, was fined $35.00 and costs of $3.10 by Judge Reimer of the Holt County Court, on a complaint signed by Patrolman John Meistrick on November 28. He was charged with carrying an overload on his truck, to which charge he pleaded guilty.

Edward M. Ryder, of Gordon Nebraska, was arrested on November 26 by Patrolman Harry Brl, charged with operating an overloaded truck. He appeared before Judge Reimer on December 4, pled guilty to the charge and was fined $10.00 and costs, amounting to $3.10.

At the regular meeting of the city council last Tuesday evening Fred McNally, who has been one of the councilmen from the First ward for the past two and a half years, tendered his resignation, as he is moving from the city. The resignation was accepted and Mayor Kersenbrock appointed R. L. Arbuthnot to fill the vacancy, which appointment was confirmed by the council.

Deputy Attorney General Rush Clark was in the city last week on business. He appeared before the County Clerk, in accordance with an Alternative of Mandamus issued by the Supreme Court of Nebraska in the Verdigris vote matter. The County Clerk refused to open the ballot box and he went to Lincoln Tuesday to appear before the court to give his reasons for not complying with the order. We understand the Supreme Court set December 10 for a hearing on an action to determine whether Swanson or Marsh has been elected Secretary of State.
