INDIAN MAIDS JOIN WACS—In proportion to the population members of North American Indian tribes have an outstanding record in volunteering for service in the armed forces. Indian women as well as the men are in uniform and engaged in patriotic work. Corporal Lillian Licheze, center, WAC recruiter at Gallup, New Mexico, greets two Navajos from the tribe of which she is a member. Her fellow tribeswomen in colorful Navajo raiment are (left) Ruth Arue Williams and (right) Beatrice Bittsely. Corporal Licheze has done much in the enlistment of Indians and is a popular member of the Gallup WAC recruiting office.

Mrs. Elizabeth Donohoe Summoned Tuesday Eve

Mrs. Elizabeth Donohoe died in the Dodge County Hospital in Fremont, Neb., last Tuesday evening, October 5, 1943, after an illness of about three weeks, at the age of 65 years, nine months and twenty-three days. The body was brought to this city Wednesday afternoon and the funeral will be held from St. Patrick's church Friday morning, October 8, 1943, at 10 o'clock and interment in Calvary cemetery at the side of her husband, who passed away on April 8, 1934.

Mrs. Donohoe had been a sufferer from varicose veins for several years and about a month ago she went to Fremont to visit her son, Joe and family and while there she took treatment for her trouble. About three weeks ago she was taken with a severe attack of the flu, which resulted in her death in the hospital where she was taken for medical care after the flu attack.

Elizabeth McNichols was born at Fond du Lac, Wis., on December 13, 1877. When she was six years old the family moved to Ames, Iowa, where they remained for one year and then came to this county in January, 1884, and this county had been her home ever since. On May 1, 1906, she was united in marriage to Thomas F. Donohoe, son of one of the pioneer families of the county. To this union three sons were born, who, with her brothers and sisters, are left to mourn the passing of a kind and affectionate mother and sister. The children are: Joseph T., Fremont, Nebr.; Sgt. Gerald, Camp Williston, Nevada; Clarence V., O'Neill. Her brothers are: John, Joe and Walter, O'Neill; and her sisters, Mrs. J. B. Donohoe and Mrs. P. V. Hickey, O'Neill.

Mrs. Donohoe was a charming woman and had a host of friends in this city, where she was well known and universally admired for her many fine womanly qualities. The many friends of the family tender sincere condolences to the sorrowing relatives in their hour of sorrow.

Most Business Houses To Close October 13

In order to assist in the scrap drive on Wednesday, October 13, practically all the business houses in the county will be closed from 6 in the morning to 6 o'clock in the evening, to enable the business men and their employees in the several towns in the county take part in the Drive. Practically all the business places in this city will be closed, the only exception being gasoline stations and restaurants. This was decided on late this afternoon when practically all O'Neill business men agreed to close their places of business for that day, to assist in putting over the Scrap Drive.

4-H Victory Sewers

The 4-H Victory Sewers held their last meeting at the home of our leader, Mrs. Herman Janzing. All members were present except two. The books which were to be sent in were filled out and ready. After the meeting closed games were played, after which a delicious lunch was served. The club members enjoyed their club and are sorry to see it end.—Ruth Bells, Club Reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. Leiswald a son, born Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Renel a son, born Tuesday.

L. G. Gillespie returned this morning from a three weeks' visit at the home of his son-in-law and daughter in Los Angeles, Calif. Lloyd says that traveling on trains these days is tough going. There are so many soldiers traveling, going east and west, that all trains are crowded, and the train that he came home on was made up of twenty cars, all crowded. He says that he seen more of California this trip than any he had ever made there and he thinks less of California now that he ever did before. While workers there make more money than ever before, when all deductions are made the weekly check is not so large.

The Misses Martha and Mary Hanley of Omaha came up Wednesday for a couple of days visit with the folks in the "old home town."

Seaman 2-c Gerald Hamilton of Farragut, Idaho, is visiting at the Harry and Claude Hamilton homes.

The Catholic Daughters of America had a business meeting at the Golden Hotel on Tuesday evening. Mrs. D. Bohn, Mrs. Jans, Mrs. H. Bowman, Mrs. Vince Suchy, Mrs. Merriman and Mrs. Ivan Pruss were co-hostesses. Luncheon was served at the Elite Cafe.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Burrell, of the Chambers section of the county, were callers at this office last Monday and ordered The Frontier sent to them, so they could keep posted on the happenings in this great big county of ours.

Floyd Fuller, one of Stuart township's successful farmers and stockmen, was a business visitor in this city last Friday and made this office a pleasant call, renewing his subscription to The Frontier. Mr. Fuller says they had a splendid crop in the southern part of Stuart township this year and with good prices the farmers and stockmen of that section of the county are feeling fine.

William Langan, from out on the Eagle, was in the city last Friday, called at this office and advanced his subscription to January 1, 1945. Bill set a good example for all our readers to follow.

Miss Mildred Yantzi, of Minneapolis, Minn., came Tuesday and on Thursday left for Slayton, Minn., taking her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. David Yantzi, home. Mrs. Yantzi has been seriously ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Tess Murray.

Miss Mary Joe Allen spent the week-end in Page visiting her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Allen.

Charles Eaton, Savannah, Mo., spent from Sunday until Wednesday here visiting his sister, Mrs. W. H. Starlin, and other relatives and friends.

Chick Gaines, of Omaha, had business in this city last Tuesday.

Representation Assured

For All Districts Served

By New Plan For Election of Consumers Directors

REPRESENTATION on the Board of Directors of Consumers Public Power District was assured for all districts in the area served when legislation passed by the recent Nebraska Legislature became effective on August 29.

THE law now provides for seven members on Consumers Board, each to be elected in the future, by voters of the respective districts established by the legislature. Not more than one director shall be elected from any district.

WITH the growth of Consumers Public Power District to a state-wide institution, a plan which would provide state-wide representation on Consumers Board was sought by the Directors. Under the new arrangement, future directors will be elected from the various election districts as terms of present directors expire—thus providing representation from each of the seven districts and assuring a state-wide viewpoint in determining policies of the state-wide system.
