Republican Ticket

The republicans of the state and Holt county present a splendid ticket to the voters at the coming election. The State Ticket is headed by Kenneth Wherry, the republican candidate for United States senator. He is a prominent business man of Pawnee City and has had legislative experience, having represented his district in the state senate for four years. He has the ability and integrity to make a splendid United States senator and we believe that the people of the state will elevate him to that position next Tuesday.

Heading the state ticket is Governor Dwight Griswold. He is serving his first term in office; has made good and is deserving re-election on his record of the past two years. The balance of the state ticket is composed of good, tried men who are well qualified for the positions to which they aspire and they are worthy of your support.

THE COUNTY TICKET

Republicans present to the voters of the county a splendid county ticket, made up of men of experience in office and in business in this county. Taking it from top to bottom it is the strongest ticket presented to the voters of the county for several years.

Walter G. Sire has been nominated by the republicans for the office of county clerk, one of the important offices of the county. Mr. Sire is the present county assessor, having been elected to that position two years ago to fill a vacancy. He is a successful breeder of pure bred cattle and is recognized as one of the coming livestock breeders in this section of the state. He is well qualified for the position to which he aspires and we can assure the people of the county that he will make them a capable and efficient county clerk. Give him your vote.

Pete Duffy is the nominee of both parties for the office of sheriff and for the first time in a political campaign for a quarter of a century Pete can sit on the side lines and watch the other boys scrap it out.

For the office of county treasurer the republicans present J. Ed Hancock, one of the county's native sons. For the past dozen years he has been an employee in the office of the county treasurer, at the present time being chief clerk under Treasurer Winchell and is probably the most capable man for that office that ever has been a candidate for the position. Taxpayers and voters of Holt county will make no mistake in voting for Mr. Hancock for county treasurer.

Ira H. Moss is a candidate for re-election to the office of clerk of the district court. Mr. Moss is now serving in the office and is recognized by attorneys throughout the state as one of the most capable, efficient and accommodating clerks in the state. His re-election will insure to the people of the county that this office will be in capable hands during the next four years.

Julius D. Cronin is again the republican candidate for county attorney. During his service he has conducted the office in a manner that has reflected credit upon himself and the people of the county. By his diligence in looking after the county's legal affairs he has saved the taxpayers of the county thousands of dollars. The people will see that he retains the position for another term, for they know his ability and have confidence in him.

Esther Cole Harris is unopposed for the office of register of deeds, a position she has held well and capably for several years and she will receive a splendid vote at the coming election.

L. G. Gillespie is the republican nominee for county assessor and no better man could have been named for this position. He has served the citizens of O'Neill as city assessor for several terms and has given good satisfaction. He is familiar with values and the people of the county will have a number one man in that office when they select L. G. Gillespie for the office next Tuesday.

J. C. Stein is again the republican candidate for supervisor from the First District, a position that he has filled with distinction for several years. Mr. Stein is a former chairman of the board and has always been very active in looking after the interests and welfare of the people of his district as well as the entire county. From reports reaching us from that section there seems to be no question but what Mr. Stein will be re-elected again next Tuesday. He deserves it on his record.

R. E. Calvert is the republican nominee for supervisor from the Third District. Mr. Calvert is a business man of this city and has the qualifications to make a splendid member of the county board and will look after the interest of the taxpayers of the district and county.

H. W. Hubbard is the republican nominee for supervisor from the Fifth District. Mr. Hubbard is one of the pioneer settlers of the Chambers country and from what we hear from that section of the county he will be a member of the county board after the first of the year.

In the Seventh District Chairman Matousek has the field all to himself. Democrats realized they could not beat him, so decided to let him coast in once.

All these candidates are worthy citizens and are deserving of your support, if you want good government, without any expensive fancy frills.

POLITICAL EARTHQUAKE NEEDED IN THIS ELECTION

(Denver Post.)
The 1942 political campaign is a battle between democracy and bureaucracy. Your freedom as an American citizen to enjoy all the individual liberties guaranteed you in the constitution of the United States is at stake. The issue is preservation of the American constitutional form of government. That is the form of government under which every citizen is free to live his or her own life without being dictated to at every step by bureaucratic masters over whom the people have no control.

Only a political earthquake can save our constitutional system of government, restore the liberties of which our people already have been stripped, and preserve "government of the people, by the people and for the people" in these United States. Only a political upheaval, such as this country has not experienced in years, can save this republic from degenerating into a totalitarian state ruled by a bureaucratic dictatorship.

Germany is a one party country. The nazis run it, and you know how. Soviet Russia is a one party country. The communists run it, and you know how. For the last decade, the United States has been a one-party country. The democratic party has been running it. You know what has happened. The only way the political balance can be restored to stop the imposition of a total bureaucratic dictatorship upon all the American people is by registering a protest so emphatic that not even politically blind bureaucrats can ignore it.

In the past, in endeavoring to obtain the best possible administration of government, the Post has always advocated voting for the man rather than the party. In the present crisis, that policy will not suffice. Any public protest, to be effective, must be registered through a political party. The republican party is the only one available for this purpose. The bureaucrats have the democratic party hogtied and at their mercy.

It is not the individual candidate who counts in this election. The all important thing is the principle. And that principle is the preservation here in the United States of the very liberties we are fighting to save for the rest of the world, and for the millions of Americans risking their lives on global battle fronts, when they return home.

If enough of the American people vote republican in the November 3 election, they can elect a republican house and put republicans into one-third of the seats in the senate. Such a political landslide would force congress to assert its constitutional authority and use the ax on the bureaucratic underbrush which is choking out constitutional government in Washington.

There is no language Washington understands so thoroughly as the election returns. Vote the republican ticket from top to bottom on November 3, and nobody can possibly fail to hear that protest against the bureaucratic distastorship which is strangling the traditional freedoms the American people have enjoyed for the last century and a half.

(political Adv.) KNOW YOUR CONGRESSMAN

Comments and news concerning Dr. A. L. Miller, republican candidate for Congress, indicate that he will not only win but that he has the proper qualifications to represent the 4th district, state and the nation in Congress.

The 4th district is an agricultural and stockman's district. A. L. Miller was born on a farm and spent the first twenty years of his life on this Pierce county farm. He taught school and worked his way through medical college and after World War I he located in Kimball, Nebr. He now owns both dry and irrigated farms in western Nebraska. He and Mrs. Miller have visited many towns in the district. He understands the problems of the district.

A. L. Miller has been successful not only as a businessman but as a physician, a legislator and a public official. He served as the mayor of his town, on their school boards and has been active in the community and church life. He is a Mason, an Elk and a member of the Knights of Pythias Lodge. A. L. Miller served with distinction in the Unicameral Legislature for four years. He served as State Health Director until July 1, 1942. His hobby is the study of Good Government.

His home town paper makes the following comment on his qualifications:

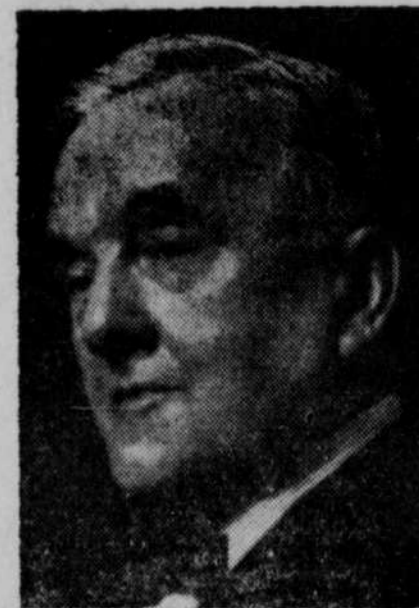

"It is most imperative that we have an honest, fearless man represent us in Washington during this national crisis, for the work which must be done requires far-sightedness, strength of character and a personal knowledge of our problems. It is for this reason we recommend Dr. A. L. Miller, who is a successful businessman, an able executive who has a personal knowledge of farm and stock problems, being an owner of both. He has a sincere interest in furthering the development of his state and of his district. He is worthy of the endorsement of the people as Congressman from the 4th District."

Forget Party Politics... Keep Norris On the Job

Wherever on earth men and women live, who hate tyranny, and believe in democracy, the name of Norris is spoken with respect and admiration.

He is America's one great Independent, who never has let the people down.

He has given Nebraska irrigation, cheap power, rural electrification expanding over the years. He has fought the farmers' battle for equality. He is needed on that job both in the problems of war and the task for permanent peace. You know his record. He has voted for what he believed to be right.

He will be a pillar in drafting the peace. He will be fair and just to all peoples — friend or enemy — with but one thought — averting future wars.

THIS IS NOT THE TIME TO SWAP EXPERIENCE for EXPERIMENT

PLEASE Don't Shoot Me

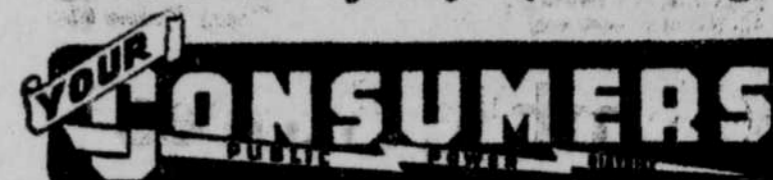

I'm Just One, Small Insignificant Little INSULATOR But I'm Important to You and to UNCLE SAM!

★ Yes, folks, this unimportant looking insulator is a vital link in the chain of electric service. The lines that connect city to city, house to house, and war plant to war plant all depend on insulators mounted on poles to keep electricity flowing smoothly, constantly without interruptions. ONE DAMAGED INSULATOR CONCEIVABLY COULD SERIOUSLY AFFECT THE SUCCESSFUL PROSECUTION OF THE WAR, to say nothing of the inconvenience and damage it might cause you and your fellow citizens by throwing entire communities out of service.

HUNTERS! Your Cooperation Sought

With the hunting season underway, insulators among other objects provide handy targets upon which to sharpen ones marksmanship. We earnestly urge you to spare the insulators atop the poles, whether the lines happen to be electric, telephone or telegraph. Every insulator now in service is doing double duty—SERVING YOU AND UNCLE SAM. We urgently solicit your cooperation.
