A Farmers Wife
Expresses Her Views

In your last issue you printed an article about Selective Service draft boards asking advice. Well here's mine.

It's true the farmers of Holt County and other counties too, I suppose, need every one of their boys if they are to increase production and especially without new machinery and a minimum of repairs. We also know we must keep increasing our armed forces.

Why not induct into the army all men on relief, W. P. A., P. W. A. etc. That would not only put them where they could earn their keep but cut down government expenses as well. They could not be hired as farm labor for love nor money and would be no good there if they could. In the Army they could not quit and go home the first time a job turned up that did not suit their fancy.

No doubt a lot of them would not pass physical tests but after a month's work in training they probably would.

Will you please see what can be done about this? Farmers need their skilled labor just as much as any other branch of this great, "Out For Victory," program.

Respectfully Yours,
A Farmers Wife.

Livestock Prices Continue Firm At Local Market

Last Monday's limited receipts of livestock at the local auction moved readily at fully steady to strong prices. Continued heavy road conditions tended to hold volume of supplies to a minimum. However, the general market undertone was firm and the demand was active on all classes.

The best steer calves paid up to $14.00 with $12.50 to $13.50 claiming the long end. Heifer calves reached as high as $12.00 with the bulk selling from $11.00 to $11.75.

Not many yearlings showed up. The quotable price on these was $11.00 to $11.50.

In the cow division prices held about steady with last week on the few that were here. Bulls, likewise, were steady, with a week ago.

Hogs prices followed the current upward spurt and the long end of the butchers supplies rang up $13.50. This is the highest price ever paid for butcher hogs on this market. Sows reached a top of $13.15 which is another record price here. Too few feeder pigs were on hand to warrant price quotations.

Next Auction, Monday, April 6.
