

First Meeting of War Labor Board

First meeting of the new National War Labor board. Among the members attending (seated, left to right): vice chairman, George W. Taylor; Chairman William H. Davis, chairman of national defense mediation board, and Frank P. Graham. Standing, left to right: E. J. McMillam; Matthew Woll; Walter C. Teagle; A. W. Hawkes; Roger D. Lapham; George Meany; Thomas Kennedy and R. J. Thomas.

Eyes of Navy Look Down on a 'Ward'

The tanker far below (shown in picture at left) can feel somewhat safer now. It is under the watchful eye of the navy blimp squadron, an important adjunct of the U. S. navy which patrols the Atlantic from dawn to dusk. Right: the interior of Uncle Sam's blimp roost on the Atlantic seaboard, with patrol blimps seemingly lording it over the smaller training ships. The blimp squadron carries bombs and some machine guns.

Both Have Hearts in Right Place

Maj. Bernie Bierman of the U. S. marines (left) who has generated several Minnesota teams to football titles, is shown here ready to join the Leathernecks at Quantico, Va. Right: Because the navy already has a Thomas Hart, and also because this Thomas Hart of Reading, Pa., is only 10, he will have to wait until Admiral Hart retires.

Largest Mobile Gun Starts East

The giant 240-millimeter portable howitzer built in a Milwaukee factory is shown as it was being prepared for its trip east to the ordnance proving grounds at Aberdeen, Md. The howitzer is the largest fully mobile gun ever built.

Brings Cheer

His Biggest Bout

Private Joe Louis puts on his army brogans at Camp Upton, L. I., as he begins army life routine. The champ entered the army day after he pinned back ears of Buddy Baer.

Resolve to Punish Axis Criminals

View of the scene in the conference chamber in London when representatives of nine Allied nations whose territories have been occupied by the Axis met to adopt and sign a resolution calling for punishment of Axis criminals after the war. Left to right, at the far side of the table, are China's Wang King; Anthony Biddle, U. S. ambassador to governments-in-exile; and British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden. There is no identification for the other conferees.

Meet for Hemisphere Solidarity

Foreign minister Oswaldo Aranha, of Brazil, president of the hemisphere conference at Rio de Janeiro, sits at the head of the table, right, during preliminary session at the foreign office of Brazil. In gray suit is Sumner Welles, head of the U. S. delegation. Next to Welles, holding his glasses, is Rorizquez-Alves, secretary of the conference.

They Felt 'Rattlesnake's' Sting

Crew members of the U. S. tanker Malay, shelled and torpedoed off North Carolina coast by a U-boat, stand around a hole in the deck caused by the only torpedo loosed by the attacker. Photo was made after the Malay limped into Norfolk, Va. Second Cook Adams Hay suffered fatal burns. Four others of crew of 33 were lost.

Blow, Blow, Thou Winter Wind

With the new winter combat clothing issued by the quartermaster corps, these boys of the fourth armored division are ready for really cold weather. Their new duds include wool-lined combat helmet, alpaca-lined parka, olive drab all-wool mufflers and gloves, and wool-lined jacket and trousers. The boys here are riding a "Jeep."

Rubber—Goodspeed

From the alkaline deserts of the West, America can harvest half a billion pounds of natural rubber to offset the Jap grab at Indies, claims Dr. T. Harper Goodspeed, University of California scientist. He is shown here with "rabbit bush," the new rubber plant, which may reach life-saving status in this war.

Goes to Bat for U. S.

William L. Batt, chairman of the new requirements committee created by Donald Nelson, war production czar, to allocate raw materials for war and civilian defense.

Talks for Indies

Lieut. Gov. Gen. Hubertus Van Mook of Netherlands East Indies, shown at Netherlands club, New York. He described the Netherlands East Indies as a barrier to Axis aspirations in the Pacific, and called them a bridge for the Allied forces between Australia and India. He said their loss would lessen the United Nations' chances of winning the war.
