Our Freedom Is Priceless

By JOSEPH E. DAVIES Former Ambassador to Russia and Belgium.

(Written for the Treasury Department in connection with the Retailers' "SAY YES" campaign to complete the nation's 100,000,000 partially filed War Stamp albums.)

What I myself saw in my four years in Europe gave me a new realization of the priceless rights which we here enjoy. No secret police can in the night whisk us away, never again to be seen by those we love.

None of us can be persecuted for practicing the faith which we found at our mother's knee. None of us can be persecuted, tortured or killed because of the fact that an accident of fate might have made us of the same race as the Nazarene.

No American can be placed by any party or government in a regimented vise which takes from him or her either freedom of economic opportunity or political religious liberty.

What would the millions of unfortunate men, women and children in Europe give to be able to live and enjoy such a way of life? Well, in this war, those are the things in our lives which are in jeopardy. Our boys are dying to preserve them for us.

Then we can do no less than to "say yes" and fill those war stamp albums. It is our duty and privilege to help the secretary of the treasury, Mr. Morgenthau, in his magnificent effort to do the tremendous job of getting the money to keep our boys supplied with the weapons with which to fight our fight.

Surely that is little enough for us to do on the home front.

The O'Neill Woman's Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Seth Noble Wednesday, January 27, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. J. D. Osenbaugh will review Bess Streeter Aldrich's latest book, "The Lieutenant's Lady."

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harper, of Chicago, formerly of O'Neill, announce the birth of a daughter on January 9. He was a former manager of the American Gear Company here.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Arthur E. Dailey of Fort Smith, Ark., arrived Wednesday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Dailey, at Emmet, and relatives and friends here.

Mrs. Samuel E. Spencer arrived home on Sunday from New Orleans, La., for an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Dempsey.

Mr. and Mrs. William Eaton and Mrs. Edna Selden, of Valentine, returned to their homes Tuesday, after visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fay Miles for a few days.

HOOVER'S SALARY William Allen White in the Emporia, Kan., Gazette: "As secretary of commerce, and later as president of the United States,

Mr. Hoover put his entire salary into a special account and spent it exclusively in the public interest. He paid a special staff of necessary experts for whom no appropriation was available. He supplemented the salary of other men out of this special fund to bring them into the public service. But mostly his salary was subscribed to public charity. He did not profit personally a penny by any salary payments to himself, not even for his own living expenses or otherwise. It all went back to the public.

In 1931, when the depression hit the land, President Hoover and all members of his cabinet voluntarily took a 20% salary cut. From that time on, this 20% portion of his salary and their's was returned to the treasury. But the remainder of his salary was spent as indicated above.

Never has the white house seen a more honest, courageous, intelligent, public-spirited president than Herbert Hoover. He was a poor salesman of himself, but he had a precious package in his heart and mind.
