

Four-Alarms Worth of Fire

The upper stories of a six-story building at 661-3 Broadway, Brooklyn, N. Y., take on the appearance of a roaring furnace during the four-alarm blaze fought by more than 200 firemen who played streams of water on the flames from roofs of adjoining buildings. Stores on the lower floors were protected by the fast action of the firemen.

Col. Lindbergh at Senate Hearing

In his second appearance in two weeks before the senate foreign relations committee Col. Charles A. Lindbergh stated that extensive American aid would only prolong the war, without materially affecting the result. Photo shows Sen. Walter F. George, chairman of the committee, Col. Lindbergh, and Sen. Gerald Nye, a member of the committee.

American Ambassador Welcomed to Vichy

Lord Halifax Gets Acquainted With Wallace

Viscount Halifax, member of the British war cabinet, and his majesty's new ambassador to the United States, has been making the rounds of Washington, getting acquainted and urging his country's cause. The tall, angular Briton is shown chatting with Vice President Wallace in this picture, which was snapped in the vice president's office.

Just Arrived

Adm. Kichisaburo Nomura, new ambassador extraordinary and plenipotentiary to the United States from Japan, is pictured as he witnessed the review of the Thirtieth Infantry at San Francisco presidio shortly after arriving in America. With Nomura is General Dewitt, commander of the Fourth army. Left to right: Admiral Nomura and General Dewitt.

Killed in Bomber

Capt. R. S. Freeman, commandant of Ladd field, who was killed when a four-motored huge army bomber smashed into Ragged Top mountain at Lovelock, Nev., killing the crew of seven.

Land Mine!

Sappers of Fifteenth Royal Australian engineers explode a land mine by fuse, during maneuvers near Sydney, Australia. Tactics such as this were responsible for destroying Italian land mines, opening the road for British tanks on the way to Bardia, Tobruk and Derna.

Against Il Duce

Thousands of Ethiopians have joined the British forces in Libya. This 14-year-old boy of Bardia has been waging war against the Italians for five years. He is wearing the cap of an Italian officer sniped during one of his encounters with the enemy.

For the Empire on Which the Sun Never Sets

German and Italian Prisoners of War

Although the censor does not reveal the city, the name on the train verifies the fact that it is in Canada that these German prisoners (left) are being marched to their train from the prison ship at an east coast port. Right: Some of the thousands of Italian prisoners made captive as the doughty Greek warriors and their assistants, the British, pressed farther and farther into Albania.

Der Fuehrer Welcomes New Soviet Envoy

This picture, which was approved by the German censors, shows Adolf Hitler, chancellor of Germany, chatting with Vladimir Dekanosov, in the new Reich chancellery, shortly after Dekanosov had presented his credentials as the new ambassador from Soviet Russia to Germany. The German leader is all cordiality.

Lion of Judah Leads Revolt

Somewhere in the Sudan, near the Ethiopian frontier, Haile Selassie, "Lion of Judah," ex-emperor of Abyssinia, inspects some of the troops with which he hopes to overthrow Italian rule and regain control of his empire. Already his revolting tribesmen have been credited with several successes against the Italians.

Trouble in Paradise

With plenty of snow and nice cold (br-r-r) water, Mr. and Mrs. Polar Bear at the Prospect Park zoo, in New York city, indulge in a family squabble. Mrs. Bear is sore because the old man used up all the ice water before she had a chance to take her bath.

R.A.F. Pays Call

A rare picture, passed by the German censors, showing some of the extensive damage caused by raiding planes of the RAF on the residential section of Wurtemberg, Germany.
