Natives of India Turn Out to Fight Foe

In the Punjab region of India recruiting officers have no trouble in getting volunteers to fight against Hitler and Hirohito. As the war comes closer to India young men from far-flung districts are turning out to fight the common foe. In the recruiting center shown at the left the doctor, an Indian, vaccinates each recruit on the point of his left shoulder. Right: An Indian officer (captain) gives each recruit a small advance of pay on enrollment.

What's Cooking? Victory Vegetables!

These pictures, just released by the army air forces, show the first of the new 15-place troop-carrying gliders, the CG-4A, now in quantity production. The glider can carry 15 fully equipped men, including pilot and co-pilot. It has a wing span of 83 feet, 8 inches, and a length of 48 feet, 3 inches. At the top we get a good idea of the glider's size by comparing it with the size of the men. Below is an interior view showing pilot and co-pilot at the controls.

Gen. Charles De Gaulle, leader o the Free "Fighting" French, is shown decorating Colonel Amilakvari with the Croix de le Liberation, new Fighting French decoration, for acts of outstanding gallantry during the battle of Bir Hacheim, in Lybia. The colonel is commanding officer of the Legion Etrangere.

General Wainwright (?) in Jap Prison Camp

This radiophoto, sent by radio from Lisbon to London to New York, s captioned as reputedly showing American officers captured by the Japanese in a prison camp. Maj. Gen. Jonathan M. When you hear a Marine called "Leatherneck," it has nothing to do with the epidermis of his neck. Years ago the Marine uniform was equipped with a high stiff leather collar supposed to give a more military carriage. From that time on, "Leatharneck" has been the word for a Marine. The word for his favorite cigarette is "Camel"—the favor-ite cigarette also of men in the Army, Navy, and Coast Guard. (Based on actual sales records from service men's stores.) So if you want to make a hit with your friends or relatives in the service, send a carton of Camels. Your local dealer is featuring Camel cartons for service men.-Adv.

Bundist Arraigned Dress Rehearsal for Solomon Assault

Before the hard-hitting U. S. marines stormed the Solomon islands they went through maneuvers that shaped them for this particularly tough assignment. In picture at top a land mine hurls mud and sea water high into the air as the marines land troops and stores after establishing a bridgehead in the South Sea Islands, where U. S. forces and the Japs have been exchanging heavy counter-blows. Below: Unloading a heavy gun, part of the equipment of a landing party in the South Sea islands.

'General' Coxey Leads New Army

Hans Diebel is shown entering a U. S. marshal's car in New York. Diebel, leader of the German-American bund in Los Angeles, pleaded not guilty to an indictment accusing him and 28 others of conspiring to have bund members evade the alien registration act of 1940. He is also charged with attempting to evade the selective service act.

Ready for Enemy in Caribbean Area

This gun crew is alertly guarding a fighter command base in the Caribbean area. Note the man behind the trigger of the gun with the ear phones-he gets telephonic instructions from the control officer who identifies oncoming aircraft. Facing the camera are Privates Hector McNeil of Raeford, N. C., and William F. Poe of Valdese, N. C.

Navy Diver's Boat in Salvage Operation

Ensconced in a horse-drawn buggy, "General" Jacob S. Coxey, who once led an army of the hungry to Washington, is shown leading a small army of war workers in Massillon, Ohio, during the tribute paid to Massillon war industry by the army and navy. High officials of the war and navy departments and heroes of the army and navy participated in the "salute to Massillon."

Two ensigns work out a problem in navigation while flying one of the naval patrol bombers-out after U-boats-from the Banana River, Fla., naval air station. These patrol bombers are doing good work.

Navy diver's boat from Alameda naval air station, San Francisco, assists the army air force in recovering wreckage of a twin-engined army bomber which crashed in San Pablo bay. Occurring while the plane was on a routine flight, the crash took the lives of three officers and one enlisted man. On striking the water the craft burst into flames. Note charred wreckage.
