

Hawaiian Air Patrol Hunts for Enemy Targets

In the early dawn Lieut. John Henry leads his crew to the big bomber, loaded and primed for a long reconnaissance flight. They are part of the Hawaiian air force which is guarding Uncle Sam's mid-Pacific bastion. Lower left: A U. S. bombardier sits with an affectionate hand on the world-famous American bomb sight as he scans the Pacific during a routine flight. Upper right: Gunners of the Hawaiian air patrol watch sky and sea for a possible enemy attacking force.

Triple Wreck Near Horseshoe Curve

Shown here are two of three Pennsylvania Railroad company locomotives which were derailed in a spectacular wreck near the famous horseshoe curve at Altoona, Penn. Two coupled engines which were traveling down the mountain sideslipped an engine pulling a freight train in the same direction. All three engines were derailed, and the locomotive which was pulling the freight rolled down the embankment.

Jap Roundup

INDIGESTION

It does not harm the heart, but it can make one mighty uncomfortable. If gas seems to distend stomach, causing that embarrassing "gurging" and "crowding," try ADLA Tablets. They contain Bismuth and Carbonates for QUICK relief. Druggists have ADLA Tablets.

Equal Graces
Common sense and a respect for realities are not less graces of the spirit than more zeal.

Relief At Last For Your Cough

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

BEACONS of SAFETY

Like a beacon light on the height—the advertisements in newspapers direct you to newer, better and easier ways of providing the things needed or desired. It shines, this beacon of newspaper advertising—and it will be to your advantage to follow it whenever you make a purchase.

After Axis Subs Attacked Isle of Aruba

Above you see a torpedo fired by an Axis sub off the island of Aruba. It missed its target and ran aground. Later the 18-foot missile exploded, killing four Dutchmen who were attempting to dismantle it. Inset: Lieut. Col. William Ratten, of the U. S. army, climbs a ladder to inspect a 4 by 6-inch dent in an oil tank on the island of Aruba following the torpedo and shelling attack of Axis subs.

First Ration Cards Come Off Press

John J. Deviny, acting public printer, and Leon Henderson, price administrator (right), examine the first sheet of ration cards leaving the presses at the government printing office in Washington. The printing of war ration books No. 1 is the biggest government printing job in history. The books, if stacked, would form a tower 15 miles high.

Bad Luck for Axis

The submarine Albacore slides down the ways at yards of Electric Boat company, Groton, Conn. It was sponsored by the wife of Capt. E. F. Cutts, commander of sub base in New London, Conn.

Once Banana Train—Now Troop Train

Winding through the dense jungle of the Canal Zone with banana trees lining its route, this auto-car engine and flat cars were used during peace-time to haul bananas to market. Now troops and supplies are shuttled back and forth to outposts within hiking distance from its rails. This is the semi-weekly train arriving at intersection with a trail leading to anti-aircraft position defending the canal.

Learn Smoke Eating

Members of American Legion post launch first actual training of civilian defense auxiliary fire department at the Chicago fire department's training school. Here class members learn how to handle a hose line while on a ladder. Defense officials hope to train 15,000 new smoke eaters in Chicago.

Cavalry Still Potent Military Factor

It was thought for awhile the horse in war was a back number. The U. S. army never acknowledged that theory, and events in Russia, where Cossack cavalry continued to counter-attack when snow and intense cold immobilized tanks, seem to indicate that cavalry is still to be reckoned with. Above you see part of a cavalryman's training at Fort Riley, Kan., "West Point" of the cavalry area. Lieut. Col. George Caldwell is instructing student officers in the external regions of the horse.

Neptune Cuts Up

Too bad old Cobble sea has to cut up and make tough going for this Canadian destroyer during a convoy run across the North Atlantic. The sailor is making fast one of the "ashcans" kept in readiness for action against submarines. Astern you can see one of the huge waves that battered the ship.

Bomber Crew Commended for Sinking Sub

This soundphoto, taken at Governors' Island, N. Y., shows superior officers commending army bomber crew which attacked and probably sank a German submarine off the Atlantic coast. Letters of commendation were given the crew, the oldest of whom is 26. Officers are, 1. to r., Brig. Gen. A. Krogstad, Rear Adm. A. Andress, and Lieut. Gen. Hugh Drum.

Prisoners of Red Army in Russia

This picture, just received from London, shows a group of dejected German prisoners being marched to the rear of a village which had just been recaptured by the valiant Red army of Russia, as they drove Adolf Hitler's legions back the way they came. The picture was taken somewhere on the Soviet front.

One-Man Army
