THE DAYS OF LONG AGO

Fifty-Five Years Ago

The Frontier, April 1, 1886
In announcing the conclusion of his first year as editor and owner of the Frontier, James H. Riggs, the publisher says: "Our business has steadily increased until at present we are employing three men, have a weekly expense to not less than $35.00." Shades of the past. Present day publishers would be tickled pink if they could have one man and get along with an expense of not to exceed $50 weekly. But these are not the horse and buggy days.—Ed.

The worst storm of the season visited this section recently, commencing on Friday last and continuing until Monday morning. More snow fell than at any time during the winter and it seems that the further west one goes the worse the storm was and the snow heavier.

Rev. N. S. Lowrie, of Garham, N. Y., arrived in O'Neill on last Saturday evening. Mr. Lowrie is a minister who was "called" by the Presbyterian church of O'Neill last year, but who could not come because his congregation in Garham would not accept his resignation. He is now here on a month's vacation, look over the field and there is a possibility that he will yet take charge of the church here.

R. N. Taylor, of Dorsey, and Miss Jennie L. Shannon, of Redbird were united in marriage last Saturday by County Judge Gillespie.

Half a Nose IS PLENTY HERE

But if you want to win on your Spring change of engine oil, go clean past those old favorites, Drain and Refill.

Out with your messy Winter oil—today—before a bearing or something's half shot. Then beat old-type oil changes by changing to an OIL-PLATED engine—the modern Spring change you get with Conoco Germ Processed oil.

This patented oil includes a rare man-made extra substance that sets up a strong "power of attraction," which OIL-PLATES a sheet of lasting lubricant direct to engine parts. Close-knit OIL-PLATING can't drain completely dry... not all night at a standstill... not all day at double-quick... never while you're using Germ Processed oil. Hence no bone-dry starting, nor fine-fitting parts rubbing dry at speed.

That's how an OIL-PLATED engine gets a real chance to keep its fine fit... and to keep going extra miles per quart. Get your correct Germ Processed oil for Spring, at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Continental Oil Company
