 Every subscription is regarded as an open account. The names of subscribers will be instantly removed from our mailing list at expiration of time paid for, if publisher shall be notified; otherwise the subscription remains in force at the designated subscription price. Every subscriber must understand that these conditions are made a part of the contract between publisher and subscriber.
 Display advertising is charged for on a basis of 25c an inch (one column wide) per week. Want ads 10c per line, first insertion, subsequent insertions, 5c per line.

A Word To Frontier Readers

We wish to call the attention of those of our readers who are in arrears that we must have money to continue in business.
 Many of our readers have doubtless thoughtlessly allowed their subscription to run along year after year, and we ask them now to come in and settle.
 Payment of these little bills mean a good deal to the publisher as they run into hundreds of dollars. So we trust you will call, settle up, and start 1941 with a clean slate.

THE DAYS OF LONG AGO

Fifty-Five Years Ago

The Frontier, March 18, 1886
 Married, at the Emerson House, Dorsey, Nebr., on March 3, 1886, by Rev. D. W. Rosenkrans, Sam Derison and Miss Annie Emerson, daughter of John Emerson, of Dorsey.

The dedication of the M. E. church has been postponed and will probably occur the first Sunday in April.

The Frontier, March 25, 1886
 Fine weather the first of the week.

Duck hunting is now the order of the day.

On Tuesday evening there was an important meeting called in McCafferty's hall. A Mr. Bridges, of Crete, was present and offered to put in a $15,000 mill at O'Neill, provided that the citizens of the town would give him a bonus of $1,500. Eight hundred dollars was pledged that evening.

Fifty Years Ago

The Frontier, March 19, 1891
 The Short Line blockade has been raised and it is expected that the trains will run regularly from this time on.

Bridget, wife of Patrick C. Carney, died at her home three miles north of O'Neill on Saturday last at 10:30 A. M. She was 48 years of age and had been a resident of the county fifteen years.

The Item, March 19, 1891
 The artesian well contractors are here and getting in shape to commence work. Those holding shares will be required to pay in fifty per cent of the amount at once.

The program that was arranged for St. Patrick's night in this city was the presentation of the patriotic historical drama, "Robert Emmet," by local talent. The performers surprised themselves and their most ardent admirers, who thought that with the limited amount of training they had it would be impossible to attain the degree of perfection which the difficult play requires in order to produce the desired effect. By special request the play was reproduced the following evening, also with success, and to a crowded house. Following was the cast of characters:
 Robert Emmet, the Irish patriot.....
 T. J. Birmingham
 Darby O'Gaff, a sprig of the Emerald IsleEd Butler
 O'Leary, an old soldier. O. F. Biglin
 Dowdall, friend to Emmet
 P. J. McManus
 Kernan, a traitor.....D. H. Cronin
 Sergeant Topfall.....S. C. Sample
 Corporal Thomas.....Frank Mann

Lord Norbury, Baron George and Baron Daly, the Judges...T. V. Golden, P. McManus and Odie Biglin
 Judges...P. McManus and Odie Biglin
 Maria, Emmet's wife...Miss Carlon
 Judy O'Daugherty...Miss Delia Marsh

The Frontier, March 26, 1891
 A city caucus was held last Saturday evening for the purpose of nominating candidates for city officials. H. M. Uttley was elected chairman and Clyde King, secretary and the following ticket was nominated: Mayor, O. F. Biglin; City Treasurer, David Adams; City Clerk, Thomas Campbell; City Engineer, Sumner Adams; Police Judge, N. Martin. Councilmen: First ward, B. A. DeYarman; Second ward, Frank Campbell; Third ward, Barrett Scott.

The Item, March 26, 1891
 A petition was circulated Monday and unanimously signed placing in nomination another ticket for city officials as follows: Mayor, W. D. Mathews; City Clerk Thomas Campbell; City Treasurer, Jake Hershiser; Police Judge, N. Martin; City Engineer, Sumner Adams.

Forty Years Ago

The Frontier, March 21, 1901
 Dr. Blackburn, of Atkinson, died Monday of pneumonia. He had been a resident of the county several years.

Edward Adams disposed of his interests at Page and last week moved to Stuart where he takes the management of the Adams Lumber and Grain Co., which company purchased the stock of the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

O'Neill is to have a new bank and M. Dowling, C. W. Smith, W. K. Fowler and M. Dowling, bankers of North Bend, Nebr., are the incorporators and the business will be done under the name of the O'Neill National Bank. James F. O'Donnell will be the cashier.

Mrs. Bridget McGinnis died of pneumonia yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. P. D. Mullen, after an illness of one week.

The Frontier, March 28, 1901
 For the first time, we believe, in the history of O'Neill, we are to go through a municipal campaign without a contest. There is but one ticket in the field this year, the present officials being candidates for re-election without opposition. They are: Mayor, Edward F. Gallagher; City Clerk, James F. Gallagher; Treasurer, Bernard McGreevey; Police Judge, O. E. Davidson. Aldermen: First ward, R. H. Jenness; Second ward, Jacob Pfund; Third ward, Emil Sniggs.

Thirty Years Ago

The Frontier, March 16, 1911
 Daniel Gallagher, an old settler of the Elkhorn river country near Inman, died on March 5, at Wilmington, Delaware. Mr. Gallagher had been in Delaware for some time past, although his home was still in this county.

A large delegation of O'Neill Odd Fellows went to Inman Tuesday afternoon and that night instituted a lodge at Inman of some forty members.

The Frontier, March 23, 1911
 But little interest is manifest in the city election which will be held on April 4. So far there is no contest for any office except in the Third ward, where there are two candidates for alderman, C. E. Hall, now one of the councilmen from that ward, and C. C. Millard, being the two candidates. Mayor Biglin is a candidate for re-election as is also Treasurer J. F. Gallagher and Clerk Herb Hammond. In the First ward, D. H. Cronin is a candidate for re-election to the council and M. H. McCarthy in the second. There is talk among the voters about getting out other candidates, but petitions for only those above named have been filed with the City Clerk.

Michael Lawless died in this city Friday last at the home of his brother-in-law and was buried Saturday, the funeral being held from the Catholic church. He was 46 years of age and had been a resident of Park City, Utah, for several years.

Twenty Years Ago

The Frontier, March 17, 1921
 Interest in the city campaign was evidenced last week by the circulating of petitions of numerous candidates for city office. Petitions for C. M. Daly and J. M. Hunter for mayor were the first to make their appearance and each is receiving a liberal number of signatures. There is one councilman to be elected from each ward, James Brown being the retiring member in the First, Mrs. D. Stannard in the Second and H. W. Tomlinson in the Third. Four candidates have developed in the First ward for the council, Frank Phalin, Eugene Mayfield, R. E. Gallagher and Mrs. Joseph Wise. Mrs. Stannard will probably have no opposition in the Second and in the Third the petition of George Shoemaker is the only one to show up to date.

The Frontier, March 24, 1921
 Michael Sullivan, one of the early settlers of Holt county, died at the residence of his son, supervisor John Sullivan, south of O'Neill Saturday, at the advanced age of 93 years, one month and twenty-two days. He had been a resident of the county since 1879.

The Frontier, March 31, 1921
 Twin daughters arrived at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William Biglin Friday morning.

A REPORT to America

The Ford Motor Company's business has always been to serve the needs of the American people. In providing them with low-cost transportation for the past 38 years, we have developed one of the country's largest and most useful industrial units. During a national emergency, we feel that these facilities should be devoted without reserve to our country's needs. Toward that end we started rolling months ago, with these results:

- 1 A $21,000,000 Ford airplane engine factory, started only 6 months ago, is nearly completed. Production will start with an initial order for 4,236 eighteen cylinder, air-cooled, double-row, radial engines.
- 2 We are building a new $800,000 Ford magnesium alloy foundry, one of the few in the country. It is already producing lightweight airplane engine castings.
- 3 Army reconnaissance cars—military vehicles of an entirely new type—are rolling off special Ford assembly lines at the rate of more than 600 a month. We have produced Army staff cars and bomber service trucks.
- 4 The government has given the "go-ahead" and work is now under way for the fast construction of an $11,000,000 Ford plant to produce bomber airframe assemblies by mass production methods.

5 Several months ago work was started, on our own initiative, on an entirely new 1500 horsepower airplane engine especially designed for mass production. This engine is now in the test stage and plans are being developed for producing it in large quantities when and if needed.

6 A Ford aircraft apprentice school has been established, to train 2000 students at a time.

That is a report of progress to date.

The experience and facilities of this company can be used to do much of the job which America now needs to get done in a hurry.

Our way of working, which avoids all possible red tape, enables us to get results and get them fast. This benefits users of our products and workers who produce them.

We are ready to make anything we know how to make, to make it to the limit of our capacity if need be, to make it as fast as we can go, and to start the next job whenever our country asks us to. And to this end, we know we have the full confidence and loyal support of the workmen throughout our plants.
