

EMMET ITEMS

M. and Mrs. Dean Beckwith and small son, Gary Dean came home from Montana Friday. They are staying at the Fred Beckwith home. On the return trip they visited for a short time with Dean's sister and family at Scottsbluff, Nebraska.

Jack Troshinski, who has been ill in the Stuart hospital, is much better.

Mrs. John Lowery was hostess to the Ladies Aid on Wednesday afternoon.

Jerry Tomjack came back to Emmet Sunday. Jerry spent the Christmas vacation with relatives in Ewing.

Ben Bachman is having a sale on the 15th of February. Ben expects to go to Omaha and the girls will finish school there.

Zane Cole returned to Lincoln Sunday to resume his studies.

Miss Dorothy Fox left Monday morning by bus for St. Paul, Nebraska, where she is attending school.

Miss Jo Ann Burgess of O'Neill spent Saturday visiting Lois Cole.

The Guy Cole family entertained on Thursday to celebrate the New Year and in honor of Grandma Cole's eighty-ninth birthday. In spite of the bad weather all the guests but one arrived. There were twenty-eight present. Guests included the Pat McGuinis, the John Conard family, Esther Harris and children of O'Neill, the Pete Brion family of Ewing, Mrs. John Anspach, Shirley Bates, J. B. Ryan and Patsy Kruse of O'Neill and M. B. Hoffman of Elgin.

On New Year day Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cole received a letter from "Scotty," Harry Wark. As so many Emmet folks and O'Neill folks know him the letter has been given to us to publish Harry or "Scotty" as every one knows him has been in the Army since the start of hostilities in 1939. He is now a captain in the British forces. His letter follows:

HOME PARK,
ABERDOR, N. B.
SCOTLAND.
9th December 1941.

Dear Guy and Ethel:
It's a couple of weeks since I got your letter of 16th October and haven't answered it so far, as I was waiting to hear from Mary that she had got the Silk Stockings. Up until four days ago they had not arrived, so I guess you're right about the Censor having some Girl friends who also require Silk Stockings. Anyway I feel I must write now and commiserate with you Friends, now up to the neck in the Shooting War with those little yellow B...s. I've had a lot of experience of them in business, and believe me they are the biggest lot of two-faced Twisters unhung. There's only one consolation I can find, and that is that everything that I've ever seen them produce for commercial competition is absolutely pure rubbish. They cut us out right and left with this cheap junk, but the customers soon found out the worth of it and came back for something substantial in the long run. Well now, I'm hoping that there Battleship, Equipment, etc., are on a similar scale—just cheap rubbish. I've certainly heard it said that their Aeroplanes are only good for about one good trip here's hoping anyway. Now you Boys get your sleeves rolled up and between us we'll lay that "YELLOW PERIL" Boey for good and all.

In your letter you forecast that Hitler will be in Moscow before I receive it. At the moment of writing there's no signs, and he's on the run from Tananogrod in the South. Actually its rather miraculous because for some odd reason Winter in Europe has not really arrived. We've had a few little Frosts you know, but real winter has held off. Its bound to come, and after having tasted five and ten below in Nebraska once or twice, there's no man on Earth going to convince me that Germans or anyone else can handle Iron Tanks and hold Steel Machine Guns, etc., when ZERO weather is around. I remember the Spring of 1940 in France we had a ten day cold snap when Weather was about Zero. I was in an old Stable with no doors and windows and eight other Chaps. We pooled all our Blankets and just slept in a heap, and I'm telling you if any enemy had come along with a machine gun, I, for one would have told him to go ahead and for God's sake be quick about it.

Fighting in the Pacific (what a name for that Cauldron!) won't be so unpleasant from that as pect, but I suppose the old Enemies Tyhold, Typhus etc., will lend a hand to the Grisly business. By the way, all this kind of Canned Grub from the States is mighty welcome, but maybe now it won't be so plentiful. I got a tin of "SPAN" the other day, and also MOR, put up by Hornels of someplace in Minnesota. By jove it was lovely. You see there was a time here when things were pretty bleak, and there was a joke going around that there were three kinds of Bread—Black Bread—kinds of Bread—Black Bread—Brown Bread—and Sausage. Well, there was a lot of truth in that and you've no idea how good your Tins of Pork Sausage Meat Taste. We're rationed of course still, but there's plenty Grub to go around now; in any case I was getting a bit of a "Kite" on me and that's all gone now.

By Jove, you make me envious when you talk about Hunting for Ducks and Pheasants. One of these days I hope I'll get a crack at that game again. I ought to be a better shot by this time! Certainly Guy can have nothing on his conscience when he goes out to shoot Pheasants, because I remember very well, in 1924 I think it was, he was instrumental through the Izaak Walton League in getting the first Chinese Pheasants released in Holt County. Poor old Ward Cosgrove was a great enthusiast too; extraordinary great enthusiast too; extraordinary how he chuckled away the chance to enjoy the Hunting of them.

Fine I remember Hammy Allen, and sorry to hear he was ill. He's had a good Innings anyway, and I mind how he always was yarning about his Trotting Horses. For years I had to go to the Races when traveling around the World on business—really just to "Show my Face", but I always thought of Hammy then. Never forget Dugal for buying my fine Saddle off me for $15.00 one time when I had been hitting up the Moonshine.

Now that I have Tweedales address I am writing as the Canadians get moved about the Country quite a lot and we might be close together. We never could be very far apart in this Country, as you know. Your Zane must be 19 past now, and I do hope you will manage to keep him out of this War game. Its no good for anyone's peace of mind either now or in the future. Just look at the restless wandering life I've had over the last War! Of course, there are compensations; for instance, I should never have met you if I hadn't gone to the "Great War"—I wonder what they will call this one?

Please write again.
Your Sincere Friend,
Harry Wark
