

Mrs. T. R. Jr. Serves Coffee and Sinkers

Three Yankee doughboys, just returned from field duty, are served coffee and doughnuts by Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, wife of Brig. Gen. Theodore Roosevelt, in the American Red Cross club in London. She is a daughter-in-law of Former President Theodore Roosevelt. Needless to say the boys relished the handout.

Shoe-Saving Lesson

Ray Harden of New York carries a pail of water in each hand as she demonstrates the proper way to walk to equalize pressure on both shoes so that they'll both wear at an even rate. The chart she is walking upon is supposed to measure the proper length of stride. Shoes cannot be cross-switched like tires, so equalization of wear is important.

United States Army Nurses in North Africa

French Naval Chief in United States

Vice Admiral Raymond A. Fenard, chief of the French naval mission, under orders of General Giraud, is pictured during an interview in New York, shortly after his arrival in the United States.

Youngest Deputy

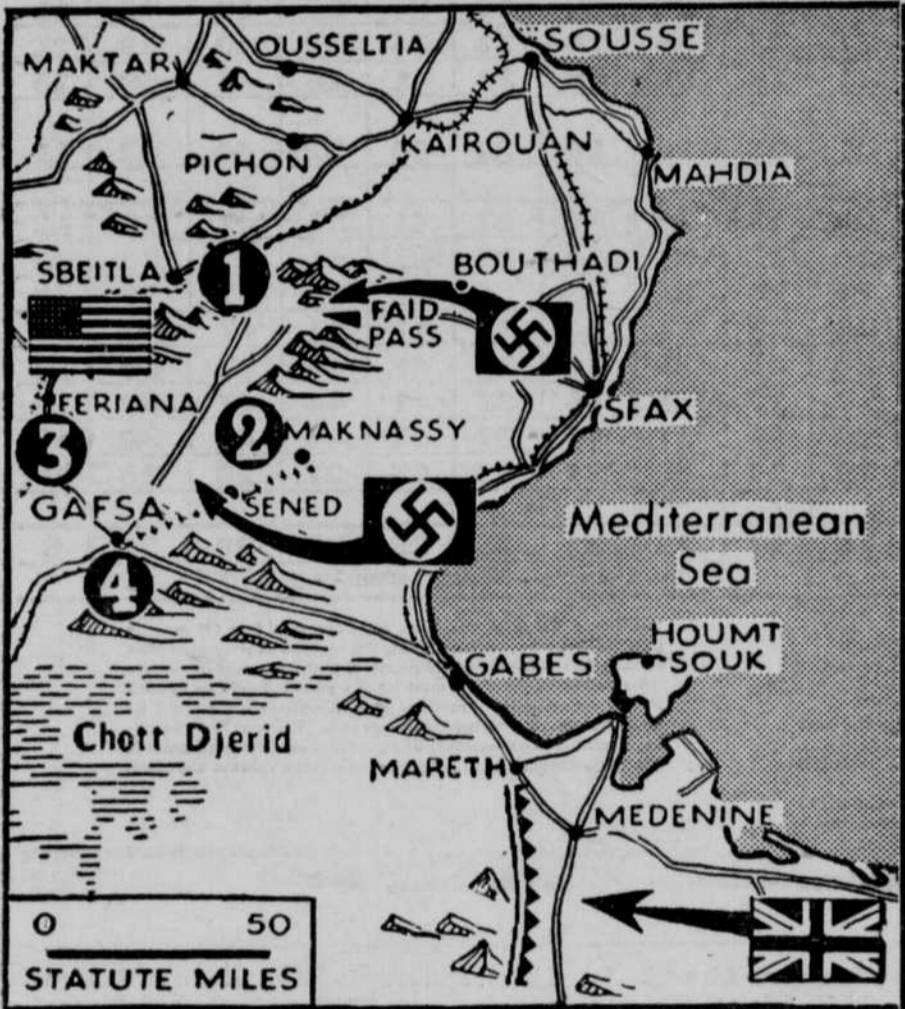

Virginia Sanderlin, 15, of Seattle, Wash., youngest deputy sheriff in America, shakes hands with her new boss, Sheriff Harlan Callahan, after receiving her badge. She is the daughter of A. T. Sanderlin, law enforcement officer, now one of Callahan's deputies. When Sanderlin goes on emergency calls Virginia drives the prowler car.

German and Italian Prisoners Not Too Unhappy

The brighter side for enemy soldiers is to be taken as war prisoners, as is apparent in this picture. Shown on the left are smiling Italian prisoners who realize that the war and all its horrors are over for them. They are on their way to a prison camp for the duration. On the right, German prisoners from a U-boat don't seem to be too unhappy over their plight. Perhaps they are thinking of food, shelter and comparative safety.

Where Yanks Faced Setback in Africa

The first big armament battle of North Africa gave a foretaste of the severe nature of the fighting which lies ahead of the Allies before the Axis can be cleared out of that front. With General Rommel's hardened tank fighters pressing westward to Sbeitla (1) and Feriana (3) from the Maknassy region (2), American troops were forced to re-form in the Tunisian hills to the north. The Allied forward base at Gafsa (4) had been abandoned earlier. The retirement from Gafsa was not completely unexpected.

Real Yank Now

Stacking the Deck on the Axis

Tables Turned

First it was the Chinese who was held prisoner by the Jap. Now he has been freed, and the Jap is held prisoner. Here the Chinese lights a cigarette for his erstwhile captor.

China's First Lady White House Guest

Madame Chiang Kai-shek, first lady of China, is shown on arrival in Washington to be a guest at the White House. President Roosevelt and his wife greeted the distinguished guest, who later addressed a crowded congress. Admission was by ticket.

Big and Little Guy

A study in canine contrasts at the opening of the Westminster Kennel club show in New York. The big dog is a Great Dane, Dino Xanthippi. The half pint is Thein's Little Man II, a Chihuahua, and weighs only about a pound.

His Gun Blazes in Raid Over Tunis

Calm, but with determined accuracy, waist-gunner Robert L. Doremus controls his blazing gun as he directs fire at enemy planes. This action took place when Flying Fortresses accompanied by the deadly P-38s bombed Tunis in one of the biggest air raids on the Tunisian front. Twenty-year-old Doremus of Henrietta, Okla., hero of the operation, kept his guns going all the time.
