

U. S. Seizes Nazi Sailors

In another direct anti-Nazi move, government agents rounded up more than 160 stranded Nazi seamen for shipment to American "concentration camp or camps." This soundphoto shows some of those seized boarding a cutter at New York, en route to Ellis Island for detention.

Speaks in Chicago

Lord Halifax, British ambassador to the U. S., shown as he delivered his speech in behalf of American aid to Britain, in Chicago. He declared "war's end must bring a system by which all men will find opportunity to build the foundations of a good and decent life."

More Power for the R.A.F.

The largest fleet of light planes ever seen in New York was christened on behalf of the R.A.F. benevolent fund, and will make a barnstorming tour of the country to raise funds for the families of England's air defenders. The fleet was inspected by these models. Inset: A Canadian woman working in a De Havilland aircraft factory at Ottawa, Canada. In Canada, women are taking the place of men in industry.

The Gettysburg Address Available for Framing

THE world will little note, nor long remember what we say here . . . Those were modest words Lincoln spoke at Gettysburg—and they proved wrong. For Americans do remember, still live for the ideal he expressed that day.

The Gettysburg address, in Lincoln's handwriting, is one of our new set, "Three Great American Documents." Others are the Bill of Rights and the original Star Spangled Banner. In Francis Scott Key's handwriting. All are handsomely printed, full size, in sepia on cream giving the histories of the documents. For the set, send your order to:
