

U. S. Coast Guards Get in Trim

Dig 'em in deep, boys, heave-ho, so you'll be able to give the Axis what they've got coming. The "boys" are coast guards at their new camp near Battle Creek, Mich., the first of its kind in the Midwest, and the pictures were taken as thousands went into training there. In photo at the right the coastguardsmen go through a night drill in their breeches buoy. They are training for any kind of warfare.

Welcoming Committee for Japs

In the photo at the left Australian and U. S. fighting men are shown resting near bombers at a United Nations bomber base somewhere in New Guinea. From bases in the Pacific, United Nations fliers are constantly harassing Jap shipping, as well as bombing Jap bases on the many tiny scattered islands. Inset: "Just give us some trespassers" is the prayer of these gunners of the U. S. Caribbean command, who maintain ceaseless watch over that area, so vital to the safety of the Panama canal.

Inside World's Largest Air Transport

This picture, retouched by order of the war department, is the first of its kind ever published, and shows how fully equipped U. S. infantrymen occupy specially designed seats alongside mobile equipment in the new Curtiss Commando (C-46) military transport, world's largest twin-engine airliner. Unrevealed numbers of jeeps and troops can be carried in this plane.

Middies Learn How to Handle Big Ones

Midshipmen of the reserve officers training corps, USN, are shown at gunnery practice aboard a navy battlewagon on a training cruise. The middle with the earphones and speaker is receiving aiming data. The man at the breech shouts the number of the shell loaded, the man at the angle and scale controls says "ready," and the man at the range control yells "Fire."

'Diamond King'

Werner Von Clemm, relative by marriage to German foreign minister Von Ribbentrop, shown in federal court, New York, as he went on trial on charges of conspiring with Nazis to flood this country with diamonds seized in low countries.

Old Settler

"When I drove those Injuns out of Oklahoma I really got thirsty," says William Corius, 84, National Indian war vet, shown while at the Old Settlers' picnic in Chicago. His thirst seems still to be with him.

Unwelcome Visitors for Herr Rommel

The new M-4 tanks, built at Hammond, Ind., and said to be the most formidable tanks in the world, are shown lined up on flat cars inside the plant awaiting final inspection. This huge tank carries a 75-mm. cannon on a revolving turret which enables the gunner to swing in a complete circle. Just to look at them is most reassuring.

Tea for Three—Dregs for Germany

With all the talk of bombing Germany out of the war, this meeting of the U. S. and British bomber chiefs in London is significant. Shown having tea are (left to right): Brig. Gen. Ira C. Eaker, bomber chief U. S. air force in Britain; Gen. Carl Spaatz, commander U. S. air forces in Britain; and A. T. Harris, chief of Britain's bomber command.

Queen Mother at 'Ack Ack' Station

Dowager Queen Mary, mother of the reigning King George of England, is shown watching a gunner operate his heavy anti-aircraft gun at a post in the British capital. These "ack-ack" crews drill every day to keep hand and eye in tune for action, in case a Stuka or a Messerschmidt should venture within range.

Nazis Conscript Polish Laborers

This photo, released in London, shows a party of Polish labor conscripts being drilled by a German officer. The men have been put into uniform and are now subject to German military law. They are forced to build military establishments, such as aerodromes, roads, railways and supply depots.

Convicted by U. S.

William Dudley Pelley, 52, former leader of the Silver Shirts of America, who was convicted by a federal court at Indianapolis, Ind., on 11 counts of criminal sedition and conspiracy. The Fellowship Press, Inc., Pelley's publishing house, was also convicted.

'Victory Queen'

Dorese Bell, 20, who was crowned United Nations "Victory Queen" at Philadelphia. She was selected for leadership in war fund activities by members of United Nations Victory Girls, a group of government, business and school girls from 36 states.

Hole in One

Here is Sam Snead, P.G.A. champion, who has just completed five weeks of training at the naval training station at Norfolk, Va. He will be assigned to duty as a physical instructor. Sam is demonstrating bayonet technique here.

Dressed to Kill

On maneuvers in North Carolina, Lieut. Col. Frank Murphy, who has taken a holiday from the bench of the supreme court of the United States "for the duration," is shown in his tankman's uniform, "armed to the teeth."

When Your Back Hurts

And Your Strength and Energy Is Below Par

It may be caused by disorder of kidney function that permits poisonous waste to accumulate. For truly many people feel tired, weak and miserable when the kidneys fail to remove excess acids and other waste matter from the blood. You may suffer nagging backache, rheumatic pains, headaches, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling. Sometimes frequent and scanty urination with smarting and burning is another sign that something is wrong with the kidneys or bladder. There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. It is better to rely on a medicine that has won countrywide approval than on something less favorably known. Doan's have been tried and tested many years. Are at all drug stores. Get Doan's today.

"All the Traffic Would Bear"

There was a time in America when there were no set prices. Each merchant charged what he thought "the traffic would bear." Advertising came to the rescue of the consumer. It led the way to the established prices you pay when you buy anything today.
