Friends Pull A Surprise Party On Bob Earley

Flight Officer Bob Earley arrived from Miami, Fla., on Tuesday, March 2, for a visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Earley, and on Sunday afternoon was the victim of a surprise party in his honor. A jolly crowd of young and old filled the parlor of the commodious home between the hours of one to six, and after they recovered from the first shock of such an invasion they were soon making their friends happy in the enjoyment of games and other pleasing diversions. The occasion apparently seemed to be in honor of Bob, who was home on a furlough from his camp in Florida. Several of his relatives came well prepared to celebrate, with their baskets laden with the best of eats. Being inoculated with germs and the ambition for pleasure and recreation, in seeing the usual percentage of Shields people to keep the ball rolling during the duration of our present disturbance, they all cut loose. Edna Coyne was appointed a committee of one to superintend the program, but when the pinocle game started she threw up the sponge and we got along fairly good at random. Hugh Coyne gave us an insight of the battle on Bismarck Sea that upset the Japs' apperact so. They will always remember what they did with Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941. During the evening a very beautiful lunch was served that all hands enjoyed. About 10:30 the crowd dispersed and accompanied Bob to the train, enroute

You are quick to realize the importance of a Victory Garden when you learn how little Canned Food, Dried Fruits and other rationed foods can be obtained with Ration Book No. 2. The demands for United States Food Supplies have increased faster than Food Production and with the shortage of farm labor the food situation may become even more acute this year. Even though the Home Garden may be small it will be a worthwhile contribution toward winning the war... Council Oak has a complete assortment of Garden Seeds.
