

Nominated to High Posts by President Roosevelt

Shown above are three men whose nominations to high posts were made by President Roosevelt. Shown at left is Wiley Rutledge, of the District of Columbia court of appeals, named to be an associate justice of the United States Supreme court, to fill vacancy caused by appointment of James F. Byrnes to the office of Economic Stabilization Director. This is the eighth appointment to the tribunal made by President Roosevelt. Center: Edward J. Flynn, retiring chairman of the Democratic committee, named for office of minister to Australia, to succeed Nelson Johnson, who is retiring from the diplomatic service. Right: Prentiss M. Brown, former Michigan senator, nominated to the office of Price Administrator to fill post made vacant by resignation of Leon Henderson. All three nominations were sent to the senate for confirmation.

Before Senate Agricultural Committee

Top ranking officials of three government agencies are shown as they appeared before the senate agricultural committee to answer charges that the army's system of draft deferment is interfering with farm production. They are, left to right, Paul V. McNutt, director of war manpower; Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, draft director, and Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard.

Jap Marine Flag

This official navy photo shows marine Private Massaro, of Edgewater, N. J., proudly exhibiting some Japanese war tools that were captured during a fierce engagement on Guadalcanal (facetiously nicknamed Death Island by the marines). Gas masks are hanging on the post behind Massaro, while he holds a flag of the Jap marines.

U. S. Soldiers, Helpers, Train for Arctic Fighting

Sub-zero weather in the white-clad mountains of Wonalancet, N. H., provides all the rigors that would be encountered on the frozen plains of Russia for men and dogs being trained by the U. S. army. Here you see (left) the army's sled dogs, trained by Milton Seeley, pulling a machine gun and its operator. In the picture at upper right the driver flourishes the whip as the dogs pull over a difficult terrain. Lower right: Under cover of a smoke screen, gas masked army gunners push their machine gun sled units forward in feigned attack.

U. S.-China Pact Signed in Washington

A treaty has been signed between the United States and China for the relinquishment of extraterritorial rights in China, and for the regulation of related matters. The treaty was signed in Secretary of State Cordell Hull's office. The Chinese ambassador, Dr. Wei Taoming, is using a brush pen. This is the first time that the language of the Chinese has been used in signing a treaty. Secretary Hull is shown at the right.

Studies Big Budget

Senate Majority Leader Alben W. Barkley takes a few minutes to study the largest budget ever sent to congress—calling for 109 billions. It will be the majority leader's problem to map plans for putting the necessary legislation through.

Nazis Take Time Out From Retreat to Eat

The crew of a German field gun have stopped their retreat long enough to partake of some much-needed food, on the Russian front. These men of the super race do not seem very happy about the fix they are in, with the Red army hot on their frozen trail. This picture was received in London from a neutral source after appearing in an Axis magazine.

Looking Up, Down

Gov. J. M. Broughton, the tall head of the North Carolina commonwealth, who is 6 feet 1 1/2 inches tall, is shown here greeting his smallest legislator in the state capital, Raleigh, N. C. The short one is Billy Arthur, successful publisher of the Onslow County News and Views, who is only 36 inches tall.

'Good' Japs in New Guinea

The remains of some "good" Japs—dead ones—are shown lying about as an Australian burial party digs graves soon after driving the Japs out of the eastern part of Gona, in New Guinea. "Just don't let anyone tell you that the Japs aren't anything but tough," said one marine correspondent. "They are very tricky fighters."

Leads Russians

One of the youngest generals in the history of the Russian Red army, Lieut. Gen. Konstantin Rokossovsky (above) is making a bid for fame by his handling of the great Don offensive against the Nazis. General Rokossovsky is in charge of the drive southwest of Tsimlyansk, with the Caucasus key city of Rostov as the ultimate goal.

Nazi Panzer Brass Hat in Tebourba

This photo, received in New York by way of neutral Portugal, shows an unnamed German panzer general and his staff swaggering through the streets of Tebourba, Tunisia. This is the town that was captured from the Allied forces by the Nazis in December.

Churchill Double

Because of his resemblance to Winston Churchill, Dudley Field Malone, noted lawyer, will enact role of the British leader in a new Hollywood film production. With Malone (right) is Manart Kippen, who will play Josef Stalin.

They Tote Their Own Groceries

Mrs. Lewis B. Hershey, wife of the general who directs the selective program, is shown (left) and Mrs. Henry Wallace, wife of the vice president of the United States, is at right. Both ladies are carrying their own packages on a shopping tour as their contribution to the "I'll Carry Mine Campaign" sponsored by the Office of Defense Transportation. The idea is to help conserve vital delivery equipment for the war effort.

Walks 145 Miles

Lieut. W. J. Dooley, U. S. A., is shown swearing in Donald B. Shaw as a member of the U. S. army at the induction center in Grand Central Palace, N. Y. Shaw, who is 22, walked from Albany to New York, 145 miles, part of the way through rain and snow, to report to his local draft board.
