Views of Congress...

By Dr. A. L. Miller, M. C.

Members of Congress who are trying to help the farmer get a fair break with these government agencies set up to control everything are getting a little tired of hearing inflation blamed on the farmers. Committees in each House are about to throw some light on prices the producer gets in contrast to what foods are selling for on the city markets. For sake of comparison here are some of the prices Washington housewives are paying for fresh vegetables: Tomatoes, cucumbers and string beans, 35 cents per pound; sweet potatoes, 10 cents; asparagus, 39 cents; and green belt peppers, 45 cents. Four little red beets cost 17 cents, and four onions about the size of your thumb, 25 cents. Cabbage is 15 cents per pound. Eggs are 58 cents a dozen.

The two-man Japanese submarine captured during the sneak attack on Pearl Harbor, December 7, 1941, was displayed on the Capitol plaza Saturday, April 3. In spite of a raw windy day—windy days are raw in Washington—a large crowd gathered to see it. It is 80 feet long, armed with torpedoes. Naval men do not think it practical.

The Honorable Karl Stefan, Third Nebraska District, made some very timely remarks in the House on April 5. In an able address he said in part:

"I greatly fear that future events will bring a bitter disappointment to the American farmers who in past years have been encouraged to believe the protective tariff has given them real protection, and who believed the American agricultural market belongs first to them. I fear the blow which shattered this hope of American farmers in protection of their home market came in a statement of the Vice President of the United States, Henry A. Wallace. In that statement he indicated that a program of new uses for American farm products was not the policy of the American government. Mr. Wallace indicated that the substitute and synthetic materials program we are now undertaking would be eliminated at the end of the war, and the American market for those synthetic or substitute materials would be turned over to those countries where the natural materials are produced."

In another place, referring to a bill making appropriations for the State, Justice and Commerce departments, he said: "In this bill is included a cultural relations program (for South America) the like of which has never been imagined by American taxpayers."

Mr. Stefan further pointed out that foreign cartels already organized, unless broken up, would take over the two billions of American money now invested in South America and place it with a few private groups, probably European, because American companies have agreed to get out of South America after the war. Unless we have some experienced men, with an eye single to the interest of our own country, looking after these things we stand to lose everything.

From statements made by the President and echoed by the news and radio commentators one would think that the passage of the Bankhead bill would bring an immediate jump in the cost of living, when as a matter fact the bill affects only wheat and corn and would amount in an increase of only 190 million dollars if the whole crop were sold on the market. The President just signed an act granting an increase in wages to one group of federal workers, which means an increase in cost to the taxpayers of 600 million dollars and that is just a beginning. It does not take into account the many increases in wages granted to industrial workers which go directly into increased costs. Increased buying power tends directly to inflation. As the presidents of the four leading farm organizations said in their letter to Senator Bankhead urging the Senate to override the President's veto:

"It is most unfortunate that again and again the American farmer has been attacked and accused of responsibility for inflation. It is apparent that once more agriculture is to be used as the whipping-boy to further appease the wage demands of organized labor and to divert attention from the real source of inflation."

Pioneer Couple Celebrates Their Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Fullerton celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday, April 4, at their farm home about 7 miles northeast of Atkinson. Present at the anniversary dinner in honor of the occasion were Mrs. Fullerton's sister, Mrs. Otto Pfeiffer of Gordon; Mrs. Raymond Robey of Gordon; Paul Fillmore and family of Mitchell, S. D.; Stanley Fullerton and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Skrdla of Atkinson.

Bertha Gates and James B. Fullerton were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gates, north of Atkinson, on April 4, 1893. The Rev. O. T. Moore, Methodist minister, performed the ceremony. Mrs. Fullerton's parents owned and built a home on what is now the V. C. Wilburn ranch, known then as the Kane place.

For two and a half years after their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Fullerton lived on the farm now owned by Mrs. Chas. Shane. They then purchased the place on which they now live, and have resided there for the past forty-seven and a half years. They are the parents of five children, three of whom are living. They are: Stanley, World War I veteran, at home; James, of Gordon; Mrs. Raymond Robey, the former Miss Olive Fullerton, of Gordon. Two daughters, Mrs. Robt. Wilson and Mrs. Paul Fillmore, died several years ago.—Atkinson Graphic.

JUST 90 YEARS AGO

Just ninety years ago Commodore Perry, on behalf of our government, welcomes Japan into the society of nations. America thus struck the bonds of feudalism from a nation which has repaid that act of decency with ruthless hatred; which through the following nine decades has single-mindedly plotted the destruction of its benefactors; and which, on "a day that will live in infamy," committed its ultimate act of supreme treachery.

Now let's go back to Japan—with the only kind of message these "people" understand. Let's go back with our warships—yes planes and bombs as well—to imprint a lesson on the Japanese mind, and on that of the other Axis would-be conquerors of free men, that they will not forget in the lifetimes of their great grandchildren—and ours.
