Lois Hoffman Presents Pet Bantam To Red Cross

Lois Hoffman, daughter of the John Hoffmans, brought her pet bantam rooster to the weekly livestock auction last Monday afternoon where he was sold and resold many times to the crowd assembled there. Miss Lois is contributing the entire receipts, $24.00 to the Red Cross Chapter as her bit toward increasing the funds of that worthy organization. This is a highly commendable gesture on Lois' part and is a shining example of juvenile generosity and patriotism and shows the true spirit of American youth. We wish to thank Lois, publicly, for her worthy contribution to the National cause.

Following are the contributions received at the local livestock auction last Monday:
