There's Just a Few Dollars Difference Between a "Cheap" Topcoat and One of Outstanding Quality

Scotstweed

Can Be Worn 10 Months in the Year

Tailored of fabrics as rugged as the name implies. Warm when you need cold protection without being burdened. Shower resistant too, and in colors you'll like — typically mannish and with a breath of the heather in their patterns. A coat you can wear and take pride in and be comfortable in. And one costs so little more than a "cheap" topcoat.

Holt County Calf Show Monday, October 4th

Local 4-H club members and ranchers will be interested in learning that numerous inquiries have been received from eastern 4-H members and commercial feeders regarding the number of calves and the date of the Holt County Stocker-Feeder Show. The interest shown would indicate that a large number of buyers are planning to attend the event.

The show, under the sponsorship of the O'Neill Commercial Club, will offer premiums in 4-H and commercial classes. Liberal premiums are being furnished by O'Neill business men. The show will be judged by Joe Watson, County Agent from West Point. Both 4-H members and ranchers are urged to enter their calves with either Lyndle Stout or James Rooney of O'Neill, who have charge of the show. Calves listed with the managers will be sold in the sale before those not listed. Rules and regulations for the show may be obtained from the management.

The show and sale are being conducted and advertised in a series with Bassett show and sale on October 5. Extensive advertising of the sale is being carried throughout the cornbelt livestock journals, and ranchers are invited to consign their calves.

This sale will be conducted through the regular channels of the O'Neill Livestock Company. Following are the premiums listed in the show:

4-H CLASS Hereford

Lot 1, heifer (all weights), first $5; second $4; third $3; fourth $2; fifth $1.

A Tribute from the Treasury

"That over 14,000 commercial and savings banks—without a cent of compensation—voluntarily launched a great and successful drive to sell War Savings Bonds is a glowing tribute to the quality of the patriotism of America's financial institutions."

H. MORCENTEAU, JR.
Secretary of the Treasury

Our bank appreciates this official recognition of the fact that banks have sold some 85% of all War Bonds to date. We continue to recommend them as the world's best investment.

"Your school would love to go through one of the large cities in North Africa. Seems as though most of the strange sights and people and odors of the world are gathered in each market place.

"You would see Arabs and French, and God knows what donkeys and horses and camels, autos and carts and wagons and bicycles all jammed together. Why there are not more accidents is difficult to know. I shall not go into the display of the food, it is not to our taste. It is all very beautiful in its own way, and the residential sections are so far ahead of Omaha that it would make your head turn. Sorry that I haven't pictures to send. Regards to your mother and dad and to all my friends at Emmet,
