On The Sidelines

By Observer

This week we shall have to move out of the city to find the sport news as it seem that all is quiet on the sports front in O'Neill.

After Joe Louis' last win over Tony Musto we think that Joe has the boxing world wrapped around his little finger, at any rate there doesn't seem to be a man today who can step into the square circle today and take the Championship of the World away from him. And looking into the future we would say that he seems fairly safe for awhile, although Billy Conn may give him a little trouble before their fight is over. In Joe's last fight either he doesn't pack the punch he used to or Tony Musto could just about get kicked by a mule and wouldn't feel it, for Louis threw everything but the bucket at the side of the ring before Musto gave up.

The table tennis enthusiasts of northeast Nebraska will go into a little strenuous practice between now and April 17-18 as that is the day that Norfolk will hold their Annual Tournament to decide the champ of this section of the state.

In scanning this year's Big League roster I find only two names from Nebraska, one being Mel Harder, ace pitcher for the Cleveland Indians, who in his career as a Big League player has won 171 and lost 135. He hails from Beemer, Nebr. The other is Johnny Hopp, brother of ex-Husker Harry Hopp whose name appears with the St. Louis Cardinals. Hopp now plays first base and is second to Johnny Mize, the slugger from Georgia.

Speaking of Harry Hopp, he is now playing with Duluth in the Northern League. He trained with the Cards and then went to Albany, Georgia and now to Duluth. He is a pitcher.

The Western League looks as if it were coming back this season as they now have the league enlarged to six teams with the addition of Cheyenne and Pueblo, Colorado and plan to play a 110 game schedule. Norfolk has accepted the Mayor as their new manager.

Eight Holt County Boys Leave For Service on April 29th

The following men will be sent to Omaha for induction into the service of the United States army by the Holt County Draft Board April 29, 1941. All are volunteers: George Wdtlauffer, O'Neill; Frederick Krugman, Opportunity; Herbert Stevens, Atkinson; Robert Wondercheck, Atkinson; Frank Wondercheck, Atkinson; Robert McCafferty, Atkinson; Charles Weller, Atkinson; Paul Judge, Atkinson.

The following has been issued by the State Headquarters of the Nebraska Selective Service and is to apply to men who will be sent to Omaha for induction into the Selective Service of the United States:

"Travel light. Take nothing but essentials. And you'll save yourself a lot of inconvenience."

This is the advice given by Brigadier General Guy N. Henninger, State Director of Selective Service, to men selected for military training who are preparing to leave for the Army induction stations. General Henninger said that one suitcase should be sufficient to carry everything a selectee would need until he is outfitted by the Army—"change of underwear and socks, shaving set including type of razor he is accustomed to using, tooth brush and other toilet articles, and things like those."

"Put them all in one suitcase," he advised, "do not take along bags, boxes and loose articles, or you will be causing a lot of inconvenience for your self and others while you are on your way to the induction station and afterwards."

Unnecessary articles taken to induction centers, together with any prohibited by military regulations, must be returned to his home by the selectee at his own expense or otherwise disposed of, General Henninger pointed out.

Commercial Club Held Regular Meeting Tuesday Evening

The first regular meeting of the O'Neill Commercial Club, since its organization, was held at the Golden Hotel, last Tuesday evening, with about thirty-five members present. After dinner the regular business of the meeting was taken up.

Reports were received from various committees on the work done for the handling of the crowds that will be here for the Music Contest on April 18 and 19. The coming convention of the National Highway 20 Convention, which will be held here on May 15 and 16 was discussed and a sub-committee was appointed to act with the Board of Directors in making arrangements for this meeting. The Omaha Commercial Club Boosters will also be here on May 20, spending the night in the city, and the matter of entertainment for the visitors was taken up and discussed. It was decided to leave the matter of the specific plans for the entertainment up to the Board of Directors. The next regular meeting of the Club will be held on the second Tuesday in May.

Tractor Tests

New publications from the Nebraska Extension Service are available now from the county agent's office in O'Neill. The report on tractor testing, bulletin No. 330, at the Nebraska Agricultural Experiment Station for the past 20 years gives a description in detail of the various tests and numerous pictures of how the work is done at Lincoln.

Another interesting available publication is circular No. 68 on "Brome-grass Production in Nebraska." It is a well illustrated 16 page publication describing varieties, cultural methods and harvesting. Both copies are now available.

St. John's Round Up Club

On Wednesday evening, March 26, a group of boys and girls of this community met at St. John's Hall for the purpose of organizing a 4-H Club in this section of Holt county.

Mr. Stout, our agricultural agent, explained to us the purpose of the club and told how to proceed with the election of officers which was the first essential step in the meeting. The following officers were elected: Walter Lange, president; Clarence Funk, vice president; Francis Funk, secretary; Kathryn Funk, news reporter; Joe Thramer, club leader and Leo Funk, assistant club leader.

After we had finished with our election of officers we decided on a Stocker-Feeder Project and voted St. John's Round-Up Club for the name.

Father Beyersdorfer was present at our meeting and assured us of his cooperation for which we are very grateful.

Our next meeting will be held at St. John's Hall on Tuesday evening, April 15 at 8 p. m.

Anyone wishing to join should be present at this meeting.

Prices Steady to Strong on Local Market Last Monday

Buyers at the local livestock auction last Monday were particularly eager to purchase the day's receipts and the market trend was definitely on the up grade. Brisk action prevailed throught the sale and prices were stronger on the better grades. Stock of the plainer quality held about steady with last week's prices.

Good calves were quite plentiful and the best steer calves advanced 25c to 50c. A short load of good steer calves averaging 350 pounds paid $13.10. The bulk of the day's run sold from $11.75 to $12.75. Light weight heifer calves reached upwards as high as $11.70, with $9.50 to $10.50 claiming the long end of these.

Yearlings were here in moderate supply. The best kind soared as much as $11.05 with the most of the steers paying from $10.00 to $10.75.

Cows were in liberal supply and the quality was fairly good. Prices advanced, especially on the young, fleshy cows. A top of $8.20 was paid with the bulk ranging from $6.25 to $7.25. Bulls were fully steady and strong in price.

Increased receipts in the hog division met with a decided upturn in price. Good light butchers paid $8.65. Sows shared in the price upswing. Shoats reached $10.05.

The next sale will be held on Monday, April 14th.
