Livestock Market Has Firm Undertone

Stronger prices prevailed at the local livestock auction last Monday and a fairly good supply found ready outlet. The general market undertone looked firm and the demand continues brisk on all classes.

Lightweight steer calves of good quality reached upwards to $13.10. Bulk of the supply placed from $12.00 to $12.75. Heifer calves topped at $11.50 with $10.25 to $11.25 catching the long end of the offering.

Yearling steers sold mostly from $9.50 to $10.35. Heifers in this class paid from $9.00 to $10.25.

Not many 2 year old steers were on hand but $10.00 to $10.25 was the price paid for those that were here.

The cow market showed considerable strength and generally speaking, the quality of the offering was good. Fat Cows reached $8.50 on the best kind with $7.00 to $8.00 claiming the bulk of the supply. Bulls, likewise, sold at stronger prices and the bulk cashed at $8.50 to $9.25.

Hog receipts were heavy and prices ruled stronger. Choice of light butchers paid an extreme top of $11.10. The nominal price ranged from $10.90 to $11.00. Sows sold from $9.60 to $10.10 with quality and weight a price controlling factor. Feeder hogs paid from $11.25 to $13.00. A large supply of young pigs sold by the head at strong prices.

A few sheep and horses completed the regular auction. Again, the local livestock auction extended its facilities in an endeavor to help swell the American Red Cross funds to higher levels for Holt County. A hand made quilt, made by a group of local ladies, was sold and resold at the weekly auction, the receipts of which are to be given to the local Red Cross. The story and list of contributions will be found elsewhere in this issue.

SEED LIST BEING MADE

Every farmer in Holt County received an inquiry this week to determine the available supply of seed for spring planting as well as his needs along this line.

As soon as the results of this survey are returned to the county agent's office in O'Neill, a county seed list will be compiled. This seed list will not handle any seed, but the list will be made available to those interested in buying or selling seed. For protection of both buyer and seller, a free purity and germination test can be obtained from this office to comply with the state law.

All young men 17-25, and not in school, interested in registering for the Mechanics Course offered by the O'Neill High School under the defense program must attend the first meeting which will be held Monday, February 2, at 8:00 P. M. at O'Neill High School.

County Agent Victory Program For 1942

Plans for the county agent's office in O'Neill are being revised for 1942, wherever necessary to fit the new statewide educational program. A five point program was adopted at the recent meeting of the Agricultural Extension Service in Lincoln.

Plans for the coming year are intended to help farm people in Holt County meet the impact of the war during 1942. Production of the greatest quantity of high quality food in the nation's history is the main job which farm people face. Meeting this production with a shortage of farm labor and less machinery and labor saving devices is going to require the best management and methods of production to be employed.

An all-out "Nebraska Victory Home and Garden Program" is one point to be stressed. All the Experimental data at the Nebraska Experiment Station will be brought to farm and town people alike, and new varieties of vegetables will be encouraged. In making plans for more and better gardens, county agent Lyndle Stout will work closely with the county United States Department of Agriculture War Board and other organizations, to reach the greatest number of people.

The state-wide Pasture-Forage-Livestock program will be revised to meet the need of the situation. An effort will be made to assist any farmer before planting so that the county may be sure of meeting its production goals. An extension campaign for immediate repair of machinery to relieve repair shortage is now being carried on.

Closely tied in with the raising of gardens will be the aim of better nutrition for the family in the county. Information on healthful eating habits will be made available through women's project clubs, 4-H home economics clubs, demonstration circulars and other means.

The 4-H program will seek a greater enrollment than ever as recently announced. Victory pin and seal awards will encourage clubs and members to enroll new members. More emphasis will be placed on production of more food and better citizenship as the rural boys and girls take up their part in the Food for Victory Campaign.

The educational part of the Food for Victory campaign is going to require the full time of every farmer as well as every cooperating organization in order that the United States may not be short of food in this war.
