O'NEILL, JOHNSON DRUGS NEBRASKA

THE DAYS OF LONG AGO

Fifty-Five Years Ago

The Frontier, November 19, 1885

M. F. Harrington, of Atkinson, is located here for the practice of law. He will office with Mr. Fahy. The Dustin Dispatch lies before us and we have sized it up. Typographically, it is perfection. Ezra Sanders, formerly of this city and an employee of this office, is editor and proprietor.

Two more newspapers sprang to existence in Holt county last week. One at Cleveland and one at Dustin. One is wanted at Star and another is needed badly at Chambers. Two more are in the prospective for O'Neill and we understand that Balus, formerly of the Star Sentinel intends to start at Stuart this week.

The Frontier, November 26, 1885

J. E. West returned last night from Council Bluffs, where he had been for the past week pushing through a new enterprise for O'Neill, which proves to be a pork packing establishment. Ten men started work this Wednesday morning on the building, just east of creamery near the Northwest tracks. The building will be 34 feet and is to be operated the O'Neill Packing Co., with E. West as manager.

Fifty Years Ago

The Frontier, November 20, 1890

The glass front of the McEvony-Bride building is in place and it is up in good shape. The plasterers are at work and the building will be finished as soon as possible. The following clerks in the principal business places of O'Neill notified their employers to close their places of business at 8 o'clock p.m., except Saturdays and Christmas week: Pat McManus, T.

Daugherty, T. D. Hanley, Wm. McNichols, James Gallagher, Frank Mann, Chas. O'Neill, Hay McClure, James McManus, Samuel Thompson, Ed Boland and John Murphy. The following business houses agreed to the request of their employees: J. P. Mann, M. M. Sullivan, H. Wilson, J. Pfund, J. L. Mack, J. E. Smith, H. Hendrikson, H. W. McClure, C. E. Hall, B. Walton.

The Frontier, November 27, 1890

The fixtures of the O'Neill State Bank are here and have been placed in position and are very fine. The carpenter work is nearly completed and the building will soon be ready for occupancy.

William W. Watson and Miss Ella U. Baldwin were united in the bonds of holy matrimony on the 9th inst at the residence of Isaac Baldwin, the bride's father at Inman, by Rev. J. De Los Wilson.

A paper is being circulated around town by some of the boys securing signatures for the purpose of organizing a militia company here.

The company to prospect and sink an artesian well in O'Neill has been duly organized and about $1,000.00 worth of stock subscribed for.

On Wednesday morning at 7:30 o'clock John Murphy and Miss Mary Gibbons, both of this city, were united in the bonds of wedlock, at St. Patrick's Catholic church by Rev. M. F. Cassidy.

Forty Years Ago

The Frontier, November 22, 1900

James DeYarman, formerly a resident of this city and county, was killed by an explosion in the Homestead Mills in Pennsylvania on November 10, 1900, at the age of 39 years.

The population of Holt county at the last census was 13,633. The Frontier offered a prize for the Holt county resident guessing nearest to the population of the county. This prize was won by

A. R. Wertz, of Star, who only missed it 133, as his guess was 13,500. The following guesses were also submitted: Peter Greeley, Saratoga, 19,876; Jane Williams, O'Neill, 27,000; W. B. Lower, Ewing, 7,127; C. W. Hagensick, Joy, 8,647; Jacob Schaffer, O'Neill, 16,000.

The Frontier, November 29, 1900

G. C. Hazelt and family and A. J. Meals arrived in the city last evening. Meals and Hazelt recently returned from Alaska.

The work on the convent is progressing rapidly and it is expected the building will be completed shortly.

Roscoe Conklin passed away on November 2, at Binghampton, N. Y., where he was visiting relatives. He was 59 years of age. Roscoe was a resident of this city for several years and was considered the classiest dresser in town. He left O'Neill about 6 years ago. His death came suddenly and upon investigation of his apparel $1,400.00 was found in the various pockets of his clothing.

Thirty Years Ago

The Frontier, November 17, 1910

Mrs. C. E. Stout went down to Omaha Wednesday morning to spend a few days visiting relatives.

Mrs. Catherine Cook, one of the pioneer residents of the county, died last Monday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Cassie Kennedy, at Jersey City, N. J., where she has resided the past year. She was 90 years of age at the time of her death. The remains were shipped to this city for burial.

The Frontier, November 24, 1910

William J. O'Connor, of this city and Emma O'Laughlin, of South Omaha, were married at St. Bridget's church in South Omaha last Tuesday morning.

Married, at St. Patrick's church, Monday, November 21, 1910, Dr. J. A. Devine to Miss Mae Campbell, Rev. W. J. O'Sullivan officiating.

Twenty Years Ago

The Frontier, November 18, 1920

Mrs. P. C. Donohoe entertained the ladies bridge club of block eighteen, Monday evening. Dainty refreshments were served.

A dance at the K. C. Hall, followed by a banquet at the Grand Cafe, was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Chet Cooper by about thirty of their friends Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Cooper will soon leave for Iowa to spend the winter.

The Frontier, November 25, 1920

Dr. J. M. Caldwell, formerly owner of a large ranch north of this city upon which he resided for several years, has accepted a call as pastor of the Presbyterian church at Valentine. For the past ten years Dr. Caldwell has been a resident of California.

The Royal Theatre has been sold to J. B. Mellor and in the future will be run by Mr. Mellor and Mr. McMillan, they taking possession last Monday evening.

Ten Years Ago

The Frontier, November 20, 1930

One of the most destructive sleet storms that has visited this section of the state in years began last Wednesday night and by daylight the trees, telephone, telegraph and electric light and power lines were hanging with a thick coat of ice that broke them down in many places.
