

Axis Prisoners Get Medical Care, Good Food

Axis prisoners captured in the North African and Sicilian victories will probably total approximately 340,000. Transporting these men to prison camps, feeding them, plus providing medical care for them, are major war problems. Left: Wounded Axis prisoners on stretchers cover a landing dock in North Africa. Brought from a field hospital by Red Cross ambulances, they await shipment to more permanent hospitals and prison camps. Top right: The dish for which their country is famous—spaghetti—entices these Italian prisoners. Bottom right: A wounded German soldier is given a blood transfusion by another German soldier.

Two Yanks Take 1,027; Flier Missing 72 Days

Engine trouble forced Staff Sgt. William I. Coffeen (left) of Chicago, a marine flier, to bail out over the Central Solomon Islands. He lived on coconuts and whatever he could find in the jungle until he located friendly natives. A navy rescue plane picked him up 72 days later. He is pictured as he looked shortly after arriving at a naval base. Center: Lieut. Louis Testa, who with Capt. R. F. Gerard (right) conducted a two-man campaign that netted them three Sicilian islands and 1,027 Italian prisoners at a cost of only $3—the rental price of the fishing boat on which they rode to the islands. They also took nine small tanks and ammunition.

Barging Toward Japanese Shipping

The eventual destination of this ammunition is the interior of Japanese ships where it will be thrown by Allied guns. This barge is loaded with projectiles of both armor piercing and bombardment variety. The cases hold ammunition for anti-aircraft guns. Steadily increasing Allied pressure is pushing the Japs back home.

Allies Shell Italy as Sicily Falls

Thirty-eight days after Allied forces swarmed over the southern coasts of Sicily the island fell to the invaders. Even as the last German troops fled before Allied might, shelling of Italy proper commenced. Possession of Sicily puts southeastern Europe under the thumb of Allied air power. Lieut. Gen. George S. Patton is shown conferring with Lieut. Col. Lyle W. Bernard as their troops neared Messina.

On Guard

At their rocky perch on the lonely coast of Newfoundland, two Canadian soldiers watch for signs of the enemy. This is one of Canada's advance posts in her war against the German submarine.

Planes on a routine flight near Tarnov, Neb., overshot a bombing range and instead hit the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ciecior, narrowly missing two sleeping children. The Cieciors are pictured examining the damage.

ON THE HOME FRONT

With RUTH WYETH SPEARS

THIS old fashioned saw tooth quilt pattern has been used for the border of many handsome quilts. It is so modern looking and so simple to piece that it should serve many decorative purposes. Here it trims kitchen curtains of unbleached muslin. In addition to its old time use its angular note would make it effective as a border for luncheon cloths, aprons and various other purposes. To make a pattern cut a square of cardboard, then cut diagonally; one half will make a triangle pattern. The size suggested in sketch may vary according to the purpose in mind. If a bright color is used for the plain triangles, a narrow border will make a good showing.

NOTE: Readers who plan to piece quilts and have not selected their pattern should send for the three patterns designed by Mrs. Spears which will be sent to you for 15 cents. Address:

JUST DOING TIME

Exposed

Gatekeeper — Two men want passes. They have a letter from the umpire saying they are two friends.

Manager—Get 'em out. No umpire has two friends.

Though most wealthy and famous men claim they are self-made, yet we now and then run across a former dairyman who says he owes his success to many, many udders.

Good Practice

Teacher — Johnnie, you have misspelled almost every word in your composition.

Johnnie—Yes, ma'am; I'm going to be a dialect writer.

His Luck

Corporal (at dance)—Do you see that old buzzard over there? He's the meanest officer I ever saw.

Girl—Do you know who I am? I'm that officer's daughter.

Corporal—Do you know who I am? Girl—No.

Corporal—Thank God!

When you see news photos of soldiers "off duty" in camp or behind the battle lines—notice how often you'll see them smoking a cigarette. There's a good reason for that. Army officials say that cigarettes are an appreciable factor in maintaining morale—and the soldiers themselves add that a carton of cigarettes from home is always welcome. What brand? Well, sales records in Post Exchanges and Canteens show that Camels are the favorite cigarette with men in all the services. Though there are Post Office restrictions on packages to overseas Army men, you can still send Camels to soldiers in the U. S., and to Sailors, Marines, and Coast Guardsmen wherever they are.—Adv.

OPA Price Deputy

James F. Brownlee, who was appointed as OPA deputy administrator in charge of prices. He formerly was director of transportation of the War Foods administration and has been connected with several business firms before taking a government post.

Planning More Trouble for the Axis

Prime Minister of Canada Mackenzie King, Britain's Prime Minister Winston Churchill, and President Roosevelt at Quebec for conference. The attendance of officers from the Pacific area was mentioned as indicating new operations there. Europe was expected to be a major subject as Allied armies were reported poised for an immediate invasion of Italy. Brendan Bracken, British information minister, told newsmen that after Hitler's defeat the "full weight of the British empire" will help destroy the Japanese.

Helena Survivors After Kula Gulf Battle

The USS Helena, a cruiser, helped sink two Japanese cruisers and three destroyers during a naval battle in the Kula gulf, but was sent to the bottom while "working on another" destroyer, according to her captain, Charles Purcell Cecil. Total enemy losses were five destroyers and four light cruisers. Survivors of the Helena are shown answering roll call after the battle.

Sea Hog

A party of seamen on searchlight detail in the South Pacific found this hog which they have made their mascot. "Soule" has the run of her ship, a former liner, and never gets seasick.

Keyhole Shaped Bath Tub Heals Heroes

This bath tub shaped like a keyhole is one of the many modern scientific devices being utilized at the massive Halloran General hospital, Staten Island, N. Y., to rebuild the health of American fighters returned from the battle fronts. The bath shown here is designed to aid in the restoration of leg and arm muscles.

Switch Engine Jeep

Kidneys Must Work Well

For You To Feel Well
24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood. If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus fluid, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly. Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer nagging backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at night, swelling. Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the country over. Doan's stimulate the function of the kidneys and help them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Get Doan's today. Use with confidence. At all drug stores.
