Dr. Tipton Again Wins Golf Championship

The twenty-first annual golf tournament of the O'Neill Country Club held the first of the week, with qualifying rounds on Sunday and the play offs on Monday and Tuesday. On account of present conditions there was not as large a crowd present as usual, but the members of the Club feel that the tournament was a big success.

Max Golden, 1941 champion, was the medalist of the meet, and the boys all figured they had Max to beat if they wanted to cop the championship, and they were right. Max went on to the semi-finals when he was put out by Dr. Tipton, from whom he won the title last year; but the O'Neill boy did not give up without a struggle for it took 22 holes before the Omaha man was able to cop the match and get into the championship flight.

In the finals he was pitted against Scoville Jaskowski, who had won the right to play for the championship by defeating Pug Horn, of Ainsworth, in the semi-finals. Dr. Tipton defeated "Scoville" and for the second time in three years he is again the champion of the O'Neill Country Club.

In the consolation flight Ed Casey won the title by default, as his opponent failed to appear for the play off.

The second flight was won by M. H. Luth, defeating Dr. Green 2 up. The second flight was composed of some very classy players and the matches were good ones.

The third flight was won by Dr. Fisher and the third flight consolation by Rev. V. C. Wright.

The ladies of the Country Club entertained the visiting ladies with bridge parties at the Club on Sunday and Monday afternoons. Sunday there were nine tables and Mrs. R. J. Rakowski was high among the O'Neill ladies. For the out of town ladies, Mrs. W. H. Fowler, of Omaha, won high honors. For O'Neill ladies Mrs. A. L. Wilcox won low prize and for the out of town ladies Mrs. J. A. Frenking, Mrs. Robert Rasgorshchek, of Omaha, won the door prize.

The following musical program was rendered at the Club house during the afternoon: Vocal Trio, Patti Keiser, Nancy Froelich and Helen Kubitschek. Saxophone Trio, Jimmy Merriam, Lou Birmingham and Patricia O'Donnell.

Cornet Trio, Ed Campbell, Betty Gallagher and Beverly McCarthy.

Miss Joan Frenking, of Omaha, rendered several splendid vocal selections.

At the bridge game Monday afternoon Mrs. F. J. Dishner won high score for O'Neill ladies; Mrs. W. H. Fowler again won high score for out of town ladies; Mrs. H. J. Lohaus low for town ladies and Mrs. A. L. Wilcox won the door prize. The following musical program was rendered Monday afternoon:

Mrs. Margaret M. Hunter

Mrs. Margaret M. Hunter died at her home in this city Saturday evening at 9:45 o'clock, after an illness of several years of Diabetes, at the advanced age of 84 years, five months and twenty-seven days. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the Presbyterian church, and burial in the cemetery at Mineola at the side of her husband and children who have preceded her.

Margaret May McCormick was born in Cedar county, Iowa, on December 23, 1857. She grew to womanhood there and on February 17, 1881, she was united in marriage to Joseph M. Hunter, the ceremony being performed in her native county. They lived in Cedar county, Iowa, until 1884, when they came to Holt county and Mr. Hunter took a homestead northeast of O'Neill in the Mineola country. They were residents of that section of the county until 1914 when they moved to this city, and this had been her home ever since.

Mrs. Hunter was the mother of five children, three sons and two daughters, one son and daughter surviving. They are William M. Hunter, North Bend, Oregon, and Mrs. Cleda H. Brady of Calgary, Alberta, Canada. Mrs. Brady has been here the past three or four months and her son, William, is expected to arrive here Thursday morning for the funeral.

Mrs. Hunter was a charming woman and had a host of friends in this city and county, being especially well known in the eastern half of the county. Her husband passed away in June, 1926, and for several years Mrs. Hunter made her home with her son and his wife near Star part of the time until her son's death in December, 1939, since which time Mrs. Hunter and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Carrie Hunter, moved into her residence in this city, where she lived up to the time of her death.

For fifty-eight years she had been a resident of this county and went through all the hardships of the early-day pioneers. Through Indian scares, the big blizzard of 1888 and the droughts of the nineties and of 1903-6, but always had faith in the ultimate prosperity of this section of the country, where she had lived for so many years. Her passing adds another to the long roll of old timers who have passed away during the past ten years, and Mrs. Hunter and her late husband were among those who assisted a great deal in the building of this vast empire of ours.

William E. Gaffney

William E. Gaffney died last Sunday morning at the home of a neighbor, Patrick Corrigan, near Emmet, as the result of a heart attack at the age of 56 years, six months and twenty days. The funeral was held last Tuesday morning from St. Patrick's church in this city, Rev. J. J. O'Brien officiating, and burial in Calvary cemetery.

William Gaffney was born near Emmet on the first day of December, 1884, and had been a resident of the county all his life. He never married and with his brother, Thomas, also a bachelor, lived on a farm about three miles west and one south of Emmet.

For several years he had been afflicted with heart trouble, which was aided by an inward goitre. Last Saturday evening he went to Corrigan's and spent the night there. He was taken sick during the night and Dr. McKee of Atkinson was called, but he passed away early in the forenoon. He is survived by three brothers and six sisters. They are: Bert and Thomas of Emmet; John, Denver, Colo.; Mrs. Mary A. Grady, Denver; Mrs. Bessie Rotherham, Inman; Mrs. Anna Fickle, Craig, Colo.; Mrs. Nellie Galligan, Denver; Mrs. Rose Cain, Denver; Mrs. Genevieve Flood, O'Neill.

William was a genial and companionable man and, while he had been in poor health for several years, he was always trying to do something to keep his end up. He had a host of friends in the western part of the county, where he was well known, and his many friends, while they knew his health had been poor, were shocked to learn of his sudden death.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy shown during our recent bereavement in the loss of our beloved brother.—The Gaffney Family.

So if your tires are good, we will be looking for you, to say a personal "Thanks a heap," for all you have done for us during the past year and in our tragic loss. We start at 4 p. m.

Heavy Run Of Livestock, Prices Steady To Strong

Receipts of livestock were increased considerably at the local livestock auction last Monday. Prices ruled fully steady to strong and the market undertone was firm. The best steer calves cashed at $13.50, but the bulk of supplies sold from $12 to $13. Heifers paid upwards to $12.

Yearling steers reached $11.90 for the lighter weights. The long end in this class moved mostly at $10.50 to $11.50, with the bulk ranging in price from $11.00 to $11.25.

Cow receipts were heavier than in recent weeks and the prices looked stronger. Beef cows topped at $9.25 with $8 to $9 claiming the bulk of the offering. Plainer grades paid from $7 to $8. Heifers reached $10.30 on a few choice ones. Bulls were in heavier supply and paid an extreme top of 55 cents for 1500 pound weights. Others sold from $9.75 to $10.40.

Between 600 and 700 hogs were on sale here. Fancy butchers topped at $13.70. Bulk of supplies sold at $13.50 to $13.65. Sows topped at $13.40, with the long end cashing at $13.25 to $13.35. A small band of sheep and a few horses completed the auction supplies. Next sale on Monday, June 29th.</
