

THE FRONTIER

COUNTRY CLUB LOOKS FOR BIG YEAR

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the O'Neill Country Club was held on April 9. The board of Directors elected at this meeting is as follows: President, Dr. L. A. Burgess, Vice President, R. M. Sauer, Secretary, F. N. Cronin, Treasurer, Edward M. Gallagher; Chairman Grounds Committee, W. J. Biglin; Chairman Entertainment Committee, Max Golden, Chairman Club House Arrangements, P. C. Denohoe.

It is expected that the 1941 membership will be larger than any in the history of the club. Starting April 15, Clyde Bowden will commence duties as overseer of work on the course. A schedule of entertainment that will be very attractive to prospective members, as well as to the usual membership, was mapped out at the meeting.

1. Opening dance at the Club House which will be a compliment to all members and those who expect to join, Thursday, May 22.

2. The annual invitation club tournament which has become one of North Nebraska's most pleasant reunions will be held June 15, 16, and 17. Rollo Sissel and his orchestra, has been booked to play for the tournament ball.

3. The annual Fourth of July celebration with family picnics and an extra fine display of fireworks.

4. Club golf matches and special tournaments under the direction of the committee that functioned so well last year.

5. The weekly dinner parties in charge of the ladies auxiliary which have been such pleasant social meetings in years past.

6. The annual stag party and the costume ball which in other years have been very enjoyable occasions.

Many ladies have shown a great interest in golf already this spring, and it is anticipated that they will seriously take up this healthful and entertaining sport. It is believed that a ladies tournament may be arranged.

An invitation is extended to all residents of O'Neill to join the club. It is the center of social activities during the summer months and is by no means an exclusive organization. The purpose of the club is for pleasure and entertainment only and dues are most reasonable. New members will receive a cordial and friendly welcome. R. M. Sauer, Chairman of the membership committee, will gladly explain the schedule of dues to any interested parties.

C. E. Stout In Sioux City Hospital

C. E. Stout, owner of the O'Neill Drug company, an old time druggist of this city, suffered an attack of appendicitis last Sunday morning, while at work in the store. He was taken to a hospital in Sioux City about midnight that night and was operated on there at 4 o'clock Monday morning. He came out of the operation nicely and was getting along fine when he developed a case of pneumonia and was in serious condition about noon on Wednesday. He rallied however that afternoon and word from there this morning is to the effect that he is getting along nicely and that the chances for his ultimate recovery are very good. His wife and two daughters are with him in Sioux City. Charley has been a resident of O'Neill about forty years and has a host of friends here, having served as mayor of the city for three consecutive terms and they are all pulling for him in his fight for recovery.

Former O'Neill Boy Preaches At Methodist Church Sunday

The Rev. Leo Clifford Kline will be recalled by the older residents of O'Neill in the early part of this century. He left O'Neill thirty-four years ago, entered the ministry of the Methodist Church in the Southern California conference; is now pastor of Washington street Methodist church in Pasadena. He is visiting relatives here and will speak at the local Methodist church next Sunday morning.

On The Sidelines

By Observer

Both the High schools being very quiet this week, the Recreation Center breaks into the news with their Annual, city Marble tournament.

This tourney is held every year to decide the Champ of each town in Nebraska, after this the town Champ of each town in Nebraska, journeys to another nearby town to fight it out with them to see who has the right to go to the district meet which is held in Norfolk for this section of the state. If the town boy is still in the running he then goes to Lincoln to battle for his position as contender for the State championship.

This year in the Senior division, Bluch Vorce, walked off with the title by turning Art Barnes, Jr., back in his attempt at the City Championship.

In the Junior division, Clifford Haynes, a newcomer, stole the title and left two boys fighting it out for second place. Gordon Elkins and Dick Godel tied in their battle for the second place post and as yet no decision has been given.

During the last week Leo Lewis a one time O'Neill High all-around athlete has showed plenty of what it takes in his attempt to gain a varsity berth at the full back spot on the Husker eleven. Leo completed his freshman and Sophomore years here before going to Alliance High, where he graduated. He now has plenty of competition to buck against, with Vike Francis already having the spot, and Wayne Blue, and Henry Rohn fighting for second spot.

Sand green golf has opened up with an ever widening interest, and now has extended itself into the schools of the state. Golf at one time was a sport for no other school than City school but now it has reached out, even into the sand hills and there are some in the schools of O'Neill that would like to organize a team and enter the State High School Tourney at Kearney on May 2-3. It would be glad if a town as golf conscious as this could send a team to a tournament in this fairly new High School sport.

Mr. and Mrs. James McNally and daughter of North Platte, Nebraska, spent the week-end here visiting relatives and friends. They left on Tuesday for Gothenburg, Nebraska, where they will make their home in the future.

HIGHWAY NO. 20 NATIONAL CONVENTION HERE MAY 26

Mr. Bell, of Casper, Wyo., secretary of the Highway 20 association, was in the city last Tuesday and met with the committee of the Commercial Club and Harold Lindberg, who is one of the officers of the National association, regarding the coming convention of the association which is to be held in this city.

A few weeks ago the date for the convention date was set as May 15, but at the meeting Tuesday the dates of the convention was filled for Monday, May 26, 1941, when this city will be host to several hundred delegates from the various towns along the highway. Mr. Bell informed us that he would not be surprised if there were at least three hundred delegates present for the convention, from Wyoming, Nebraska and Iowa. Let them come, O'Neill will be prepared to entertain them in the style for which the city is noted.

Livestock Market Generally Steady

Slightly lighter receipts of livestock at the local auction last Monday sold at about steady prices with a week ago. The quality of the offering was not equal to last week's; hence, top prices were a little under those quoted a week ago. However, considering quality, the market looked about steady on most kinds of cattle. The hog market reflected price conditions at the terminal markets.

A top of $12.80 was paid for steer calves with the bulk in this class ranging from $11.00 to $12.50. The best lightweight heifer calves earned from $10.00 to $10.75; heavier weights from $9.25 to $10.00.

Yearlings were not very plentiful and the best kinds asked from $10.50 to $11.50. Heavy steers sold mostly from $9.25 to $9.75.

A top of $7.05 was paid for good young cows and the long end of the days offering sold from $6.50 to $7.00. Bulls were rather scarce and sold at about steady prices with a week ago.

In the hog division an extreme top of $8.70 was paid for the best lightweight butchers. Practical top was $8.65. Sows sold mostly around $8.00. The best feeder pigs sold upwards to $10.20.

Around 25 head of horses and mules were sold last Monday.

The next regular auction will be held on Monday, April 21.

Joseph Weibel, one of the prosperous farmers and stockmen of Deloit Township, was an O'Neill visitor last Saturday and made this office a pleasant call extending his subscription to this household necessity for a couple of more years. Mr. Weibel has been a resident of that section of the county for over thirty years and, while he says there have been tough times since he moved there, he is of the opinion that it is about as good a section of the state as a man can live in. Mr. Weibel lost a son in the last World War and he hopes and prays that the United States will not be drawn into this one.

The Frontier is in receipt of a letter from Mrs. H. H. Mitchell, of Jeffers, Mont., containing a renewal of her subscription for another year. After Fifty Years John Says Looks Better Than Ever

John Gaughenbaugh, who has been hibernating with the big shots down at Excelsior Springs, Mo., since last November returned home Friday morning. His brother, Clark, who has been in Excelsior Springs with John will remain for a few weeks longer. John says that he had a delightful time while he was away and one of the greatest treats that he received was the weekly visits of The Frontier, which he had sent weekly to his address. John says that while that is a nice place to spend a few months, he was mighty glad to get back to Holt county and meet again with his many old time friends. On his way home he spent a week visiting relatives in Iowa and Omaha.

"Protest"

Are the people "too stunned to fight a debt and spend policy that "may mean complete bankruptcy and possible destruction of our democracy?"

The question was propounded to a Chicago Association of Commerce meeting by Congressman Dewey of that city.

He cited some figures. In the last 15 months federal appropriations alone have amounted to 4 1/2 billion dollars.

This is equal to the value of all farm property.

It is 20 million dollars in excess of the value of the railroads.

It is 20 billion dollars more than the value of all public utilities.

It is 50 per cent of the estimated income of all the people for the coming year.

It is nearly 15 per cent of the entire national wealth.

"And the end is not yet." Even larger appropriations and expenditures are yet to come.

Regardless of the outcome of the war, Mr. Dewey impressed on his audience, every citizen will have to bear his share "of the fantastic financial burden that will be ours."

And he had but one word of advice, "Protest."

Protest against every proposal for spending for anything but the national defense and the absolutely routine services of the government. "Protest not once but continuously."

We question if it is the people who are stunned. Many are keenly aware of the danger; are protesting, and have been protesting. It seems rather that it is Congress that is stunned, without the courage to protest.

Maybe another letter to your Congressman . . . —Omaha World Herald, April 7.

Mrs. O. W. French, accompanied by her daughter, Leona, and by the Misses Rose Mary and Ruth Ann Biglin, Dorothy Jordan, Nadine Coyne and Junior Toy left on Tuesday afternoon for Lincoln, where they will resume their studies at the University of Nebraska.

LIGHT FINGERED GENTRY VISITS O'NEILL MONDAY

Some light fingered gentry, apparently of both sexes, visited this city last Monday night and among the places visited were the J. C. Penney store and the storage garage of Alva Marcellus, and they helped themselves to things around loose.

Entrance to the J. C. Penney store was effected through the skylight, taking out a section of glass in the skylight and then prying loose some bars underneath, thus permitting him or them to the floor of the store. Here they helped themselves to what they needed. They apparently thought they had plenty of time for at least one of them took time out to change his old suit for a new one and he outfitted himself from hat to shoes, leaving his old clothing on the floor of the store. Before departing they filled three new suit cases with raiment that would be useful to them, then pried open the back door and departed.

Whether they visited Marcellus garage before or after the Penney job is not known, but there they picked up a new 1941 Buick sedan and drove away with it. In order to get at the car and drive it from the garage two large cusses had to be removed from the garage. This they did and after the way was made clear the car was taken out and the busses returned to their former places when they departed for parts unknown and officials have no inkling as to which way they headed.

Last Sunday afternoon a car was parked down on the bank of the river, just south of the city park. It was still there on Tuesday morning and officials had it towed to a garage. It was a new Buick and had only 3,000 miles on the speedometer. It is believed that this is the car in which the robbers came to O'Neill in. They visited this car on their way out of town and took a spare tire, which was the same size as the tires on the car they had stolen. Wednesday officials discovered that this car was stolen in Ogden, Utah, the forepart of last week and then left the car here and made their get-away in the new car. The loss to both firms is covered by insurance.

The eighth graders are all busy reviewing for the eighth grade examinations which will be given, April 25.

OF all kinds of hunger there is none like money hunger. Physical starvation may be the result of financial improvidence.
